Mendis Lukehart, son of J. J. Lukehart, of Falls Creek, and brother of Mrs. John R. Sowers, of West Reynoldsville, died at home of his parents in Falls Creek Sunday with typhoid fever. Deceased was about 24 years old, was a large, robust young man. Had been employed on the P. R. R. and contracted the fever somewhere along the railroad. Funeral service was held yesterday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville. G. M. Davis and E. D. Davis, of this place, attended the funeral.

DIED IN ERIE SUNDAY.
Body of Geneva Lorenz Brought to Reynoldsville Monday.

Miss Geneva Lorenz, a twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lorenz, of Jackson street, died at Villa Marie Academy of Music at Erie, Pa., at 1.30 p. m. Sunday, May 29, 1910, after an illness of nine weeks. Typhoid fever was cause of death. Geneva went to Villa Marie last September and was getting along nicely in music, having graduated in the theory of music, when she was stricken with fever. The body was brought to the home of the grief stricken parents in this place Monday afternoon and funeral service will be held in the Catholic church at 9.00 a. m. to-day. Sister Austin and Sister Gerald, of Erie, accompanied the body to Reynoldsville.

Geneva and Marie Lorenz, oldest children of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz, were born in Reynoldsville January 29, 1892, making Geneva 18 years and 4 months old at time of death. She was a beautiful girl and after death looked like a wax figure. Marie, the other twin, worried so much over Geneva's illness that she had to be taken to a hospital in Buffalo, N. Y., three weeks ago and is still there.

Mr. and Mrs. Lorenz have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the time of the deep sorrow over the death of one twin and the serious illness of the other daughter now in the hospital.

KILLED IN OIL CITY.

Joseph M. Stormer Formerly Resided in West Reynoldsville.
 Joseph M. Stormer, son of Jos. Stormer, Sr., deceased, who resided at Emerickville, cousin of the Stormer boys of Reynoldsville, was killed near Oil City Monday in a collision of a passenger car and express car of the Citizens Traction Co. of Oil City. Stormer was motorman on the passenger car. He leaves a wife and five children. Some years ago Stormer resided in West Reynoldsville.

Not So Fast, Gentlemen.

It is not an uncommon thing to see automobiles speeding up and down our streets at rate of twenty to thirty miles an hour, and unless it is stopped some person will be killed before the summer is over. The fast and reckless drivers, with few exceptions, come from other towns and seem to think our Main street is a speedway. We like to see automobiles running fast and would not object if they sped along at forty miles an hour were it not for the endangering of life. It is hardly safe for children to be out on the streets these days. Several days ago an auto came very nearly running down two small girls on the crossing of Main and Fifth streets. Don't drive so fast, gentlemen, within the borough limits.

If there is no other way to stop fast driving on our streets but to arrest the drivers, then we say arrest them. If one or two arrests were made we think that would have the desired effect.

Veterans Association.

A meeting of the officers of the Veterans' Association of Northwestern Pennsylvania, of which S. E. Brillhart, of Reynoldsville, is president, was held in DuBois Monday afternoon and the appointment of committees was made for the third annual reunion of this association to be held in Reynoldsville July 20th. S. E. Brillhart, of this place, is a member of the committee to secure speakers, and Richard Ramsey, of this place, is a member of the committee on music.

The association takes in the veterans of all wars and all branches of the service and the reunions have been well attended. The indications are that the third event will be larger than either that of last year or the year before.

Not a Fair Statement.

The Brookville Republican, which is not friendly to the candidacy of Gen. Harry White in this district, last week published the figures of the judgeship election in Indiana county in 1904, but was not fair enough to state that Gen. White had withdrawn from the contest some time before the primaries and that his name was not even on the ballot. The 378 votes cast for him were written in by friends who insisted on returning him to the bench.

Mrs. J. C. McDonald Dead.

On Wednesday afternoon of last week Mrs. McDonald, wife of Rev. J. C. McDonald, pastor of the First M. E. church of DuBois, died in the Ridgway hospital. Mrs. McDonald had been ill since last November. Rev. McDonald and wife spent six weeks in Colorado, returning the first of this month, but the trip did not benefit Mrs. McDonald and she was taken to the Ridgway hospital ten days before she died. Rev. McDonald was pastor of the M. E. church at this place twenty-six years ago and a number of our citizens have kind remembrance of Rev. and Mrs. McDonald.

Memorial Sunday.

The Adelphi Theatre orchestra and a choir of eighteen voices furnished music. The attendance was large. The stage scene was woodland and the stage was nicely decorated with flags, potted plants and cut flowers. Old soldiers, Sons of Veterans and members of the W. R. C. attended in a body.

Meek and interment was made in Reynoldsville cemetery.

The following out of town relatives and friends attended the funeral: Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Miller, Misses Minnie and Parma Miller, of Knox, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Green, of Bellevue, Pa., Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Allaman, Knox, Mrs. Alice Foy and Mrs. Tompkins, Leeper, Pa.

Dog Shooter in Town.

In March a mad dog ran through sections of Winslow township and streets of Reynoldsville, biting other dogs and several boys. To protect people in general the State Livestock Sanitary Board put one hundred day guarantee on all dogs in Reynoldsville, West Reynoldsville and Winslow township, making it necessary for owners of dogs in these sections to either muzzle their dogs or keep them tied up during the one hundred days. For awhile some of the dogs were muzzled, but after a couple of weeks very few dogs were muzzled. Last Thursday a dog shooter arrived here from Harrisburg, sent out by the State Department, and he meandered around our streets and alleys and out through Winslow township, carrying a shot gun under his arm, and every dog he saw without a muzzle on he shot it if he got close enough to the canine. He has killed thirty dogs in this neighborhood.

SUDDEN DEATH SATURDAY

Mrs. D. W. Riston Died Near Her Home When Returning From Cemetery.

Mrs. Nancy Riston, a highly esteemed old lady, who was familiarly known by many as "Ma" Riston, at the advanced age of 87 years, became weary resting from the cemetery Saturday evening, May 28, 1910, sat down to rest and almost instantly her spirit took its flight to the Eternal Land. It was her wish that she might depart from this world in some unexpected moment. The ending of her long and useful life was as peaceful as the close of a beautiful summer day, when daylight fades into night with increasing loveliness.

Mrs. Riston and daughter, Agnes, had been at the Reynoldsville cemetery Saturday afternoon, going and returning on trolley, had taken an early supper at home of J. Van Reed and as a near way home went up Cole wiley past the Baptist church. When near the corner of Mrs. Bing's lot "Ma" Riston said, "Oh I am so tired, I must rest," and sat down on embankment and her weary feet never moved again. Death came suddenly at 6.00 p. m. Kind hands carried the body to late home of deceased.

Mrs. Nancy Cupples was born at Brownsville, Pa., March 5, 1823, and was 87 years, 2 months and 23 days old on day of death. Ripe old age. She was united in marriage to D. W. Riston April 4, 1842, and for sixty-five years they traveled life's pathway together, the husband being called by death three years ago last March. Unto Mr. and Mrs. Riston eleven children were born, seven of whom are still living. Mr. and Mrs. Riston moved to Reynoldsville thirty-two years ago.

Impressive funeral services were held at the late home of deceased at 2.00 p. m. yesterday, conducted by Dr. Russell A. McKinley, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, and Dr. Harvey Graeme Furby, of New York City, after which all that was mortal of this grand old mother in Israel was tenderly conveyed to the Reynoldsville cemetery, where, by the side of a devoted husband, she now rests in peace. The interment was private.

No one ever entered Mrs. Riston's home without a warm welcome nor left without feeling the warmth of a genuine hospitality. Burdens or sorrows of life did not destroy the charm of a kind indulgent disposition, nor did old age diminish her unselfish solicitude for her friends and loved ones. Adhering to the faith of her fathers, she united with the Presbyterian church in early life and loved to attend its services when health permitted. While she had continued to enjoy the society of her friends and loved ones, she has for several years realized that her active life was over and with resignation awaited the Divine call from death unto life.

The surviving children are: Agnes, at home, Alex, Reynoldsville, Mrs. J. C. Hamilton, Greensburg, Pa., Mrs. L. C. McGaw, Punxsutawney, Mrs. M. E. Hadden, Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. M. M. Cribbs, Wilkinsburg, Pa., Mrs. H. W. Truitt, Indiana, Pa. All the children, except Mrs. Truitt, who has been ill, were here to attend the funeral.

Among the out of town relatives, beside the daughters, who attended the funeral, were: J. E. Kirchartz, of Beaver Falls, Pa., Charles S. Kirchartz, of Warren, Pa., M. E. Hadden, of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. Charles Overly, of Pittsburgh, and Alex Cribbs, of Wilkinsburg, Mrs. Thomas Ward, of Braddock, James Hamilton, of Greensburg. There were friends present from Punxsutawney, DuBois, Brookville and other places.

"He sees when their footsteps falter, When their hearts grow weak and faint, He marks when their strength is falling, Though there is no word of complaint. He bids them rest for a season, For the pathway has grown too steep, And folded away in green pastures, He giveth His loved ones sleep."
