Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKernan and daughter, Emma, left here Sunday on a pleasure trip to the western part of New York state and into Canada. Yesterday they attended a wedding of a niece at Warsaw, N. Y.

Give peddlers the cold shoulder. They have no business reputation to sustain, and are more likely to skin you than not. There is absolutely not one single advantage in buying from a peddler, therefore give itinerants the shoo.

The Codling Moth.
 A Mercer county, Pennsylvania, fruit grower has written to State Zoologist H. A. Surface that there appears to be something wrong with his one hundred 12-year-old apple trees and encloses specimens for examination and information as to the trouble and remedy.

The professor replied: "The apple twigs sent are infested with the Fall Canker worm. The eggs are just hatching. This is the fellow that, as it becomes larger, is known as the looper, span worm and measuring worm. There is only one thing to do now, and that is to spray all the infested trees with an arsenical poison. Use either one-third pound of paris green or two or three pounds of arsenate of lead in fifty gallons of water. As this is about the right time for one of the sprayings for the Codling moth, you will not lose anything by making the application of the poison at this time. It will insure the destruction of this pest, which otherwise might destroy your leaves and fruit crop for this year, and will also help to insure fruits free from the 'worm,' commonly known as the Codling moth."

Elks' State Convention.
 The Bradford Lodge, of Elks will entertain the Pennsylvania State Elks Reunion Association on August 23, 24 and 25. In order to provide some entertainment for the visitors, who are expected to number between 3,000 and 4,000, the secretary of the Bradford lodge is in correspondence with the Wright Brothers and Glenn Curtiss to put on an exhibition of the work of the aeroplane. The Wrights are willing to send their "understudies" tierce and make three flights for $5,000 and Curtiss is also willing to send his men and make a flight for $1,500. In addition to the above possible features of the entertainment, the first evening there will be a street carnival. During the three days there will be a series of baseball games between teams from visiting lodges of Elks, and the third day there will be a mammoth parade, to end with a ball at night.

Baptist Church.
 Services at the Baptist church. On Sunday morning the pastor will preach on the theme, "My Father's Business." Following the sermon delegates will be appointed to the Clearfield Baptist Association, which will meet in the Newberg Baptist church at Lajose, Pa., June 15, at 10.00 a. m. Also a new constitution will be considered. It is hoped that there will be a good attendance of the membership of the church.

In the evening a Children's Day program will be rendered. The church will be modestly decorated and a good time is assured. The public is cordially invited to hear the little ones sing and speak.

State Demonstrator.
 J. S. Briggs, of Norristown, special inspector and demonstrator for the Division of Zoology Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg, was in town Friday and visited David Wheeler's farm near this place, that being one of the farms of this community selected by the Department of Agriculture for Mr. Briggs to visit. He gave a demonstration of how to trim, spray and cultivate trees. Mr. Briggs is well posted in this line of work and frequently delivers lectures. He expected to remain here longer and would have given a lecture, but he was called to Philadelphia to deliver a lecture.

Birthday Party.
 There was a birthday surprise party held in honor of Mrs. J. L. Cabel at her home on Pike street, West Reynoldsville on Tuesday of last week. A number of guests were present and everyone had a very enjoyable time. Refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Shearer were at Curwensville last week attending the funeral of their sister-in-law, Mrs. G. A. Shearer, who died at Medix Run May 30 and was buried at Curwensville June 2nd. Diabetes was cause of death. G. A. Shearer resided in Reynoldsville some years ago. This was his second wife.

Say young man, you who are so ready to call everybody that don't suit you a hypocrite, would it not be just as well to look up your own standing? A man who keeps his own record all it should be has not very much time to devote to the faults of others, and to go out of his way to fire rocks at those who are treating him with civility.—St. Marys Gazette.

Mrs. Matilda Phillippi and daughter, Miss Beattie Phillippi, of Arcampo, California, are visiting at home of the former's brother, Amos Deemer, at Deemers' Cross Roads. They arrived at Sykesville June 1st. It has been 36 years since Mrs. Phillippi went to California and this is her first trip east and the first time this brother and sister have seen each other in the thirty-six years. Mr. Phillippi died several years ago.

Who Shot Her?
 A few days ago some person shot and killed a valuable Jersey cow owned by Francis McDonald. The cow was in a pasture field near the R. & F. C. R's round house. As there was no sign of struggle the hole torn in her side by lead of shot must have killed her almost instantly.

Fruit Tree Cases Taken to Court.
 The noted fruit tree cases from Winslow and Washington townships will be tried in the Jefferson county court. Two or three of the cases were tried before Squire Perry B. Love and he decided in favor of the nursery company. Last Saturday the defendants in these cases took an appeal to the county court.

Entertainment This Evening.
 This evening the pupils of the St. Marys school of Reynoldsville will give an entertainment in the Adelphi Theatre. Over two hundred boys and girls will take part. The program consists of instrumental music, catchy songs, pretty drills, grave and gay recitations and dialogues, including a humorous play. It will be a fine entertainment.

Graduated With High Average.
 Last June Miss Isabel Arnold, formerly of this place, graduated in the Gullmant Organ School of New York City, and last fall Miss Arnold took up a post-graduate course in the same school and on Thursday of last week, June 2nd, received her post-graduate diploma. She took nine examinations with high average. A post-graduate course in the Gullmant Organ School means a high standard in the musical world, as the work required in the Gullmant is the same as that required by the Royal College of Organists of England.

Epworth League Convention.
 The annual convention of the Clarion District Epworth League will be held in New Bethlehem Thursday and Friday, June 16 and 17, in the Methodist Episcopal church. Each chapter in the district is entitled to send two delegates, and each chapter having an active membership of 50 is entitled to an additional delegate for every 25 or fraction thereof. An extensive and interesting program has been arranged on which many prominent clergymen of this district will have a part, as well as other eminent church and league workers.

Snyder-Corbin Wedding.
 On Wednesday, June 1, 1910, at 4.00 p. m. at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Moore, at Horntown, Miss Ida Corbin, of Allens Mills, and Mr. Homer Snyder, of Horntown, were united in marriage. Miss Jessie Corbin, sister of bride, was bridesmaid, and Irvin Ross, of Allens Mills, was best man. The bridal party stood under an arch of greens and flowers and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Chas. E. Rudy, pastor of the Trinity Lutheran church of Reynoldsville. The ring ceremony was used. The parlor was strewn with flowers. A number of relatives were present. A fine wedding supper was served.

Got First Prize—Gold Medal.
 J. Edward Brewer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Brewer, of West Reynoldsville, a graduate of our high school, now a student in the Pharmacy and Chemistry department of the Medical-Chirurgical College of Philadelphia, won the first prize—a gold medal—in this college last month for the highest per cent in all grades during the term. Some of the other students who were striving for the first prize were college graduates and Edward did not have an easy victory. Natural brightness and close application to the work is how he won the prize. We have reason to be proud of a young man who could carry off a medal from such a large class of bright students.

The Presbyterian Work society will meet at the home of Mrs. O. D. O'Dell Thursday afternoon, June 9th.

Gillespie and Miss Erma Robinson, members of the Utopia Society, attended the meeting of the Neighborhood Club in Punxsutawney last Thursday and Friday.

Funeral of Jas. L. Cochran.
 Mention was made in last week's issue of THE STAR of the death of James L. Cochran, which occurred at 1.30 a. m. Wednesday, June 1st, 1910. Funeral was held at the family residence at 3.00 p. m. Friday, conducted by Dr. A. J. Meek, of the Baptist church, and Dr. Russell A. McKiuley, of the Presbyterian church. Interment was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

James L. Cochran was the son of Isaac and Sarah Cochran. He was born in Winslow township, near Reynoldsville, in July, 1854, and would have been 56 years old next month. Thirty years ago he was united in marriage to Mary Hunter at Luthersburg, Pa. Unto them three children were born, one of whom died some time ago. Deceased is survived by his widow, one daughter and one son, Mrs. James Williams, of Natrona, Walter E. Cochran, of Reynoldsville, his mother, Mrs. Sarah Cochran, one brother, David R. Cochran, of Reynoldsville, and several sisters.

James Cochran, who was a painter and paper hanger by trade, was known by a large number of people in this place and community.

Among the out of town relatives who attended the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. James Williams, of Natrona, P. A. J. Hays Hunter, of Punxsutawney, Eugene Cochran and wife, of Brookville, and a number of others from Brookville, DuBois and Punxsutawney.

Christian Endeavor Convention.
 Arrangements are now being made for the Pennsylvania Christian Endeavor convention to be held at Franklin July 12-14. It is expected that this will be one of the greatest conventions ever held in the history of the state Christian Endeavor work. Speakers of world-wide reputation will be present.

Children's Day Exercises.

KEITH VAUDEVILLE TUESDAY
 At the Adelphi Theatre—Matinee and Night—An Extra Special Attraction.

Manager M. M. Fisher, Jr., has secured another Keith vaudeville attraction for the Adelphi Theatre, which will be given on the afternoon and evening of Tuesday, June 14th. The Keith companies are the finest on the boards and usually appear only on circuits, but the Avenue Theatre at DuBois has been rented for another purpose next Tuesday night and Manager Fisher has secured the company which had been billed for the Avenue to appear in the Adelphi instead. The crowds which witnessed the Keith production in the Adelphi one night a couple of weeks ago will appreciate the treat in store for them Tuesday.

The bill will include Hearn & Rutler singing comedians and eccentric dancers, who have just closed a successful engagement at Hammerstein's Victoria Theatre in New York city; Leonard M. Phillips, in a comedy sketch called "The Irish Swede"; and Sidney Baxter & Company, in an European novelty act. This act has also just closed at Hammerstein's and was one of the biggest hits on the bill.
