

Subscription $1.00 per year in advance.
C. A. STEPHENSON, Editor and Pub.
WEDNESDAY, JULY 6, 1910.
Entered at the postoffice at Reynoldsville Pa., as second class mail matter.
SUMMERVILLE TELEPHONE NO. 61.

Special Offer To Owners of Edison Phonographs

Ten special Amberol Records for One Dollar.
If you buy an Amberol attachment for your Edison Phonograph, we will put the attachment on without charge for our work.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co., REYNOLDSVILLE, PENNA.

A Little of Everything.

Johnson brothers have purchased a Ford runabout.
F. H. Beck, of Punxsutawney, has purchased a handsome new auto.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Stauffer, of West Reynoldsville, a son, June 25th, 1910.
The Bowditch Stock Co., is playing in a tent above the Baptist church this week.
Born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stephenson, of West Reynoldsville, a daughter, June 28th, 1910.
The dentists, of Clarion will close their offices every Saturday at noon during July and August.
Floyd Stintner, of DuBois, lost an eye last Thursday through the careless handling of a firecracker.
Edward Bird proprietor of the Palace hotel, is lying seriously ill with typhoid fever.—Clarion Journal.
George, young son of Anthony Dornworth had his right eye badly burned Monday by having it hit with a blazing sky rocket.
William Organ, Jr., grandson of John Shobert, had his right hand burned while putting off fire crackers on the Fourth.
Prof. C. E. Wilson, former principal at Brookwayville, has been elected principal of the Brookville public schools at a salary of $1,500 per year.
Mr. and Mrs. Rawl McMillen, of West Reynoldsville, moved to Kane last week where Mr. McMillen has accepted a position with a glass company.
Pittsburg capitalists are considering a project to build a trolley line connecting Ridgway, Johnsonburg, St. Marys, Kersy and other places in Elk county.
Twin children were born to Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Snyder, of West Reynoldsville, yesterday but one of the babies was dead at birth and will be buried to-day.
In the list of business places to be closed early, published last week, the name of I. C. Stormer, meat dealer, was inserted by error. The local meat markets will not close until 8 p. m.
In May a big black bear was seen near Emerickville. The same animal was seen last week near Brookwayville by several people, but in each case escaped before any one could secure a gun.
There are few more skillful decorators in the state than H. E. Phillips, who did most of the work on the buildings here on the Fourth. He is in demand all over the western end of the state for gala occasions.
Don't have the nerve to send items to this office announcing doings gotten up for profit unless you want to pay for them. We sell our space and paper for a living. If advertising is worth doing it is worth paying for.
A mail carrier, of Towanda, Pa., had nine supervisors arrested for not removing loose stones from the road as required by law. Six paid fines and costs and three were held out, and court has decided that the three must pay up.

August 12 to 21 the Free Methodist campmeeting will be held in Brookville.
W. J. Martin, of Castle Shannon, Pa., visited his mother, Mrs. Adda Martin, in this place.
See the statements of the First National, Peoples National and Citizens National banks on last page.
Law Sykes, a graduate of the Reynoldsville high school, was recently married to a 19-year girl.
Ex-Sheriff G. A. Scheafnocker came back to his home town to help swell the crowd Independence Day.
Alex Gillespie, of Pittsburg, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gillespie, in Reynoldsville Sunday.
Squire Perry B. Love and two children were at Corsica Monday attending the funeral of Howard Love, a nephew of P. B. Love.
Mr. Merrill McPherson, of Yatesboro, was a visitor at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith, on Bradford street the past week.
Richard R. Hoare, of Rathmel, and Mary J. Chapman, of Prescotville, were married at the M. E. parsonage by Rev. J. F. Black, Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.
P. S. Hersh, superintendent of the Blaw Collapsible Steel Centering Co.'s Reynoldsville plant, visited his aged mother at Renovo, Pa., over the Fourth.
Harry Copping and wife drove their automobile to Pittsburg Sunday. Mr. Copping is planning to rejoin a carnival company and travel with it during the summer.
Yardmaster L. D. Winslow and wife left Friday for Walla Walla, Wash., to visit the latter's brother, H. S. Kreider. They will also visit other places in the northwest.—Driftwood Gazette.
J. Morris Smith and brother, Carl, were home from Indiana county to spend the Fourth. They returned to Indiana county yesterday where they are drilling test holes for coal.
J. W. Stevenson, former Deputy Comptroller of New York City, and son Marion, came to Reynoldsville to enjoy the Independence Day celebration and visit relatives here and near Sherwood.
Arthur E. Tyson, and wife of Cleveland, Ohio, are visiting at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James A. Tyson, on Jackson street. Mr. Tyson will shortly move from Cleveland to Kaukauna, Wisconsin.
W. Harry Moore, the grocer, had his left hand painfully injured Thursday. When lifting watermelons out of a barrel a nail protruding on the inside of the barrel penetrated the back of his hand and tore an ugly hole in the hand.
An excellent statement of condition at the close of business June 30th has been issued by The Peoples National Bank. This institution has been growing conservatively and between March 29, and June 30 shows an increase of $35,000.00 in deposits.
Dr. H. B. McGarrath and family were guests of J. W. Hunter and wife last week. For some time Dr. McGarrath, who formerly practiced in Reynoldsville, has been located at Columbus, Miss., but will locate elsewhere in the immediate future.
Harry A. Reed, former editor of the New Bethlehem Vindicator, who is well known in Reynoldsville, has secured a position as superintendent of the Tokio, Japan, printing plant of the Board of Foreign Missions of the M. E. church. Mr. Reed, with his wife, will sail for Japan in the course of a few weeks.
The result of the big fight at Reno Independence Day was anything but pleasing to the Reynoldsville sporting fraternity. Jefferies was a universal favorite and when the victory of Johnson was bulletined gloom settled down darker than the skin of the winner. There was very little discussion of the fight on the street after the result was known.
Philip Taylor, one of the best known old residents of Reynoldsville, who now lives on a farm between Emerickville and Brookville, was in Reynoldsville last Wednesday. Despite his 77 years Mr. Taylor is hale and hearty, does his own farm work and looks like a man a score of years younger. He recently made many improvements on his farm home and has one of the coziest little places in this section.
When the Washington county, Pa., Republican convention convened last week Squire Roman E. Koehler, formerly of Reynoldsville, now editor of the Donora American, was selected as temporary chairman. Mr. Koehler is a close personal friend of Hon. John K. Tener, the Republican nominee for governor of Pennsylvania and the Tener forces were in absolute control of the convention in Washington county.
Raymond E. Brown, Esq., is moving his office this week into more commodious quarters in the Title and Trust Building, taking the rooms vacated by Dr. E. E. Chesnut, with additional adjoining room. Mr. Brown has been located in the National Bank of Brookville building since establishing offices in Brookville, but since his election as justice of the peace has found it necessary to get more space.—Brookville Republican.

Glass Machine.
After a week's suspension the glass machine is again in operation and doing well.
Editor Improving.
C. A. Stephenson is still confined to a bed in the American Stomach Hospital, but according to a letter written by himself the past week is doing well and will soon be on the "beat" for news again.
Severe Injury.
Albert Hollenbaugh, an employe at the Hughes & Fleming saw mill near Wishaw, had his left wrist severely cut one day last week by getting it caught in an edger. Thursday evening about two hundred of his friends held a pie and ice cream social at the home of Albert Hollenbaugh and the proceeds, netting $22.50, over all expenses, were given to William Hollenbaugh.
Strawberries Extraordinary.
Bradford Beebe, who lives on a farm near Pardus, brought to THE STAR office Friday two strawberries of phenomenal proportions. One measured a good seven inches around and the other was but slightly less. Mr. Beebe raised the berries in a large patch near his home and by careful cultivation has made his vines yield far larger and finer fruit than is ordinarily seen in this section—or any other.
New Location.
L. M. Snyder, who had a blacksmith shop on Jackson street, near Fifth, for about nineteen years, has moved his shop to another building at the foot of Fifth street, about 150 feet from the old stand, the Welsh building which was formerly used as a blacksmith shop by W. H. Cumins. Mr. Snyder is transferring his former Jackson street place of business into a dwelling house. Both interior and exterior are undergoing extensive repairs. A fine veranda will be placed along the front.
Fire on Grant Street.
About six o'clock in the afternoon July Fourth the firemen were called to the home of Miss Aggie Riston, on Grant street, to help quench a dangerous blaze. It is thought that a little daughter of Mrs. Dr. H. W. Truitt, who was visiting there, accidentally set fire to a heavy curtain in the bath room. Shortly after the girl came down stairs the other members of the family noticed smoke on the upper floor and found the room blazing. The fire was put out by buckets and the hose was not used.

Barn Guttered.
About midnight Monday a barn on the alley opposite the rear of Henry's store caught fire, probably from a sky rocket, and burned stubbornly until about 2:30 next morning gutting it thoroughly. When first seen the blaze was small and boys attempted to put it out by tearing off the shingles. The only thing accomplished was to let the burning shingles drop through into straw and in a few minutes the whole structure was in a blaze. The local firemen responded to the call of the bell and did good service, but it was difficult to extinguish the fire after it got into the baled straw. About a ton of baled straw belonging to S. C. Henry, the grocer, was burned so badly that it must be thrown away. S. C. Henry also kept a horse and sled in the barn, the latter of which was burned. The barn was the property of E. T. McGaw and Mrs. C. S. Armagost.
Death of Frank Foley.
Frank Foley, a former Reynoldsville man who has resided in DuBois for some time, was found dead on a street at that place Thursday morning of last week by a newsboy who was making the rounds at an early hour. The coroner was notified and investigated, but decided that an inquest was unnecessary, the evident cause of death being heart failure induced by alcoholic poisoning. According to the stories of friends of the unfortunate man, they had started to walk home with Foley the night before but when he collapsed they left him along the way. Sometime during the night life passed away, apparently without a struggle. The remains were taken to his home on Maple avenue, DuBois, where funeral services were held Saturday afternoon and the body was brought to Reynoldsville for burial.
Frank Foley was known well in this section of the state through his playing with the "Indian" football team in the days when it held the championship of Western Central Pennsylvania. With great skill and endurance he was a tower of strength to the famous "eleven."

Veterans-Arrange Program.
President S. E. Brillhart was at DuBois Sunday attending a meeting of the officers of the Veterans' Association of Soldiers and Sailors called to complete arrangements for the reunion to be held in Reynoldsville Thursday, July 20th. Reports from quarters of the district are to the effect that there will be a large attendance of veterans. The program as arranged will include a band concert and speech by Ex-Judge Harry White in Frank's Park in the morning, followed by a basket picnic in the same resort. To this picnic town people are not only invited but urged to attend. In the afternoon the pavilion will be used for a meeting which will be addressed by Hon. W. I. Swope, of Clearfield, with a patriotic speech. All who have heard Swope, know the treat in store for local people. In the evening the veteran and local citizens will gather for a camp fire in Centennial hall. Chief Burgess J. D. Williams is expected to open the meeting with an address of welcome and Lawyer Wm. M. Fairman, of Punxsutawney, will respond.
The attendance will be large and the merchants are urged to show their esteem for their guests that day by a liberal display of the Stars and Stripes these honored veterans risked their lives to save.
And Jefferies Couldn't Have Done It.
Charles A. Scott, lineman on the Pennsylvania railroad, has been going around the past week with the appearance of a man who had been in a ten foot ring with Jim Jefferies, only as "Charley" complacently remarks, Jefferies could never have "done him up" half so bad. It took the carelessness of other linemen, the force of gravity, a thirty-five foot fall and a rock pile to do the work.
Mr. Scott was up a telephone pole where the wires turned at right angles when some one loosened the guy clamps. The pole bent, rebounded and broke, knocking Scott out into the air heels over head for a thirty-five foot fall. He landed on his head on a pile of stones.
By some miracle he retained consciousness enough to get up and walk a few feet in a dazed way before he discovered that his head was cut open, his ribs knocked askew, and his body a mass of bruises. Some one asked him where his nose was. "Charley" felt for it and it wasn't there. It was finally located near his left ear and twisted back again. Mr. Scott decided to come home and enjoy the big Fourth of July celebration while waiting for his head and ribs to heal.

Will Visit Germany.
Henry W. Hergel will go to Pittsburgh to-morrow and after a short visit there will be joined by a brother-in-law, Henry S. Smith, of Spencerville, Ohio, and together they will leave for a trip across the ocean Sunday. Mr. Hergel will visit old friends and relatives at Laubenburg, and afterwards make a tour of the most interesting cities of Germany. They will leave New York on the ocean journey July 14.
Vaudeville at the Adelphi.
Owing to the "Four Johnstons" having an open date before their engagement at Hammerstein's Roof Garden New York City, Manager Fisher has secured them at a great expense for Thursday, Friday and Saturday nights, July 7, 8 and 9. Now if you want to see them go the speed limit in their six cylinder 1910 model act go to the Adelphi. Admission 10 cents.
Bare foot sandals, sizes 5 to 8 50 cents. 8 1/2 to 11, 60 cents Adams.
Ladies' and gentlemen's clothes cleaned and dyed. Suit pressing a specialty, at Dahler's.

WANT COLUMN.

FOR RENT—Six room house with barn. Inquire of E. Neff.
LOST—Watch and fob Tuesday night. Initials C. R. on fob. Suitable reward. Finder please leave at STAR office.
LOST—Bracelet. Finder please return to Ross House. Suitable reward.
WANTED—Boy to learn blacksmith trade. L. M. Snyder.
FOR SALE—Good hardwood plank. Inquire of H. A. Swab.
FOR SALE OR RENT, or will trade for town property, the Geo. Tapper place near Prescotville. Inquire of Thos. F. Adair.
FOR SALE—Late cabbage, cauliflower and celery plants; also greenhouse lettuce. West Reynoldsville Greenhouse.
FOR RENT—Six room house. Inquire of D. H. Young, corner Grant and Fifth street.
WANTED—3 or 4 Good Weavers. Good pay, good work, and steady job. Alexander Murray, Supt. R. F. D. No. 1 Relestown, Md.
FOR SALE—House and lot on Tenth street. Inquire Mrs. W. P. Dickey.

Numerous Election Precincts.
The following extract from the address of the president of the Pennsylvania Bar Association at its session last week at Cape May, is very applicable to conditions existing in this section:
Speaking of the amendments of the constitution, he said that the real object was to do away with the so-called spring election. He regretted the fact that there was, back of the passage of these amendments, an increasing indisposition on the part of the people to go to any trouble in the performance of their most responsible duties of citizenship.
For years past this tendency has been asserting itself in an inordinate demand for more numerous election precincts. Their multiplication has been countenanced in the hope of thereby minimizing the irksomeness to the voters of the exercise of their franchise and of encouraging a more general participation in elections. But "on the pasture of hope graze many fools" says the Russian proverb. The upshot has been that the cost of elections has mounted up prodigiously, and the size of the vote polled, as compared with the growth of the population, has steadily gone down. Latterly, save upon exceptional occasions of local or national concern, no election seems able to bring out even a decent proportion of the persons who ought to vote, and unhappily the stay-at-home element is largely made up of those presumptively best qualified to vote intelligently and most likely, if voting at all to vote honestly. The remedy now to be applied is to reduce the number of elections. That is to say, a man who has shown himself habitually indifferent to certain duties is relieved of part of them in the expectation that he will thereby be shamed into a performance of the rest; a lazy school-boy systematically playing truant is given a dispensation from attendance upon certain days on the assumption that he will feel disposed to answer to the roll-call on the remaining ones.
Drowned at Brookwayville.
Russell and Francis McCluskey, aged nine and seven years respectively, sons of James McCluskey, of Brookwayville, were drowned Thursday while swimming in the Little Toby creek near that place. No one witnessed the accident and it was only when the boys failed to come home that search was made. Their clothes lying on the bank of the stream gave the first hint of their fate. They had ventured into an exceptionally deep part of the stream and neither of the boys was able to swim in deep water.
Killed at Pittsburgh.
John H. Corbett, of this place, and F. G. Corbett, of Prescotville, were called to Pittsburgh Sunday by the death of their brother, O. W. Corbett. The latter was yard master at Pittsburgh and while employed in the yards stepped in front of a moving locomotive and was run down before he noticed its approach. He was 60 years old and leaves a wife and several children. The funeral was held yesterday and burial was made in Highwood cemetery.
K. G. E. Reunion.
The committee of the Knights of Golden Eagle securing subscriptions to defray the expenses of the reunion to be held here in August met with a very liberal response from local business men. The order has a large membership in this district and the reunions are always largely attended. It is expected that the K. G. E. crowd will be very little less than that of Monday. The program for the day will be announced shortly.
The Peoples National Bank of Reynoldsville.
Reynoldsville, Pa., July 6, 1910.
Dividend—The directors of this bank have this day declared the regular semi-annual dividend of three (3) per cent on its capital stock, out of the earnings of the past six months, payable July 1st, 1910. Checks will be mailed to stockholders of record June 30th, 1910.
F. K. ALEXANDER, Cashier.
Methodist Church.
Services for Sunday, July 10th, 11:00 a. m., theme, The Compulsive Power of Love. The 7:30 p. m., services have been postponed during the months of July and August.
The Warren Mirror recently gave Frank Roller, a former Reynoldsville boy, a highly complimentary notice of his work as a sub-carrier of mails in that city. He is now handling a line of mail boxes on the side and the Mirror says he is doing a land office business.
Buy Queen Quality Oxfords, ankle fitters—price $2.50 to $3.50. Adams.
"Hymel certainly saved my life and I accord it the credit which it deserves and merits."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, Coldwater, Mich. Hymel is guaranteed, by Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup or sore throat. $1.00 for complete outfit.
Walk-Over Baron shape Oxfords, have room for all your toes and fit the ankle, price $4.50. Adams.
Do you want a good fitting pump? Buy of Adam's prices, $2.50, 3.00 and 3.50.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.
Glimpses of the People who are Passing To and Fro.
Frank P. Alexander and wife visited in Ridgway Saturday.
Richard Miller spent the Fourth with W. H. Bell in Reynoldsville.
Miss Emma Fisetie visited her home near Reynoldsville the past week.
Miss Alice Reitz returned this week from a visit at her home at Ohl, Pa.
Will Reynolds, of Warren, has been visiting Reynoldsville friends the past week.
Prothonotary Blake E. Irvin, of Brookville, was here to celebrate the Fourth.
Bruce Mitchell, of Homestead, visited his mother in Reynoldsville over the Fourth.
Harvey Myers, of Pittsburg, spent the Fourth at the home of his father, J. A. Myers.
Ross W. Deible, jeweler of East Brady, visited his parents in Reynoldsville Sunday.
Miss Berna Hoover, student in Indiana Normal, is home for the summer vacation.
Mrs. Joseph Williams was called to Williamsport last week to attend the funeral of an uncle.
Leonard Harris, student in Allegheny College at Meadville, is home for the summer vacation.
Pearl Barto, of Ridgway, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Barto, last Friday and Saturday.
Miss Zelma Smith, of East Brady, is the guest of Miss Barbara Dunkle, in West Reynoldsville.
Lawyer Ed. Carmalt, of Brookville, was here on the Fourth following the crowd to see the sights.
Misses Dismore and Kurtz, of Punxsutawney, were guests of Miss Esther Bell on the Fourth.
Arthur Barclay and wife, of Groenaburg, visited their former homes in this place the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Eggert and son, of Ridgway, were entertained at home of W. H. Bell on the Fourth.
Charles M. Feicht and family, of Punxsutawney, came to Reynoldsville Sunday to enjoy the celebration.
Mrs. W. W. Foust, son, Chester, and daughters visited Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Foust in this place the past week.
Miss Sadie Keim has returned to her home on Mable street, after spending the past five months at Philadelphia.
Miss Edith Katzen left here Tuesday morning on a trip to Baltimore, Md., Richmond, Va., and Washington, D. C.
T. N. Lord and family, of Hites, Pa., visited the former's mother, Mrs. M. J. Lord, on Mabel street over the Fourth.
Mr. C. M. Snyder, of Connessville, Pa., visited with his brothers, L. M. and A. Z. Snyder, during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Walter Irwin, of DuBois, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Snyder during the past week.
Mr. and Mrs. Rame Yarger, and daughter, of Strattonville, were guests at the home of J. A. Myers over the Fourth.
Miss Anna Woodford, of Iselin, Pa., visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Woodford in Reynoldsville over the Fourth.
Mrs. Dr. Harry W. Truitt and daughter, of Indiana, were guests of relatives in Reynoldsville over the Fourth.
W. F. Darr and family came up from Brookville in their big car on Monday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Hall.
Mrs. Walter Sheridan, of Sewickley, nee Laura Colwell, of Kittanning is the guest of Miss Marguerite Applegate, this week.
Thomas C. Shields, traveling inspector for the United States Leather Co., spent the Fourth at his home in Reynoldsville.
Thomas Benson, of Minneapolis, Minn., is a guest at the home of his cousin, Mrs. M. Montgomery, in West Reynoldsville.
J. Edgar Shields, student in a Cleveland, Ohio, institution, came to his home in this place last week for a visit over the Fourth.
Mrs. F. F. Smith, of Pleasant Avenue, went to East Pittsburgh Saturday to join her husband, who is in the Westinghouse works.
Mrs. Smith M. McCreight and children went to Wilkensburg yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. McCreight's sister-in-law.
Prof. A. E. Earle, assistant principal of the Reynoldsville schools, went to Lewisburg Saturday to spend a month with his parents, Rev. and Mrs. I. M. Earle.
Robert P. Robertson, of Butler, visited relatives in Reynoldsville over the Fourth. Mr. Robertson now holds a responsible position with the Standard Steel Car Co., of Butler.
Mrs. T. K. Hunter, of Winslow, visited her son, George C. Hunter, in Reynoldsville, a few days the past week. Mr. Hunter is now able to be on the streets again, with the aid of crutches and is rapidly regaining his former health.