K. G. E. Plans For Big Reunion

Program Includes Parade, Foot and Bicycle Races, Ball Game, Quoits and Dancing.

The reunion committee of the Knights of Golden Eagle met last night and arranged the program for the big district reunion of the order to be held in Reynoldsville August 9th. Word has been received that Grand Chief William Y. Irwin, of Norwood, Pa., will be present and participate in the exercises.

The reunion will commence with a business meeting on the night of the 8th of August and on the following day it is believed that fully five thousand members of the order will visit the town. For their entertainment a long program of parades, ball games, foot and bicycle races, dancing, tugs of war, quoit handicap, and other events has been arranged, with liberal cash prizes for each contest. All the contests, except the tug of war, are open to the general public. More complete announcement next week.

It will likely be produced sometime in September with the main caste made up of the famous old Alhambra and Cadenza minstrel members.

Reynoldsville has rarely enjoyed such a trade as it has during the last few weeks. Our business men are waking up to the fact that Reynoldsville is a better trading center than any other town in the county and are supplementing that fact by getting right down to business and selling goods aheaper than they can be bought in any other town of our size in the state. The people are growing wise and coming here from a radius of fifteen miles and more to buy.

Misses Emma Davis and Ruth Stiles were the teachers chosen at at previous meeting. Both Prof. Mayes and Miss Cooper are graduates of the Clarion normal and teachers of several years' experience.

Some Oil Excitement.

Considerable excitement has been aroused by the striking of oil in paying quantites on the Cook farm, near Coder, where F. C. Deemer has been searching for gas. Eight barrels were pumped from the well after a two days stand, and indications are that oil will be forthcoming in still greater quantities. Deemer has several thousand acres of land under lease in the vicinity of his find. which is in line with the Sigel field, and it is more than probable that the next few months will see considerable drilling in the immediate vicinity of Brookville, the present well being located only a short distance west of town. The oil found is of excellent quality .-Brookville Republican.

RICHARDS RE-UNION.

Pioneer Warsaw Family Spent Fourth on the Old Homestead.

The annual reunion of the descendants and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. James Richards, well known pioneer residents of the northern end of the county, was held on the fine old homestead in Warsaw township July Fourth and proved one of the pleasantest gatherings of the family in recent years. It was the 78th birthday of the patriarch on the family, James Richards, as well as the 48th anniversary of his marriage to the woman who, also in her 78th year, still stays by his side to share his joy and sorrow.

At the noon hour on Independence Day a magnificent dinner was spread for the guests in the shade of the old apple trees on the lawn and besides the aged couple in whose honor the event was held, there were gathered around the table Al and Blake Richards, with their wives and family, of Ridgway, D. B. McConnell and wife, of Falls Creek. Elmer Allen and wife, of Brockwayville, with their daughter, Mrs. Nellie Crawford and her daughter, Anna, who is the only great grand child of Mr. and Mrs. James Richards, James Boggs and wife, of Warsaw, Fred A. Moore and wife, of Glendale, Elon Richards and wife, on the old home place, and Miss Lizzie Bell also at home. All of the children were present except the oldest son, John Richards, who was accidentally killed last year in Michigan, where his wife, son and daughter still

The afternoon was spent as such occasions always are, in the mood when the memory of old days at home revives reminiscences of events that brought both pleasure and grief. The Fourth has been a notable day in the life of James Richards, marking not only his birth, his marriage, and baptism, but many other events.
