

Mr. Edison

Has authorized us to give to every owner of a Phonograph, SIX Edison Amberol Records (worth $3.00) without charge. Special records that you cannot buy at any price. Come in and hear the latest records and let us tell you about the plan.

Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.,

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENNA.

A Little of Everything.

Ed. McConnell, clerk at Frank's Tavern, spent Sunday in Pittsburgh.

August 30th the county convention of the W. C. T. U. will be held at Summerville.

A new wire fence has been placed around part of the Catholic cemetery in West Reynolds.

Richard Reynolds, mail carrier on one of the rural routes, is now enjoying his annual two weeks' vacation.

George McDonald suffered a sunstroke Thursday while working in his father's meadow south of town.

A large crowd attended the picnic of the Baptist Woman's Mission Circle at Edgemont Park Thursday last.

A reunion of the London family of this section will be held in Romantic Park at Sykesville September 1st.

Owing to the bursting of a pipe at the Sykes woolen mill Monday morning, the plant was idle part of the day.

Hammond I. Postlethwait will go to Clarksburg, West Virginia, to-morrow, where he has been offered a position.

Rev. C. E. Rudy will conduct preaching services in the Lutheran church at Chestnut Grove Sunday at 3.00 p. m.

Alfred Ward, of Oil City, has been visiting his father, Squire P. J. Ward, in West Reynolds, the past week.

A ball ground is being laid out on the Brookville fair grounds and base ball will be a daily attraction during fair week.

M. S. Sibley, of Brockwayville, has announced his intention of entering the next campaign to contest for the office of sheriff.

The Presbyterian Work Society will meet at home of Mrs. George Kline, on Grant street, Thursday, August 11th, at 2.30 p. m.

The annual Cherry Run campmeeting will be held August 11 to 14. Rev. Maurice Reuben, a converted Jew, will be the principal speaker.

W. G. Baker, of Baltimore, clerk to the third vice president of the B. & O. railroad, spent his vacation at the home of Mrs. Fred Zeitler.

The concrete arch over Pitch Pine Run near the Reynolds Woolen Co.'s mill has been completed and the street again thrown open to traffic.

The Butler and Muth reunion at Romantic Park, Sykesville, Thursday was attended by about three hundred relatives and friends of the families.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Eddy, of Main street, were called to St. Marys, Pa., Saturday by the illness and death of Mr. Eddy's mother, Mrs. Joseph Eddy, a widow 65 years old.

Rev. Dr. R. A. McKinley will preach in DuBois next Sabbath morning for Rev. Dr. J. V. Bell, and in Reynolds in the evening. He will speak also at Sandy Valley at 3 p. m.

Astronomers predict an unusual number of "falling stars" to-night, August 10. Each year about this time the earth passes through a group of meteors traveling in an orbit and the display is the result.

The corner stone of the new Brookville Methodist Episcopal church will be laid to-night at 6.45 o'clock. Hon. Thomas H. Murray, of Clearfield, will deliver an address and many ministers will participate.

M. J. Sullivan, of DuBois, organizer for the Order of Owls, was in Reynolds Monday. He reports having enrolled 125 charter members up-to-date and is busier now than ever. He predicts 300 members for the order in Reynolds and fine club rooms.

Lawyer Clement W. Flynn attended court at Greensburg a day last week.

William Booker, of Barnesboro, an old citizen of Reynolds, has been circulating with friends here the past week.

James DeHart, who has been employed at New Kensington for several months, is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. DeHart, on First street.

Fred Johnston, who has been located in Phillipsburg, visited his father, J. K. Johnston, in this place yesterday. Fred contemplates locating in Leechburg.

Dr. Thos. F. Nolan, who is taking a post graduate course in eye, ear, nose and throat diseases in Philadelphia institutions, was home a few days the past week.

Miss Marian Booth, granddaughter of Rev. J. Booth, is seriously ill with typhoid fever, contracted while on a visit to the home of her brother, Walter Booth, at Ford City.

James G. Pentz and daughter, of Corapolis, Pa., were in Reynolds Sunday attending the funeral of Mrs. Sarah Patton, at Prescottville. Mr. Pentz is married to a daughter of Mrs. Patton but his wife was unable to attend the funeral services.

County Commissioners J. N. Kelly, E. T. McGaw and A. F. Reitz were in Reynolds Saturday and took two men and an infant to the county home. One of the men was Scott Cathers, a well known local character, whose mind has weakened, the other a man named Murphy, also mildly insane.

Mrs. Fred Zeitler and Miss Ella Murphy, of near Reynolds, were thrown from a buggy while driving last Saturday and Mrs. Zeitler received serious injuries. Her body was badly bruised and nine stitches were required to sew up a wound in her arm. Miss Murphy escaped with but slight bruises.

The Clarington Sawmill Company has taken the contract to saw all the timber remaining on Millcreek for A. Cooks Sons Co., and the mill is now being moved from Clarington to Millcreek. It will take about two years to cut out this lumber. Cook's mill was burned recently.—Jeffersonian Democrat.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hoon, of East Brady, Mr. J. Truby, Miss Hoon and Mrs. M. J. Lewis, of Clarion, and Mr. and Mrs. Rev. J. H. Jelbart, of Brockwayville, visited for several days at the home of Mrs. Butler on Grant street last week. These relatives were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Julia Hoon, last Tuesday.

August Walters, agent for the Bradford laundry, has placed a new laundry drop box in front of his stand at the City Hotel. It works on the principle of the letter boxes and enables Mr. Walters to receive laundry day and night, whether he is around or not. Trust to the reliable old professor to keep up to date.

J. R. Milliren, Al. M. Smith, Dr. B. E. Hoover and W. C. Murray motored to Winslow, Jefferson county, Sunday, where they visited Dr. B. E. Hoover's father, and also visited Mr. Murray's old home and the home of a brother of Dr. Hoover in Gaskill township. It was a forty-three mile run and greatly enjoyed by the gentlemen.

The trout season for 1910 closed on Saturday. It was not a success. Good catches were fewer and farther between than in several previous years. On the other hand the bass fishing has never been better. That is the report that comes from various sections of the state, the waters of which are inhabited by these gamey fish. September and October are usually the best months for bass fishing, but this year July was apparently as good as the fall months.

President Helps Orphans.

Hundreds of orphans have been helped by the President of the Industrial and Orphan's Home at Macon, Ga., who writes: "We have used Electric Bitters in this institution for nine years. It has proved a most excellent medicine for stomach, liver and kidney troubles. We regard it as one of the best family medicines on earth." It invigorates all vital organs, purifies the blood, aids digestion and creates appetite. To strengthen and build up pale, thin, weak children or rundown people it has no equal. Best for female complaints. Only 50c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co. store.

Methodist Church.

Services for Sunday, August 14th: 11.00 a. m., theme, "Jesus Prays for His Followers." No evening services.

Men's $3.50 patent leather oxfords for $2.50. Bing-Stoke Co.

The shoes we offer at cut prices are our very best quality. Adam's.

15c, 20c and 25c thin dress goods for 12c. Bing-Stoke Co.

Ladies' $2.50 oxfords $1.85. Bing-Stoke Co.

Dr. R. A. McKinley, pastor of the Reynoldsville Presbyterian church, preached in the Brockwayville Presbyterian church last Sunday morning and evening.

Men's 50c underwear for 30c at Bing-Stoke Co.'s.

One fourth off on all dress shirts at Bing-Stoke Co.'s.

PETTICOATS

The Highest Art in Hy Art Petticoat Making

Shick & Wagner

—THE BIG STORE—

FALL SUIT OPENING

AND

A Special Sale of High Art Petticoats

We are opening this week the fall and winter season of ladies' TAILORED SUITS and LADIES' 52 INCH SERGE COATS.

By Thursday of this week we will receive a large shipment of ladies' suits and will then have the complete line of fall suits ready for your inspection. This is the strongest and best line of ladies' suits we have ever shown. The line will represent the best numbers and styles of both an EASTERN and a WESTERN suit manufacturer. We are carrying out our policy of a few years ago of buying from both Eastern and Western manufacturers and have bought from two of the biggest and best suit houses in the country. This will give you a better selection and a greater assortment of styles to choose from.

We are showing also some neat and nobby styles of ladies' 52 inch long serge coats in NAVY, BLACK and GRAY.

Suits from $10.00 to $40.00 Coats from $10.00 to $16.50

There has already been a sufficient demand on both suits and coats to assure us that this is going to be a big season on both. We can absolutely guarantee both the styles we show and the prices. Anything you purchase and do not find absolutely right in every particular we will cheerfully refund you the money any time.

High-Art Petticoats

To make this opening interesting and attractive to you we are putting on SALE OUR COMPLETE LINE of HIGH-ART PETTICOATS. Silk petticoats, $3.50. The regular price of these run from $5.00 to $8.50. Some of these numbers are new fall styles having just been received this week from the HIGH-ART PETTICOAT MANUFACTURER. All silk petticoats this week, $3.50. Mercerized and Heatherbloom, $1.00. This is a better petticoat than you can buy anywhere for $1.50 to $2.00, this week $1.00. Heatherbloom this week for $1.50. You can't buy a better petticoat at any price than this $1.50 line. This week only $1.50.

Bates Short End Gingham

We received last week a case containing 1500 yards of Bates Short End Gingham which are put on sale at 10c a yard. This is a regular 12 1-2c gingham and gives you a good selection of new fall patterns and colors. They came too late for last week's news and many have already been sold before our announcement, but we still have a good assortment left. This week the balance goes on sale. A regular 12 1-2c gingham for 10c.

School opens in a few weeks—now is a good time to get the children ready.

In order to make doubly sure of interesting and attracting you to the suit opening we will, beginning Thursday morning and for the balance of this week, give DOUBLE TRADING STAMPS on all purchases. You don't have to buy a suit but we want you to see the styles we are showing and our prices.

Hy Art

ADJUSTA-BALM

Just pull the strings

In order to make it worth your while to come to see our line we are offering you these great inducements, giving you

Double Trading Stamps

as well as the special prices on

High Art Petticoats and Gingham

Remember these prices and inducements are good only for the balance of the week.

Shick & Wagner

THE BIG STORE
Corner Main and Fifth Streets,
REYNOLDSVILLE, PA.