Fire on the hill north of Sandy Valley threatened the lodge of the Reynoldsville Camping Club with destruction Monday.

We will consider it a favor if our readers and friends will either send or phone in local news, personals or items of general interest.

There is Union Sunday school every Sunday afternoon at the old Baptist church at Prescottville. Chas. Hoffman is the leader.

A meeting of the members of the Koon Korn Klub of jolly memory has been called for Thursday night by President Charles M. Milliren.

George Wise, of Rathmel, had the index finger of his left hand caught in a sprag on a mine car one day last week and it was smashed to pulp.

Philip Koehler, who was confined to his home in West Reynoldsville two weeks by a severe attack of rheumatism, was able to be out again Friday last.

There was a Polish wedding at Rathmel last Saturday and it is said that $60 worth of beer went to the home the same day to help along the jollification.

Don't fail to hear the Indian band. Don't fail to see the base ball games. Don't fail to look in the big shows. All can be seen and heard at Nolan Park Carnival.

The company store and adjacent buildings in Reynoldsville have been brightened up with a new coat of paint. The work was done by Hetrick & Boney, of Punxsutawney.

The Presbyterian Sunday School and members of the congregation will hold a picnic at Romantic Park, Sykesville, to-day, Wednesday. On account of the picnic no prayer meeting in the church to-night.

The W. C. T. U. will meet with Mrs. A. L. Keagle, at Rathmel, Thursday afternoon, August 18. It has been requested that the ladies take well filled baskets and hold their annual picnic at that place.

Firman Deas, who recently purchased the London homestead in Rathmel, is making extensive improvements around the buildings and property and will soon have one of the best appearing estates along the Rathmel road.

The Epworth League will hold a moonlight picnic at the old gas well below Hopkins Thursday night, Aug. 18th. They will leave Reynoldsville on the 8.08 p. m. train. All members are requested to attend and bring a friend.

The W. C. T. U. of Reynoldsville will hold a picnic to-morrow, Thursday, in the grove near Pleasant Avenue. The ladies will go to the grove in the car leaving Main street at 11.00 a. m., dismounting at Baldauf's residence.

One of the most artistic jobs of house painting to be seen in Reynoldsville is on the J. S. Hammond residence on East Main street. D. R. Cochran and his corps of assistants did the work after a design prepared by a decorator of national reputation.

Fred Wise is the last victim of the dogs in Rathmel, having been severely bitten last week. The dog nuisance in this little hamlet is becoming serious. Dr. Ira Bowser, the physician at that place stating that no less than nine persons have been bitten so severely during the last six weeks that the wounds had to be cauterized.

Every farmer or person interested in farming should make it a special point to be at Nolan Park Carnival Thursday, September 1st, as the Association has arranged with Prof. R. L. Watts, of the horticultural department of State College to give an address on the subject of "Farming in Clarion County," and it will certainly be worth any man's time, who is interested in farming, to hear this lecture. The exact hour will be announced later.

Joseph S. Johnston, road master in Winslow township is going over the brick road from Prescottville to Rathmel this week making all needed repairs. Johnston was supervisor on the road before the brick was laid and knows every sink hole on the stretch that used to cost the township a pile of money each spring and still allows the brick paving to sink a little in various places.

As a result of the recent hold-up of paymaster Brown of the Widnoon mines, Saturday morning, July 23rd, 1910, the regular semi-monthly pay for the first time in the history of the mines was made at Lawsonham last Saturday and it is said that this plan of paying will be used in the future, and thus avoid the transportation of a large sum of money across the creek and up through the woods where the recent attempted hold-up occurred.—New Bethlehem Leader.

The Lock Haven State Normal school is easily accessible from every part of Pennsylvania either by means of the Pennsylvania Railroad of the New York Central. It is located in a thriving town of ten thousand people on the west branch of the Susquehanna and in a locality that is famous throughout the state on account of its scenic beauty. The buildings are modern, comfortable and convenient. It has a faculty of College and University trained men and women. Its professional work is peculiarly well adapted for the training of teachers for the public schools. If you are interested in a good school, address the Principal for an illustrated catalog.

Robert J. Burdette, the well-known writer, speaking of the opportunity of American boys said: "Why the world is always at a boy's feet, and power, conquest and leadership slumber in his rugged arms and carefree heart. A boy sets his ambition at whatever mark he will—lofty or groveling as he may elect; and the boy who resolutely sets his heart on fame, on health, on power, on what he will—who consecrates every faculty of his mind and body on ambition, courage, industry and patience can trample on genius; for these are better and grander than genius. "Such a boy will begin to rise above his fellows as surely as the sun climbs above the mountains."

DIED IN INDIANA CO.

Agnes, Daughter of Peter Robertson, Passed Away.

Agnes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robertson, formerly of Reynoldsville, died at the home of her parents in Clymer at noon Thursday, August 11th, 1910, after a fourteen months' struggle with tuberculosis. The body was brought to Reynoldsville and taken to the home of a sister, Mrs. John Reddick, on Worth street, where funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock by the Rev. John F. Black, of the Reynoldsville Methodist Episcopal church, and burial was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

The deceased was born in Lawrence county in 1881, and at the time of death was but a few days past her 29th birthday. When a girl she came with her parents to Reynoldsville and attended the public school of Reynoldsville borough for many years, where she was very popular with her schoolmates and became known to many. When her parents moved to Bitumen a few years ago, she went with them and later accompanied them to Clymer where she passed the last years of her life.

Besides her parents, she is survived by the following brothers and sisters: James Robertson, of Evans City, Pa., William Robertson, of Bitumen, Pa., John Robertson, of Clymer, Robert A. Robertson, of Butler, Pa., Mrs. George Roller and Mrs. John Reddick, of Reynoldsville. Mrs. William Bone, of Barnesboro, Pa., and Misses Mary and Annie, of Clymer.

Besides the immediate relatives of the deceased, named above, all of whom were here to attend the funeral, the following persons came to Reynoldsville Sunday to be present at the last rites over the remains: Mrs. William Robertson, of Bitumen, Mrs. John Robertson, of Clymer, Mrs. Barbara Robertson, and Mr. and Mrs. Peter Robertson, Jr., of Wampum, Mrs. John Miller, Hugh, Andrew and John Miller, Master Peter Miller and Mrs. Clyde Pantall, of New Bethlehem, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCallum, of Pittsburg, James McMurtie, of Clymer, Ira McKinnon, of Clymer, and Henry McKinnon, of Bitumen.

Pleasant Trip to the Mountains.

Mr. and Mrs. James Armagost returned recently from a camping party in the huckleberry mountains which was very pleasant to them. In the party were Miss Ethel Funnare, of Pittsburgh, Miss Ethel Gallagher, of Winterburn, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Gallagher, of Winterburn and Gust Pash, of Phillipston. On their return from the mountains they visited at the home of Peter Gallagher, of Winterburn, where the party was joined by Mr. and Mrs. J. Steving, of Pittsburgh, and one of the events of their stay there was a hay ride from Winterburn to Weedville which was enjoyed by twenty-four people.

Won't Need a Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Sossman, of Cornellius, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema, or piles. 35c at Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.

The recent commencement of the Lock Haven State Normal School is noteworthy for several reasons: one being the fact that the school graduated the largest class in its history and the other that a very satisfactory lecture and entertainment course was completed during commencement week by a splendid presentation of Shakespeare's "As You Like It" on the front campus by the famous Ben Greet players of England. The educational value of this performance was in itself sufficient to warrant the large outlay. It will pay you to see the beautiful catalog of this first-class school.
