

Guests at the Wedding.

Among the guests at the wedding of Charles E. Donmoyer and Miss Nina Johnston at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Higgins last Wednesday evening were the following from a distance: Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Angevine, daughter, Miss Edna, and two sons, of Ricksford, James Johnston, and Miss Lillian Johnston, of Coudersport, Mrs. Angevine, of Stockton, N. J., Miss Mary Crawford and Miss Ruth Sykes, of Sykesville, and Miss Edna Moore, of Philadelphia. Of these, the guests from Coudersport and Ricksford returned to their homes the latter part of last week.

It had been announced that Mr. Donmoyer and bride would leave shortly after the ceremony on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and other places, but when the time came for going the plans were suddenly changed and the couple remained in Reynoldsville until Monday, when they went to Philadelphia, their future home.

Brookville Fair.

The Star is in receipt of the annual catalogue of the Brookville fair, from the press of the Brookville Republican, and it is executed in the usual faultless typography of that office. As usual, the Brookville fair promises to be a big amusement event, and the society is making big preparations to surpass previous exhibitions. The fair this year will be an all day affair, base ball games being played within the grounds in the morning, while Capt. Winston's trained seals, the special attraction, will also give exhibitions in the forenoon. The race premiums are exceptionally heavy, and the usual high class premiums for stock and farm exhibits are offered. The dates are September 13, 14, 15, and 16.

LAST SERMON OF CONFERENCE YEAR

Next Sunday the Rev. John F. Black, pastor of the Reynoldsville Methodist Episcopal church, will preach his last sermon in the present conference year and attend the annual conference of his church the coming week. The people of Reynoldsville regard Rev. Black as one of the most successful ministers who has ever served the local Methodist congregation and there is little question but that the bishop will recognize his good work here by sending him back to continue the upbuilding of the church.

Fine Prospect.

The Clarion State Normal School will open its twenty-fourth annual session on Tuesday, September 13th. The attendance promises to be the largest in the history of the institution. During the past five years the growth has been unusual. It has an ideal location and a fine equipment. A fine spirit characterizes the student body. If you have not already engaged a room better do so at once. J. George Becht, Principal, Clarion, Pa.

McGuire Trial.

Charles McGuire, the Lawsonham youth arrested on suspicion of being the party who held up F. M. Brown, paymaster of the Widnoon Coal Mining Company, six week ago, will appear before the Armstrong county court for trial next week. There is not very much evidence to connect McGuire with the shooting of Horton Craig on that occasion outside of the fact that after he had denied owning a pair of light colored overalls, such as the desperado wore, a pair of overalls, of the right shade were found in his shanty near the place.

Won't Need a Crutch.

When Editor J. P. Sosman, of Cornellus, N. C., bruised his leg badly, it started an ugly sore. Many salves and ointments proved worthless. Then Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it thoroughly. Nothing is so prompt and sure for ulcers, boils, burns, bruises, cuts, corns, sores, pimples, eczema, or plies. 35c at Stoke & Felcht Drug Co.

In other words, why be satisfied with only part telephone service, when the Bell System gives you unlimited service?

The Bell is the one service of unlimited capacity. It reaches everywhere—enables you to telephone where you will and when you will. Whether you wish to telephone to or from the busy city or country hamlet the Bell affords a service that is absolutely unequalled.

In all the large centers Bell service is supreme—because it is the choice of the majority—because it is the service of unlimited capacity.
