Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.,

REYNOLDSVILLE, PENNA.

A Little of Everything.

A. M. Woodward, a former Reynoldsville druggist who has been in business at Clearfield for several years, has sold his interest in the drug store at that place.

The fire in the tank of the Eldred Glass Co. plant at Punxsutawney will be re-lighted September 1st and work will be commenced as soon as possible thereafter.

Dr. Walter E. Lotz, well known in Reynoldsville, has purchased the dental practice of Dr. Harry C. Coleman in Johnsonburg and took active charge Monday last.

The Pifer reunion was held at Alahoe Park, near Big Run, Tuesday of last week. There was the usual large attendance and a day of pleasure for all who were there.

W. S. Ross changed the grade of the sidewalk in front of his West Reynoldsville hotel and greatly improved the appearance.

Colonel William M. Fairman, resplendent in green and white has been a conspicuous figure among the crowds passing through Reynoldsville to the court at Brookville during the last few weeks.

Charles E. Sautter, of Hites, Pa., has purchased the National Hotel at DuBois and is in charge. Mr. Sautter was in Reynoldsville a few weeks ago looking for a location and met many of our people at that time. DuBois people will find him a genial fellow, four square and true.

F. S. Hoffman has given a contract to George Kline to raise a house he owns near the corner of Fourth and Grant streets two feet. It is Mr. Hoffman's intention to cover the stream running through his lot with a concrete arch, fill in the land and make his lot more valuable by the improvement.

The purse advertised in last week's STAR was placed in the hands of its owner, A. N. Uplinger, Saturday night. Mr. Uplinger had lost it the Saturday night previously. It pays to advertise. If you have lost anything, found something, want to buy or sell some article, put a short ad in the Cent-a-Word column of THE STAR and you will find the person you are after.

Effective July 15th, the P. S. & C. R. R. Company revised their passenger rates on a strictly mileage basis, making a reduction in rates generally, as well as making mileage books good for holder and persons accompanying, with special low rates for monthly tickets. Further information can be had by applying to Agents or addressing Chas. F. Heidrick, General Passenger Agent, Clarion, Pa.

What's the matter with Reynoldsville as a wholesale center? W. T. Cox, who opened in the Evans block a few weeks ago, has been receiving carload after carload of produce and disposing of it all as rapidly as he can bill it out. Last Friday he received between eight and nine hundred watermelons and every melon was gone Saturday morning. The Star has long held that Reynoldsville afforded the finest opportunity for the establishment of a wholesale house in this section, on account of its central location, and the success attending Mr. Cox's venture is confirmation of the opinion.

The London reunion will be held at Sykesville September 1st.

John M. Hays, mail carrier on Route No. 1, will commence his annual vacation to-morrow.

Don't miss it. You'll regret it if you do. "Is marriage a failure?" at the Adelphi Sept. 7th.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Reynolds, of Warren, a daughter, Sunday, August 28th, 1910.

H. Eugene Phillips was in Bradford last week where he had out a large quantity of decorations for the Elks gathering.

The Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. J. A. Myers, on Hill street Friday afternoon.

The Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church will meet on Thursday, September 1st, at the home of Mrs. Adam Keim, on Mabel street.

Dr. A. J. Meek, pastor of the Baptist church, and E. D. Davis, of West Reynoldsville, are attending the convention of the Baptist Association at Corsica this week.

The reunion of the Winslow family of this section of the state was held at Bennezzette Thursday. Next year the family will gather at Punxsutawney for the event.

Gibbons reputation and success as an optician is the result of accurate work and square dealing. Consult him if your eyes need care. Brookville Sept. 12, Reynoldsville 13.

Charles Evans has started a series of dances in the hall over the Family Theatre. The first was given Monday night and one will be given every Monday night hereafter.

A false report concerning resumption at the silk mill was circulated Monday. No word has been received concerning resumption and there is very little prospect or expectation of it for some time to come.

Mrs. G. G. Williams, Mrs. Hannah Prescott, and Mrs. H. E. Phillips were at Summerville yesterday attending the county convention of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of which the first named lady is chairman.

Four of the finished leather plants of the United States Leather Company, one at Stoneham, two at Sheffield and one at Glade, have suspended work owing to an overstock of leather. It is uncertain when the plants will resume operations.

There have been no new developments in the situation at the Star glass plant. A meeting of the directors of the Colburn Machine Glass Co. was to have been held in New York City Saturday to make arrangements for carrying on further experiments, but was postponed for a week.

Eighteen members of the Reynoldsville Camping Club enjoyed a corn and chicken roast at the camp of the organization a mile north of Sandy Valley Thursday evening. The camp was in gala attire and the members had the liveliest kind of a time until the morning stars warned them of the passing of the night.

Bert A. Hoffman left Reynoldsville yesterday for Clearfield, where he will join his wife and together they will go to New York City to take steamer for Puerto Rico Saturday. The distance from New York to Puerto Rico is about 1,800 miles and Mr. Hoffman and his bride will have a five or six day ocean voyage, touching Havana, Cuba, on the way.

An inspection car carrying James Buckalew, general superintendent, J. I. Richardson, train master, J. W. Masterson, superintendent of agents, all of Oil City, and D. M. Dunsmore, assistant train master, of Reynoldsville, passed over the Low Grade Division of the Pennsylvania Railroad Thursday. The special object of the trip was the inspection of the sanitary conditions in the railroad buildings.

John Bolner, of Knoxdale, now in the county jail at Brookville, will have to stand trial for the killing of at least two men. Of the three who were shot by Bolner in a fit of rage August 21st, one, Charles Covalene, died at once, and Dominic Vigni died a few days later. Bolner's wife, who accidentally got in the way of a bullet, gave birth to a child two days after the shooting affray, at a time when she was supposed to be near death, but has shown remarkable vitality and may recover.

C. I. Marvin, secretary of the Wage Earners' Protective Union of Pennsylvania, passed through Reynoldsville Monday morning on his way to Ramseystown to help install officers in the recently organized local of the W. E. P. U. at that place. D. W. Atwater, of Reynoldsville, general organizer for this thriving young insurance order, is now engaged in organizing a union at Sugar Hill and has enrolled a large number of charter members.

Mrs. Nancy Reynolds, mother of Mrs. Laura G. Stephenson, of this place, died at Lock Haven last week and was buried Sunday. Mrs. Stephenson is at Lock Haven.

MORRIS IRA HUTCHISON DEAD

Morris Ira Hutchison, an old resident of Panooset, died suddenly while visiting at the home of his brother-in-law, John O'Hara, of Falls Creek, Friday afternoon, August 26, 1910. While he had been suffering slightly from a complication of diseases, his condition caused no alarm and death came as a surprise to all his friends. The funeral was held at the Hutchison home at Panooset Sunday afternoon, conducted by Rev. J. V. Bell, of DuBois, and was attended by one of the largest crowds that ever witnessed a funeral in this section. The floral tributes were beautiful. Burial was made in the Falls Creek cemetery.

Attention, Brother Owls.

You are hereby informed that the blank forms for the signing of charter is now in the hands of our deputy and secretary, Fred J. Butler, who is our acting secretary. All paid members are requested to call as soon as possible and sign. All applicants who have not paid will do so at their earliest possible convenience and sign the charter list. By order of the Deputy Supreme President, M. J. SULLIVAN.

AN ENJOYABLE FAMILY REUNION

At the Home of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hetrick, at Pansy, Saturday of Last Week.

Saturday, August 20th, a bright and beautiful morning, about ten o'clock, thirty children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren began to gather at Pansy to cheer Mr. and Mrs. Michael Hetrick and each other in the annual family reunion. When the dinner call was sounded, the smiling crowd gathered around the tables, beautifully arranged and bounteously laden, under the old apple tree. These trees stood sentinels for many a youthful episode of these boys and girls, only older grown. The hiding places were not forgotten as the finding of the horse with the red halter sufficiently proved.

The joy of the occasion bubbled out all over in hall playing, music, reminiscent stories, wit and humor, picture taking and speaking. The hour to go home came too soon for everyone.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Deemer and their three children, John, Clarence and Ella; Edward Carr, Ruby Emery, Mr. and Mrs. John Brooks and three children, Catherine, Mary and Alice; of Brookville; Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Spare and three children, Mary, Anna and Alice; Abe Cannedy, of Cool Spring; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deemer and daughter, Ruby, of Content; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer E. Schugars, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Boyle, Mr. and Mrs. Mabe Harriger and son, Michael, of Reynoldsville, Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Himes, and children, Jennie and Lovilla, of Ohi, and Rev. William Weickel and family.

Death of an Infant.

Dale, the two year old son, of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kirkwood, of Worth street, died Friday morning, August 20th, at 7 o'clock. Death was caused by cholera infantum. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2:30, conducted by Rev. A. J. Meek, of the Baptist church, and burial was made in the Reynoldsville cemetery.

Peach Crop.

The large peach orchard of Kerr & Bush, near Grange, Pa., and south of Reynoldsville is yielding a fine crop of choice budded peaches. Lovers of the juicy peach who prefer home grown fruit should visit the orchard or write to Kerr & Bush.

Anybody Can Lay RUBEROID Roofing

Now is the time to take off that shingle or tin roof—when it is beginning to leak with every rain, and put on a RUBEROID roof.

A leaky roof never gets better. It grows worse, in spite of constant patching. The best remedy is a new roof that doesn't leak.

RUBEROID is a perfect roofing. It is weather-proof, sun-proof, wind-proof and fire-resisting.

RUBEROID costs less to maintain than shingles, tin, tar or slate, or any other ordinary roofing.

Write to-day for our two free roofing books, "All About Roofing," and "The Ruberoid Album."
