 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

The Sophomore girls were perfect in attendance and punctuality last week.

The girls in Miss Dailey's school, the girls in Miss Robertson's school, and the girls in Miss Cochran's school, were perfect in attendance and punctuality last week.

The following schools have had no case of tardiness for a month: Seniors, Sophomores, Miss Morgret's, Miss Cochran's.

Dr. L. L. Means called at the school office Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Harry Moore visited the schools during Friday afternoon.

Don't turn down the boys and girls when they ask you to buy tickets for the lecture course. The profits will be wisely invested for the pupils.

EVADING THE LAW.

The Pictores of Flying Birds in a Mohammedan Mosque.

According to one of the tenets of the Mohammedan religion, it is a sin to make a picture of any living thing. The elaborate decorations of the palaces and mosques of the east are almost exclusively made up of ingeniously interlaced geometric designs, arabesques or flowers, intermixed with sentences of the Koran.

There is a belief among Mussulmans that at the day of judgment Allah will demand that the artist who has made the image of a living thing shall endow that image with life and that, failing to do this, the artist will be sent to perdition for his sin.

A gentleman who visited a mosque in Algiers found that the tiles with which the building is decorated, which are very old and very beautiful, are adorned with flights of birds. He expressed surprise at this and asked if the command against such representation were a modern edict.

"Oh, no," answered the pious Algerian to whom he addressed the question. "These are not pictures of living birds."

"But they are painted as if flying across the tiles," the other said in some astonishment.

"Yes," the Mussulman replied, "but do you not see that about the neck of each there is a fine black line? That is to show that the artist painted only dead birds, and the command of the Koran is not violated."

CASTE IN THE ARMY.

Civilians Find It Difficult to Understand Military Discipline.

One thing not commonly understood among civilians is the completeness of the barrier which divides army officers from the soldiers, or, as they are more generally called, the "men." It is always vastly amusing to those familiar with the service to observe the errors in this respect frequently made by the novelist and the playwright.

Personal qualifications have nothing whatever to do with the matter. A soldier may be a gentleman who has enlisted with the purpose of obtaining a commission, yet there can be between him and his officers no social intercourse of any sort, and severe penalties would be inflicted upon the officer who would attempt to disregard the rule.

It might seem that this enforcement of a caste sense would result in much hard feeling on the side of the men. Such, however, is not actually the case. It is taken for granted and recognized as conducive to "good order and military discipline." It is a military regulation like any other and implies no disgrace. Directly a soldier's enlistment is out or directly he rises from the ranks the prohibition is removed.—Delineator.

Roundabout.

The very budding barrister assumed the approved legal look of indisputable superiority.

"Now, my good lady," he observed, shaking an admonitory forefinger at the woman in the witness box, "you do not appreciate the gravity of the question. Endeavor to concentrate what brain power nature has endowed you with and answer me. What relationship does the defendant bear to you?"

"Right-ho!" responded the good lady. "Is father's cousin was my cousin once removed, and 'is mother, marry in' me uncle's only brother."

"My good lady," interrupted the bud despairingly, "I am not here to solve puzzles!"

"Well, I'm blowed!" ejaculated the lady. "You was talkin' just nah as though you'd cornered most o' the brain pair goin'. If you 'adn't swanked quite so much I'd 'a' told yer plainly an' simply! 'E'se me brother."—London Answers.

Some Repartee.

We heard this one at a garage yesterday:

"You're a bum driver," says one chauffeur.

"Say," says the other, "what I know about automobiles would fill a library."

"Yes, and what you don't know about 'em would fill a morgue."—Cleveland Leader.
