DUBOIS SUFFERS HEAVY FIRE LOSS

Large Section of Long Avenue Wiped Out by Flames Last Wednesday.

LOSS WILL APPROXIMATE $25,000.00

A $25,000 fire wiped out a large section of the Long Avenue business district in DuBois Wednesday morning last. Haggerty's bakery, the Singer Sewing Machine office, Hays Plumbing Shop, Washington's Millinery store and Moore's Undertaking rooms were totally destroyed. The fire started through a gas explosion in a tenement over Haggerty's bakery and spread so rapidly that little could be done to check it. Insufficient water supply also handicapped the firemen.

$25,000 Prize Contest.

The Pittsburg Dispatch's great voting contest, in which that publication is giving $25,000 in prizes to the people of Pennsylvania, Ohio and West Virginia, is attracting wide spread attracting widespread attention and interesting many people in this section. Leading the list of 78 prizes are three splendid touring cars. They are a $3,750 Columbia, a $2,200 White gasoline car and a $1,700 Oakland car. These prizes are to be awarded to the contestants having the first, second and third highest number of votes in the entire contest, regardless of where they live.

By a judicious division of the three States five divisions have been created. After the grand prizes have been awarded, come the division, or sub-grand prize, consisting of five $1,000 Maxwell touring cars, five player pianos worth $800 each, and five $400 upright pianos. One Maxwell, one player piano and one upright piano must go into each of the five divisions, namely: Greater Pittsburg, Allegheny County outside of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania outside of Allegheny County, Ohio and West Virginia.

These divisions are then divided into 15 districts and it is provided that a $200 diamond ring, a $150 furniture outfit, a $100 furniture outfit and $50 in gold must go into each of these 15 districts.

This is a handsome array of prizes and the arrangement of divisions and districts equalizes the competitions and gives every contestant, no matter where he or she lives, a splendid opportunity to win.

Any respectable person, no matter whether a subscriber to The Dispatch or not, may enter the contest. It costs nothing to make the effort to win one of The Dispatch's 78 prizes: there are no obligations of any kind attached to entering. The competition is open to all and free to all. Many interested people in this vicinity will probably avail themselves of this opportunity to bring some of the prizes here.

All that is necessary to enter the contest is to clip out and fill in the nomination ballot published daily in The Pittsburg Dispatch and send it to the Contest Manager of The Pittsburg Dispatch.

ECCENTRIC PAVING.

Louis XIV. Covered One Courtyard With Silver and Gold.

Many interesting instances of individual eccentricity or extravagance in the selection of material for paving streets and roads may be cited. It is related that when Maximilian Emanuel succeeded to the throne of Bavaria he celebrated the event by causing one of the roads leading to his palace to be paved with plates of burnished copper. This, gleaming in the sunshine, gave all the effect of the more precious metal—gold.

We are told also that Louis XIV. paved one of the courts at Versailles with squares of silver, each of which had recorded upon it some triumph of the French arms. In the center of the court stood a large tablet of gold in representation of the luxurious monarch's favorite emblem, the sun. Memoirs of the time of Louis make mention of a lodge erected to the love of his youth, the fair Louise de la Valliere. The approach was paved with mirrors wherein was painted an allegory setting forth the undying devotion of the king to Louise.

An eccentric nobleman of Milan conceived the idea of paving the courtyard of his palace with slabs of marble, granite and other stone, each from a different land. It is said that Europe, America, Asia, Africa and Australia all contributed materials to make up this quaint mosaic composed of more than 1,000 pieces, every one of which was suitably inscribed with the name of the country or state whence it came.—Harper's Weekly.

No Place For Women.

One peculiar fact is impressed on the world. No woman, suffragist or anti, has designs on the north pole. The Eskimo winter styles lack something that might make distinction and elegance. No true woman would go where people could not tell which direction she was going or whether she was herself or her husband.—Omaha Bee.

An Old English Law.

At one time railways in England were prohibited from carrying persons going to a prizefight.
