Qualifications of Electors

By Article 8 of the Constitution, the qualifications of electors are prescribed as follows:

SECTION 1. Every male citizen, 21 years of age, possessing the following qualifications shall be entitled to vote at all elections. First, He shall have been seven years a citizen of the United States, or one year of the state, he shall have resided in the state one year (or, having previously been a qualified elector or a native born citizen of the state, he shall have removed therefrom and returned, then six months) immediately preceding the election. Second, He shall have resided in the election district where he shall offer to vote at least two months immediately preceding the election. Third, He shall be of age and upwards, he shall have paid within two years a state or county tax, which shall have been assessed at two months and any paid at least one month before the election.

SECTION 5. Electors shall in all cases, except treason, felony, and breach of surety of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance on election, and in going to and returning therefrom.

SECTION 13. For the purpose of voting no person shall be deemed to have gained a residence by reason of his absence, while employed in the service either civil or military, of this state or of the United States, nor while engaged in the navigation of the waters of the state or of the United States, or on the high seas, nor while a student of any institution of learning, nor while kept in the poor house or other asylum at public expense, nor while confined in public prison.

Also, that in the fourth section of the Act of Assembly, entitled, "An Act to amend the Act of April 16th, 1846, it is enacted that the aforesaid 13th section shall not be construed as to prevent any military officer or borough officer from serving as judge, inspector or clerk at any general or special election of this commonwealth.

"If any person shall prevent or attempt to prevent any officer of any election under the act from holding such an election, or use or threaten any violence of any such officer, or shall interrupt or improperly interfere with him in the execution of his duty, or shall block up the window or the avenue to the window where the same may be held, or shall in any way disturb the peace at such election, or shall use or practice any intimidating threats, force or violence with design to influence or unduly overawe any elector or to prevent him from voting, or to restrain the freedom of choice, such person on conviction shall be fined in any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars and to be imprisoned for any time not less than one month nor more than six months; and if it shall be shown the court when the trial of such an offense shall be had that the person so offending was not a resident of the city, ward, district or the township where the offense was committed and not entitled to vote therein, then on conviction, he shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars and be imprisoned not less than six months nor more than two years."

If any person or persons shall make any bet or wager upon the result of any election within this commonwealth, or shall offer to make any such bet or wager, either by verbal proclamation thereto, or by any written or printed advertisement, challenge, or invitation to vote, or persons to make such a bet or wager, upon conviction thereof, he or they shall forfeit and pay three times the amount offered to bet.

If any person shall vote at more than one election district, or otherwise fraudulently vote more than once on the same day, or shall fraudulently fold and deliver to the inspector two tickets together, with the intent illegally to vote, or advise and procure another so to do, he or they shall on conviction be fined in any sum not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars, and be imprisoned not less than three nor more than twelve months.

If any person not qualified to vote in this commonwealth agreeably to law (except the sons of qualified citizens) shall appear at any place of election, for the purpose of issuing tickets or influencing citizens qualified to vote, he shall on conviction forfeit and pay any sum not exceeding one hundred dollars for every such offense and be imprisoned for any term not exceeding twelve months.

In case the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for inspector on the day of election, then the person who shall have received the second highest number of votes for judge, shall act as inspector in his place; and in case the person who shall have received the highest number of votes for judge, shall not attend, the person elected judge shall appoint an inspector in his place; and in case the person elected judge shall not attend then the inspector who received the highest number of votes shall appoint a judge in his place; or if any vacancy shall occur in the board for the space of an hour after the time fixed by law for the opening of the election, the qualified voters of the township, ward or district for which such officers shall of election, shall elect on out of their number to fill the vacancy.

As commanded by the said Act of June 10th, 1893, I hereby give notice that every person, except justice of the peace who shall hold any office of appointment or profit of trust under the government of this state, or of any city or town, or of any city or incorporated district, whether a commissioned officer or otherwise, shall be employed under the Legislative, Executive or Judicial Department of this state or of the United States, or of any city or incorporated district, and also every member of Congress, and of the State Legislature, and of the select or common council of any city, or commissioner of any incorporated district, is by law incapable of holding or exercising at the same time the office or appointment of judge, inspector or clerk of any election of this commonwealth, and that no inspector, judge or other officer of any such election shall be eligible to any office to be then of election, shall elect one out of their officer.

I also make known the provisions of the Fifteenth amendment of the constitution of the United States.

SECTION 1. The right of the citizen of the United States shall not be denied or abridged by the United States on account of race, color or previous condition of servitude.

SECTION 2. That Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

AND WHEREAS, The Congress of the United States on the 21st of March, 1874, passed an Act entitled "An Act to enforce the right of citizens of the United States to vote in the several States of the Union and for other purposes," the first and second sections of which are as follows:

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED, &c., That all citizens of the United States who are or shall be otherwise qualified to vote at any election by the people of any state, territory, district, county, parish, township, school district, municipality or other territorial subdivision, shall be entitled and allowed to vote at all such elections, without distinction of color, race or previous condition of servitude; any constitution, law, custom, usage or regulation of any state, territory, or by or under its authority, to the contrary notwithstanding.

SECTION 2. AND IT IS FURTHER ENACTED, That if, by or under the constitution or laws of any state or territory, any act is or shall be required to be done as a prerequisite qualification for voting, and by constitution and laws persons or officers are or shall be charged with the performance of duties in furnishing citizens an opportunity to perform such prerequisites and become qualified to vote, it shall be the duty of every such person and officer to give all citizens of the United States the same and equal opportunity to perform such prerequisites and to become qualified to vote without distinction of race, color or previous condition of servitude; and if any such person or officer shall refuse, or knowingly omit to give effect to this section, he shall for every such offense forfeit and pay the sum of five hundred dollars to the person aggrieved thereby, to be recovered by an action on the case, with the full costs and such allowance for counsel fees as the court shall deem just, and shall, also for every such offense, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall on conviction thereof, be fined not less than five hundred dollars, or be imprisoned not less than one month nor more than one year, or both, at the discretion of the court.

AND WHEREAS, It is declared by the second section of the Sixth article of the Constitution of the United States that "this Constitution and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof, shall be the supreme law of the land," anything in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

Given under my hand, at Brookville this 25th day of October, in the year of
