

MYSTERY SHROUDS SUDDEN DEATH OF MISS ANNA SMITH

Monday of this week Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Smith, of Pleasant Avenue, Reynoldsville, were shocked to receive word from a Kittanning Hospital that their daughter, Miss Anna Rebecca Smith, whom they had supposed in Pittsburgh in good health, was dead and that the body would arrive in Reynoldsville that day.

The death of Miss Smith is shrouded in deep mystery and the investigations carried on so far have served only to mystify the relatives and friends. Miss Smith was born and spent her girlhood on a farm near Reynoldsville.

Her parents heard nothing more from her and supposed her still there. They are still in ignorance of the time she left that city, but believe that she left Friday and came as far as Kittanning, where she became ill and stopped off, going to the hospital in that city.

The physicians and nurses at the hospital deny all knowledge of the events preceding the girl's entrance to the hospital, and only learned her name and residence after her death and upon examining her possessions.

Yesterday Simpson's Leader, at Kittanning, in an attempt to unravel the mystery, prints details unknown to relatives here, stating that Miss Smith had been in Kittanning about one week previous to her entering the hospital, that she had roomed at a private boarding house in that city, and was apparently acting as an agent for some feminine toilet preparation.

When the body reached Reynoldsville it was taken to the undertaking rooms of Hughes & Fleming, and Tuesday morning was prepared for the home of the deceased. The funeral will be held at the home Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock.

Anna Rebecca Smith was born August 12th, 1881, making her little over 29 years old at time of her death. She comes of an excellent family and bore a pure and unblemished reputation. She was a self-reliant and her business enterprise was rewarded by success.

Besides the parents, the following brothers and sisters survive: Miss Smith, William Smith, Big Run, Mrs. Wm. True-sell, Bowersville, Mrs. C. N. McPherson, now in Panama, Mrs. Thomas McPherson, Yatesboro, Mrs. Wm. Graham, Ellwood, Ind., Miss Emma Smith, now visiting a sister in Panama, J. Morris Smith, of Reynoldsville, Thomas Smith, of Bowersville, D. P. Smith, of Wellsville, Ohio, Carl and Ralph Smith, of Reynoldsville.

JEFFERSON COUNTY MEDICAL SOCIETY.

The Jefferson Medical Society held its regular meeting at Frank's Tavern in Reynoldsville, on Friday, Nov. 25th, at 2 P. M. There was a large attendance and the following program was carried out:

Dr. S. S. Hamilton, Paper on the Prevalence, Early Diagnosis and Treatment of Cancer of the Uterus.

Dr. R. C. Gourley, Paper on the Prevalence, Early Diagnosis and Treatment of Cancer of the Lip, Mouth and Skin.

Following the regular program the physicians of Reynoldsville entertained the members present with a lunch.

BIG YIELD OF POTATOES.

On fifteen acres, comprising portions of the farms of M. M. Moore, his sons, Fred and Walter Moore, and Earl M. Moore in the Horntown district during the past season 1,236 bushels of potatoes were raised in good size, the finest marketable variety, showing, as we have many times before pointed out, that the farmer who looks after his business in Jefferson county has no need to go to Canada or the west to make money.

PASSED STATE BOARD EXAMINATION.

Charles Wisor, formerly in Stoke & Feicht Drug Co.'s store in Reynoldsville and now in charge of Hamilton's drug store in Punxsutawney, has passed the state board examination and is now a full fledged pharmacist.

Lion Fondles A Child.

In Pittsburg a savages lion fondled the hand that child thrust into his cage. Danger to a child is sometimes great when least regarded. Often it comes through Colds, Croup, and Whooping Cough. They slay thousands. Dr. King's New Discovery could have saved. A few doses cured our baby of a very bad case of Croup," writes Mrs. George W. Davis, of Flat Rock, N. C. "We always give it to him when he takes cold. It is a wonderful medicine for babies. Best for Coughs, Colds, LaGrippe, Asthma, Hemorrhages, Weak Lungs. 50 cents $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Stoke and Feicht Drug Co.

Mrs. J. G. Seifert, of Grant street, entertained on Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 p. m. a few friends to meet her sister-in-law, Mrs. Jerome Sheib, of Pittsburg.

Robert Patterson, a child of 22 months, died at Beechtree last Wednesday from the effects of eating medicine tablets which he had secured by climbing up on a chair and reaching into a wall pocket. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Patterson.

There will be a series of evangelistic meetings held in the old Baptist church at Prescottville beginning on Monday, December 5th, at 7:30 p. m. Rev. J. E. Kirkwood, of the American Sunday School Union, will be in charge of the services, to which all are invited.

Squire P. B. Love, who spent ten days in the wilds of Dents Run with a party of Skyesville hunters, returned last Wednesday feeling fine after the open air life but did not lead a big black bear up Main street with a chain. The bear is still enjoying life in happy woodland home.

Miss Golda King, who for the past four years has been the efficient clerk in the Skyesville postoffice, has tendered her resignation, to take effect on Dec. 3, her intentions being to take up a course in the Skyesville college. Her place in the postoffice will be taken up by Miss Amy Smeal.

Died, Monday forenoon, Margaret, five month old child of Mr. and Mrs. John Stokdale, of Skyesville, from stomach trouble. Funeral services were held at the home of the parents by Dr. A. J. Meek, of Reynoldsville, Wednesday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Interment was made in the Skyesville cemetery.

The Pennsylvania railroad has issued orders that freight brakemen are to be given annual passes. Those in the service five years will be given individual passes, and those in the service ten years will be given passes for themselves and wives.

Practically all of the men in the train service of the Pennsylvania are now given passes after being with the line a certain length of time.

At New Bethlehem Thanksgiving Day a Reynoldsville eleven succeeded in winning an easy victory over a New Bethlehem football team. Score 17-0.

The many friends of Rev. George H. Hill, of the Beechwoods, will be interested to know that he will shortly go to Southern California for the winter. Mr. Hill has been in past health for the past year, having no pastoral duties, and his condition at present shows but little improvement.

Mr. Hill was granted a year's vacation by his congregation and it is the sincere hope of his church people, as well as of many other friends, that he will return from the south feeling in much better condition.—DuBois Express.

On the night of December 6th five candidates will be initiated into the mysteries of the Knights of the Golden Eagle in Reynoldsville, and the event will be made the occasion of a banquet and general good time. It is expected that about twenty members of the castle of the Golden Eagle will be present to help in the banquet after the initiation.

The local castle of the order is in prosperous condition and the steady growth attests the fraternal feeling that exists within the lodge.

LECTURE AT HORNTOWN GRANGE.

J. S. Briggs, horticultural inspector and Demonstrator for the Division of Zoology of the Department of Agriculture at Harrisburg, will deliver a lecture in the Grange Hall in Horntown, under the auspices of the Grange, Saturday evening, December 17th. His subject will be one of vital interest not only to every farmer, but to all who are interested in bird life, being "The Relation of Birds to Agriculture," or "The Robin and the Toad."

Prof. Briggs visited this section some time ago and talked with many of the farmers. He is a big, broad gauged man with an excellent command of the English language and a training in his chosen work which makes him one of the most valuable assistants in the state agricultural department. He should be greeted by a large audience.

BAZAAR AND SUPPER.

The Altar Society of the Catholic church will hold a bazaar in the Knights of Columbus rooms, over the Keyway Hardware on Friday and Saturday evenings, December 9 and 10, 1910. A large display of fine needle work, consisting of ladies' embroidered waists, pillow cases, aprons, center pieces, handkerchiefs, etc., will be on exhibition, also an assortment of beautiful dolls, toilet articles, Christmas cards, home made candy, etc., will be on sale.

VERDICT MANSLAUGHTER IN BOLNER CASE.

After a deliberation of nine hours the jury in the case of John Bolner, charged with the murder of Dominic Vignoli and Charles Colverina at Hoxdale, returned a verdict of voluntary manslaughter.

Bolner's defense was that he had fired the fatal shots in self defense, and the story of his wife, who was wounded during the firing, sustained Bolner's story. Mrs. Bolner was shot through the thigh and has been at the county home since the tragedy.

Saturday Judge Smith, of Clearfield, pronounced sentence upon the Payen brothers, convicted last week of manslaughter. They got life terms in the Western Penitentiary of five to twenty years.

INSTITUTE ANNOUNCEMENT MAILED FRIDAY.

The annual Institute Announcement containing general information about the Institute and the schools and the names and addresses of all teachers and directors, has been mailed to all teachers and directors in the county, and to all others who have requested same.

In a number of cases there was some doubt about the correct address; if for this or any other reason any of those who should have received the annual have not received, notice should be sent the County Superintendent and another will be sent.

Any others who may wish a copy of the Annual may secure the same by calling at the County Superintendent's Office in Reynoldsville, or by sending a written request to the County Superintendent.

Tickets for the institute are now on sale at Stoke's pharmacy and are going rapidly.

The directors' convention will be held in the public school building Thursday and Friday, December 21 and 22. A complete program of this convention will appear next week.

JOYOUS THANKSGIVING GATHERING.

Miss Amelia Clark, D. L. Taylor and family, W. H. Gray and wife, Charles Corbett and family, Dr. Day and wife, all of Brookville, Arthur Gray and wife, of Punxsutawney, and S. K. Clark, wife and daughter, of Clarion, held their annual Thanksgiving reunion with their cousin, C. E. Hall, and wife, at their main residence in Reynoldsville and the occasion proved as delightful to the entertained as to the entertainers.

KIND HEARTED THEFT.

While Mrs. Elizabeth Guthrie, of West Reynoldsville, was enjoying Thanksgiving services in the Presbyterian church Thursday, Mrs. Lester L. and Will Guthrie stole her key, entered her home and prepared a sumptuous dinner, in which both families and her brother, Thomas M. Jewell, and wife were included.

No arrests have been made. All were too full for utterance.

GLASS WORKERS GO TO ILLINOIS.

Adam Kime, Gus Senecal, Millard Hizenbaugh, and August Diari, four well known glass workers of Reynoldsville, left Friday morning for Centralia, Illinois, where they will be employed for a few months in a large glass plant operated by hand labor.

It is not the intention of any of these men to remain permanently in Centralia, but all will return to Reynoldsville whenever employment in their trade is offered here.

IN THE PRIME OF LIFE.

J. S. Johnston, one of the well known road masters of Winslow township, recently sustained a twenty foot fall from the roof of a barn and broke his wrist as a result, as say nothing of numerous bruises and sprains. Mr. Johnston is 68 years old but states that he is just in the prime of life, and his quick recovery from what seemed almost fatal injuries at the time bears out the truth of his words.

SILK MILL MATTERS.

Saturday two large silk mill operators were expected to visit Reynoldsville with the object of inspecting the local mill with the purpose of buying if suited. Through accident they failed to come, but probably will visit Reynoldsville in the near future.

DIPHTHERIA ON THE WEST SIDE.

The physicians report the existence of three cases of diphtheria in West Reynoldsville. All of the victims are children and quarantine regulations have been established.

Chicken and Biscuit Supper.

At the M. E. Church Friday, December 2, under the auspices of the Helping Hand Society. Everybody invited. Price 35 cents. Menu: Chicken and biscuits, potatoes, coffee, bread and butter, cabbage salad, celery, pickles, ice cream and cake.
