

PROGRAM OF THE INSTITUTE AND DIRECTORS' CONVENTION

To be held in Adelphi Theatre, Reynoldsville, December 19-23.

ANNOUNCEMENT

We hereby announce that the 55th annual session of the Jefferson County Teachers' Institute will be held at Reynoldsville, December 19-23, inclusive.

This annual meeting has always been a most important factor in the progress of the schools in this county. Without it, much that is best in our schools would be unknown; through it, the teachers have become acquainted with each other and with the most advanced thought along educational lines. They have learned new methods and new devices for perfecting old ones. They have been inspired by coming in contact with the best minds in the pedagogical world and have gone back to their school rooms with a knowledge and an enthusiasm that meant much for the progress of education.

The coming Institute stands for all for which its predecessors have stood. No better program has ever been presented to the teachers of this county. The day instructors have a national reputation for excellence, and the evening lecturers and entertainers are of the highest repute.

We trust that this programme will meet the expectation of the teachers, the directors, and the public; all these are cordially invited. We have made an effort to provide the best in instruction and entertainment as we did last year, and cordially invite all who are interested to attend.

The Institute is the big educational event of the year, and we shall be glad to welcome all friends of education to its sessions.

Very cordially,

L. MAYNE JONES,

County Superintendent
