

Silk Half Hose in Fancy Gift
Boxes
$1.00

Be Wise and Economize

MILLIRENS

See Our Fine Showing of Christmas Umbrellas
$1 to $10

Christmas Bells will soon be ringing and the old problem of
"What Shall I Buy Him for Christmas" will once more confront you

LET US MAKE A FEW SUGGESTIONS:

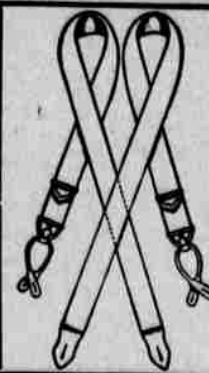

What would please him better and continue to please him longer than one of these Pelham or Kuppenheimer Suits or Overcoats. Made up of all the latest materials and in the new styles.

$8.00, $10.00, $12.00, $15.00, $18.00 $20.00

Xmas Gloves
Fur lined, made of finest material.
$3.00, $4.00, $5.00
Adler's Cape Kid in brown, tan and black.
$1.50 to $2.00
Lamb knit gloves.
Gray and black $5.00

Xmas Suspenders
Here in abundance of styles and any color you may choose. Silk in fancy boxes for gift boxes.
25c, 50c, $1.00
President suspenders 50c

Trunks & Traveling Bags

For Xmas Gifts.
Trunks of all styles $4.00 to $12.50
Traveling Bags of the finest leathers $1.50 to $12.50
Suits Cases of matting or Russian calf $1.50 to $10.00

HOUSE COATS

Always an acceptable gift. Here in all the new gray and brown shades, made of the best faced Terry cloth.
$3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $7.50

HATS and CAPS

For Xmas.

What could make a more appropriate gift for Father, brother or son?
Howard soft and stiff hats in colors or black $1., $2., $2.50 and $3.00. Seal skin caps and near Seal caps at $2.00 to $5.00. Winter caps 25c, 50c and $1.00

HOWARD STYLE.

SHIRTS, MUFFLERS, CARDIGAN JACKETS, SILK KERCHIEFS, PHOENIX MUFFLERS, COLLARS AND CUFFS, NECKWEAR, COAT SWEATERS, LINEN INITIAL KERCHIEFS, BATH ROBES

May this be the best Christmas you have ever had and the worst you ever will have. A Merry Christmas and many of them to you and yours.

Milliren Bros.

NEWS OF GENERAL INTEREST IN TOWN COUNTY AND STATE

C. J. Kerr visited in Clarion county last week.

A. L. Siple, who has resided at Lanes Mills for a number of years has moved to Penfield, Pa.

Miss Erva London, of Alexandria, Pa., has been the guest of Mrs. H. T. Peters in Reynoldsville the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Pecor, of New York City, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. Harry Moore, on Main street, the past week.

Joseph Shaffer went to Driftwood Monday and there met his grandson, little Joseph Bates, who will visit in Reynoldsville for a short time.

M. C. Klingensmith, one of The Star's valued subscribers in the Beechwoods, was a caller in Reynoldsville Monday and paid The Star office a pleasant visit.

Fred J. Butler, secretary of the recently organized Nest of Owls, on Wednesday afternoon paid over to Mrs. Frank Taverna, of the east end of town, the balance of $100 left after the lodge had defrayed all funeral expenses.

Miss Florence Parrish, who has been at Erie for some time, returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Parrish, last week to spend a few days. She expects to spend the coming winter in Chattanooga, Tenn.

Miss Olive Sykes, of Reynoldsville, who is a teacher in the Wishaw schools, was in Adrian hospital a few days last week undergoing treatment for her eyes. In her absence Miss London, of Sykesville, taught her room in the schools.

Arthur Seeley, who was one of the party of Reynoldsville and Sykesville men who spent two weeks hunting at Dents Run, was successful in shooting a deer. Squire J. L. Shaffer, of Sykesville, was the only other member of the party to come home with venison.

There is an excellent opportunity for someone to start in a paying business near Reynoldsville by starting a sand crushing plant. Sand rock of the best kind exists in unlimited quantities in many sections around the town, and at points close to railroad tracks.

Big Run suffered a $4,000 loss by fire Saturday morning. The general store of Stahlman Brothers, the barber shop of H. F. Pifer and grocery store of L. A. Shaffer were destroyed. All of the property was partially insured. It is not known how the fire originated, but may have been of incendiary origin.

Misses Ruth and Erva London visited in DuBois Thursday.

Lawyer G. M. McDonald was in Pittsburgh and the state of Michigan last week on a business errand.

At St. Mary's the other day the Lodge of Elks gave a banquet to 100 members of the Aerie of Eagles of that place.

Ottis Parrish, who has been in West Virginia for several years, is visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. Z. Parrish, on Fifth street.

Owing to the fact that the February election has been abolished, the county commissioners announce that there will be no December registration this year.

Red Cross stamps are again on sale all over the country in the cause of the prevention of consumption and it behooves each and every one to spend at least a few cents for some of these stamps. The cause is a worthy one and deserves.

The State Insane Asylum at North Warren, Pa., is involved in a mix-up that may result seriously. Two nurses have already been arrested on charge of brutality and it is expected that some very startling things will be brought out at the hearing.

Hon. W. O. Smith, former congressman from this district and editor of the Punxsutawney Spirit, is one of the leaders among the men outside of Allegheny county who are being boosted for the United States senatorship in the Pittsburgh Dispatch straw vote contest.

A hunting party consisting of Lawyer G. M. McDonald, David Postlewait, Jacob and Henry Deible and George Loeffler, the latter of Warren, were at Medix Run two weeks preceding the close of the hunting season for deer. The game was not very plentiful in that vicinity, Loeffler being the only man to kill a deer.

The new I. O. O. F. building at Brookwayville, which cost over $15,000, has been completed and turned over by the contractor to the Brookwayville lodge. The structure is three stories high, with basement. The first floor is used as a business room, the second for office suites and banquet hall, and the third floor will be arranged exclusively for lodge purposes.

A few weeks ago Jacob King, the oldest man in Jefferson county, died in Reynoldsville. Last week William Lamson, of Horatio and Mrs. Nancy Covert, of Punxsutawney, both of whom were in their 91st year, passed over the river of death, and now it is reported from Dubois that Mrs. Elizabeth Shoemaker, of Sabula, at the age of 105, is seriously ill and may not survive the winter.

Mrs. J. O. Edelblute attended a social function at Punxsutawney Thursday.

W. L. Heemer and wife, of Pittsburgh, attended the funeral of Mr. Heemer's mother in this place the past week.

The first sleighs of the season were on the paved road Thursday last week. The country roads are too rough to allow the winter sport yet.

A hot water heating system was recently installed in the Citizens National bank building, on Main street. The work was done by Lucas & Deible.

Mrs. Frank P. Alexander attended a reception in Punxsutawney Thursday given at the Country Club by Mrs. Walter S. Dinsmore and Mrs. T. Books Mitchell.

Miss Ella E. Seelley will have her annual display of hand painted china and painted novelties on exhibition Saturday Dec. 17, at Gillespies. All are invited to call and see them.

There was a three week's pay at the mines this time, and Saturday of the present week will be pay day. This will give the miners and their families plenty of ready money for Christmas buying.

"No person shall, by purchase, gift or other means, furnish tobacco in any form to persons under the age of 16 years." That is the state law, approved July 10th, 1910. The punishment for a violation of the law is thirty days in jail, or a fine of $100, or both.

Miss Alice Thompson, a teacher in the Corsica schools, died last Tuesday after a week's illness. Funeral services were held on Friday at her home at Coder, Pa. Miss Thompson was well known in this place, having taught school two terms in the West Reynoldsville High school and her many friends were sorry to hear of her death.

A. C. Fish, of West Reynoldsville, will leave Monday for Boyero, Colorado, where he will spend the winter for his health with his daughter, Mrs. Charles McKenzie, who has a large ranch and other business at that place. Mr. Fish is one of our good reliable old soldier citizens and the best wishes of a host of friends will go with him for his safe return.

A four-year old child, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Shank, of DuBois, was burned to death Friday night. The child had been put to bed, but after the maid left the room the little fellow crawled from his bed and walked past a gas stove having an open front. His night dress caught fire and before assistance came he was so badly burned that death came a few hours later.

Dr. Charles Montgomery, a physician in the Punxsutawney hospital, had a thrilling hand to hand struggle with a crazy Slav, a patient in the institution, last Thursday morning. Dr. Montgomery narrowly escaped being strangled, while the Slav, a man of 42 years, died within two hours after the struggle occurred, notwithstanding the effects of the fight. It required the efforts of three men to subdue the Slav, while in his delirium.

An attractive Christmas window display is to be seen at the Reynoldsville Hardware Co. store.

Mrs. Ed. Bird, of Clearfield, was in Reynoldsville Monday to attend the funeral of Robert and Ralph Ferris.

The Presbyterian Work Society will meet at the home of Mrs. George Melinger Thursday afternoon, Dec. 8th.

Subject at the Baptist church next Sunday morning, "Seven Ways of Giving." Evening, "The Hebrew Hercules."

W. H. Heemer, of Chicago Junction, Ohio, was called here last week by the death of his mother, Mrs. Conrad Heemer.

Miss Margaret Taafe, who has been sick in a Pittsburgh hospital, returned to her home Monday much improved. Her sister, Catherine, met her in Red Bank.

Leon D. Ferris, of Pittsburgh, was called to Reynoldsville Sunday by the burning of his father's home and the accompanying death of his two brothers.

Christmas Seals at 1 cent each, issued by the American Red Cross Society to stamp out the White Plague, have been placed on sale with The Peoples National Bank.

J. A. Webb will be at the National Hotel, Reynoldsville, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, December 18, 14 and 15, with all makes of second hand typewriters, with prices to suit you.

Prof. W. H. Kinney, who has been at Vandergrift for several years, has returned to Reynoldsville and co-incident with his coming there was resurrected a long-wished for project of reviving the Keystone band of glorious memory.

Mrs. E. S. Miller, of Penfield, visited her mother, Mrs. S. M. Siple, in West Reynoldsville, the past week, and within the next two weeks will accompany her husband to Swiss, W. Va., where they will reside. Mr. Miller holds a good position with a large lumber company at that place.

The Business Men's Association will meet next Tuesday evening in the Elk rooms. All members of this organization, numbering about 175, are requested to come out next Tuesday night and see the new quarters. On these nights the club door is left open and the association members meet in the lodge room immediately at the head of the stairs.

Miss Ella Rush, sister of Mrs. M. J. Farrell, of Reynoldsville, died at her home in Bedford, Pa., Monday evening after an illness covering several months. Miss Rush was for a period in the Mercy Hospital in Pittsburgh where she underwent an operation for cancer, but spent the last month of her life at her home waiting the coming of an inevitable death. Mrs. M. J. Farrell, of Reynoldsville, and daughter, Miss Tae, were at Bedford when Miss Rush died. Miss Rush was well known in Reynoldsville, having visited her sister, Mrs. Farrell, frequently.

George Hughes and Frank Strouse were in Brookville yesterday.

Mrs. Dr. B. E. Hoover is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Walter B. Reynolds, in Warren this week.

John A. Welsh, the popular secretary of the Reynoldsville lodge of Elks, will leave the coming week for Hot Springs, Arkansas, where he will remain about three months to take treatment for rheumatism.

Frank S. Nolf, of DuBois, has purchased the bakery and confectionery formerly conducted by Frank C. Wiley and opened for business this week. Mr. Nolf is an experienced baker and the place will be conducted in a style that will merit a share of the local patronage.

Overcoats, raincoats and top coats, $16, $18, $20 and $22 at Snyder's tailor shop.

Notice to Members of P. H. C.

on account of my being absent for the P. H. C. collection for the month of December all members are requested to call at my residence on Jackson street and my wife will receive all insurance and dues and receipt for the same. If you desire to pay your insurance at the lodge meetings, George Engle, treasurer, will receive your assessment and dues and receipt for the same. All the assessments must be paid before the first day of January, 1911. J. A. WELSH, Accountant Reynoldsville, Pa.

Overcoats, raincoats and top coats, $16, $18, $20 and $22 at Snyder's tailor shop.

No stuffed up head in the morning when you breathe Hyomel. Stoke and Feicht Drug Co., guarantees it to cure catarrh, coughs, colds, croup, sore throat, or money back. Complete outfit $1.00; extra bottle 50 cents.

Overcoats, raincoats and top coats, $16, $18, $20, and $22 at Snyder's tailor shop.

Overcoats, raincoats and top coats, $16, $18, $20 and $22 at Snyder's tailor shop.

Methodist Church.
Services for Sunday, December 11, 11.00 a. m., theme, "The Church." Reception of new members, 7.30 p. m., theme, "Man at His Best."

FOR SALE—Pair of new two horse sleds; hand made; a bargain. L. M. Snyder.

Sheepskin shoes with the wool inside; price $1.00 to $2.00 Adam's.

JOB WORK
of all kinds promptly done at THE STAR OFFICE.

The Rural Letter Carrier

will accept your registered letters containing money or checks, and give you the receipt of the Government for the same, thus insuring safe delivery. Mail your deposits to this strong and popular bank, which will forward bank book recording the entries by return mail, and pay you FOUR PER CENT PER ANNUM on your money. Officers of this bank are among the most careful, conscientious and experienced bankers in the United States, and your money is absolutely safe in their hands. Write for booklet.

Pittsburgh Bank for Savings
Smithfield Street and Fourth Avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa.

CAPITAL AND SURPLUS $1,000,000.00.