TWENTY-SEVENTH ANNIVERSARY

THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

THE PRIDE OF THE FIRESIDE.

In the prime of a vigorous intellectual manhood, the Phenix of the weeklies begins its flight for the new year, over the weeks of its flagging and lifeless contemporaries, with reseve fixed upon the sun, beneath which it owns no rivalry.

The war, which has toppled down what, ever it shallow and baseless, has written no wrights on the bright engine of our success. wrinkle on the bright agis of our success. Our features for the issue of 1865 shake the pillars of whatever has heretofore been deemed imperial in serial literature. Both sides of the Atlantic render us tribute. We shall continue the thrilling remances of Miss M. E. BRADDON, necromancer of the arong dark passions, to whom we pay more annually than the entire capital of our inditators, and add to our American staff the champion jester of the cap and bells, Joan Bullings, who will commence with the "rat BILLINGS, who will commence with the "rist of January a series of his well known minimitable comic dapers, written expressly for us, in his irresistibly convulsive vein. Harriet E. Prescott, the most polished and imaginative sketch writer living; P. T. Barnum, the world famed showman and autobiographer; Miss M. A. Earlie, Fairfax Balfour, Dr. J. H. Robinson, and "Ned Buntline", renowned and versatily projecte, writers will also ed and versatile nevelette writers, will eke out the sparking contributions of such facile poets, feuiltetonists, humorists, critics, travelers, paragraphists, etc., as George Arnold, W. O. Eaton, Millie W. Carpenier, George Alfred Townsend, Julia S. Ingraham, Edward Willett, George Martisk Joseph Barber, J. A. Patten, and others numerous enough and clever enough to run all the newspapers on the Continent.

The vivid pencils of Darley, McLiellan, and White, the first draughtsmen of the age, will make the new volume pictorial, and whatever of fugitive or meteoric note may appear during the year, will at once be en-gaged and made available.

In addition to its crisp and telling editorials; its delectable Gossipers' Club, in which the aptest and wittlest poems, caricatures, and burlesques of the time first appear; and its coquettish Ladies' Promenade, to which all the mothers, sweethearts, daughters, wives, and widows of the land subscribe their experiences, THE NEW YORK MER-CURY will continue the faithful and co-
