The New York Weekly Herald.

The Cheapest Paper in the World.

The extensive and comprehensive facilities in its possession enables the PROPRIETOR of the WEEKLY HERALD to guarantee the latest and most reliable information possibly to be obtained, not only from all parts of the United States, but from all parts of the world.

Its home correspondents, engaged at heavy cost, and connected with each new naval and military expedition of the government prove that it is determined to leave no spot uncovered by its operations and no event can occur that shall not find immediate report in its columns. It costs the proprietor over one hundred thousand dollars per year, to maintain its corps of correspondents in the field.

In its collation of Foreign News the HERALD has for years held a high position, and it will endeavor in the future to maintain the stand it has assumed. It has special correspondents stationed in all of the principal cities of the world.

Its telegraphic arrangements extend to whenever the electric wires are stretched. When the Atlantic cable is laid, which feat will soon be accomplished, telegrams will be received from Europe and Asia, as well as from the United States. Then our readers will have the events of the week in all parts of the civilized world regularly and clearly laid before them.

The proprietor devotes a portion of the paper Literature, Fashion, Agriculture, the Mechanical Arts, Sporting Matters, Business, Theatrical and Financial Reports, Cattle Markets, General News, and reports of all events calculated to form an excellent metropolitan newspaper—a weekly photographic view of the events of the world—and all at a very low price.

The WEEKLY HERALD is issued every Saturday morning, and furnished at the following rates:—

Table with 2 columns: Quantity and Price. One copy $2, Three copies 5, Five copies 5, Ten copies 15.

Any larger number, addressed to names of subscribers, $1.50 each.

An extra copy be sent to every club of ten.

Twenty copies, to one address, one year, $25, and any larger number at same price.

An extra copy will be sent to clubs of twenty.

Advertisements to a limited number will be inserted in the WEEKLY HERALD.

The DAILY HERALD, three cents per copy. Ten dollars per year for three hundred and sixty-three issues. Five dollars for six months. Two dollars and fifty cents for three months.

THE TWENTY-SIX BIRTHDAY.

OF THE Star Paper of America.

JANUARY 1st, 1864.

THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

FOR THE COMING YEAR.

After more than a quarter of a century of uninterrupted success, THE NEW YORK MERCURY—standing first on the roster of the Literary Press in this country—points proudly to its past career as a guarantee of new triumphs in the future.

Heretofore, it has eclipsed all rivalry, but it proposes to make the coming year memorable by giving its own paper, and looming up before the world as the most marvelous specimen of a circulating brilliant, amusing, and comprehensive Literary Newspaper that has ever been published in either hemisphere.

THE GENIUS OF EUROPE

will be laid under contribution, to give brilliancy to its columns, and side by side with original productions of the most popular and eloquent of the Old World, will be placed the chief geniuses of the most eminent story writers of the New.

MISS M. E. BRADDON.

Authoress of "Aurora Floyd," "Lady Audley's Secret," "John Marchmont's Legacy," etc., etc., who has suddenly risen, like in the literary horizon of Great Britain, has been especially engaged to supply THE NEW YORK MERCURY from time to time with the wonderful creations of her genius, a star which no other weekly in America could venture to ignore.

Among the multitude of distinguished writers and artists who have become familiar to the masses through the vast circulation of the Star Weekly of America, may be mentioned the following, all of whom are still upon its staff:

DR. J. H. ROBINSON, COUSIN MAY CARLTON, LARGAZET BLOUNT, W. O. EATON, NED BUNTLING, GEORGE MARTIAL, ARTHUR M. GRANGER, JULIA S. INGRAM, GRACE GARDNER, EDWARD WILLETT, FELIX O. C. DARLEY, EARY CHIEF, MISS M. E. BRADDON, GEORGE ALBANY.

Scores of other distinguished literary, under various names, contribute to its columns, while its potential illustrations are from the illustrious pencil of Felix O. C. Darley, Esq., the best draughtsman of the age.

The Star, which has given the coup de grace to many of our publications, and has destroyed those that still survive, has added thousands to the circulation of THE NEW YORK MERCURY.

Its heart-stirring short stories, its military histories, its heartless serial romances, its racy burlesques, its genial wit and humor, its delicious gossip, its fairy tales for little folks, its rare poetry, its fresh and vigorous editorials, the infinite variety of its contents, and the large amount of reading matter that it compiles, render it well everywhere, and to all classes of society, containing as it does, of closely printed matter, it may safely be pronounced the cheapest, as well as the most valuable Literary Newspaper published.

Two favorite writers, Doctor J. H. Robinson, Cousin May Carlton, and New Buntings, are now preparing three stories for THE NEW YORK MERCURY. One of these productions will be commenced in the Opening Number of the New Year. The authors being aware of this fact, are engaged in an emulous contest for precedence, and the result will unquestionably be that the most effective story ever penned by any of three, will appear in the

of the great Representative Weekly of the Western World.

The New York Mercury is sold by all newsmen and periodical dealers in America. To subscribers it is regularly mailed, every Saturday morning, for $2 a year, three copies for $5; six copies for $9; eight copies for $12 with an extra copy, free, to the getter up of the club. Six months' subscriptions received. Always write plainly to
