A great quantity of the supposed oil lands on the Clarion, a year, by Messrs, FOWLER & a year, by Messrs, FOWLER & the supposed oil lands on the Clarion, a year, by Messrs. We NEW ADVERITSEMENTS are fully convinced that during the year 1865, many new objects will be presented to the view-and why not Petrole um, be one of the many. It would not surprise as tauch, if in a short time we would witness in Elk county, the wagon trains, twelve miles in length, londed with oil, the same as is now found on the road leading from Cherry Run to Franklin. See article taken from the Off City Register, on first page.

me We had the pleasure of attend-* ing the "Grand Opening Ball" at the NAMY PATRICE MOTARY PIMED Fountain House, has Thursday evening. About 43 couples were present, and from these Machines comprise the highest their merry laughter and sparkling in improcessents in the Sewing Machine cos, we should judge they were dater. mined to enjoy themselves to the utmost Everything passed off pleasantly, without any of that rowlyism which is sometimes seen at gatherings of the kin 1.

Mr. Portorfield, the gentlemanly proprietor, has wan gallen uphalans from the young folks, who all expressed them. selves as being highly delighted with his arrangements. Success to the new landlord.

100 Our paper has been delayed a few days in its issue, on account of not recaiving a supply of paper at the time we expected it. We had the paper 6. They require notaking apart to clean shipped in due time, but the heavy or oil, and no "Lessons" to set needle, drifts of snow between this and Eric prevented the ears from getting through, and consequently, we were obliged to do with samples of sewing.

For our Intoxicating Liquors," &c: part we think, as the preachers some times tell us, "that there is something rotten in Denmark."

FATAL ACCIDENT .- David Crowell of Jackson township, Potter Co., Pa., while drawing a load of hay along the "narrows" on the Bennett's Branch of the Sinnemahoning, was thrown twelve or fifteen feet down a precipice, the load falling upon him and injuring him so severely that he died from the effects in a few hours.

Dr. Shaw was summoned, but' before he arrived life was extinct. Mr. Crow. and Ridgway Rail Road Company will ell was about sixty years of age and was a worthy and exemplary, but an unfortunate citizen; having had his house and all its contents consumed by fire about thirteen months ago and three months after this calamity his barn was destroyed by lightning.
