PROFISSIONAL CARDS

LAURIE J. BLAKELY ATTORNEY AND COUNSELLOR AT LAW. Ridgway, [or Benzinger P. O.] Elk Co, Pa.

T. T. ABRAMS, A TTORNEY AT LAW LOCK HAVEN, PA.

SOUTHER & WILLIS.

Attorney's at Law, Ridgway Elk cou ty Pa., will attend to all profession business promptly.

CHAPIN & WILBUR. Attorneys and Counselers at Law, Offic in Chapin's Block, Ridgway Elk Co. Pa Particular attention given to collection<sup>9</sup> and all montes promptly remitted. Will also practice in adjoining counties.

JOHN G. HALL ATTORNEY AT LAW. Ridgway 11k County Penna

DR. W. JAMES BLAKELY St. Mary's Elk County Pa.

DR. W. W. SHAW Practices Medicines & Surgery Centreville Elk Co. Pa.

DR J. S. BORDWELL ECLECTIC PHYSICIAN,

(Lately of Warren county Pa.) Will promptly answer all professional calls by night or day.-Residence one, AT RIDGWAY. door East of the late realdence of Hon. J. L. Gillis.

DR. C. R. EARLEY, Kersey Elk Co., Pa. Will attend to all call night or day. July 21, 1861.

HOTEL CARDS.

FOUNTAIN HOUSE.

JOHN G. PORTERFIELD, Proprietor.

Ridgway, Elk County Penn'a. FRED. KORD'S,

Eagle Hotel

Luthersburg, Clearfield County Pa.

Fredrick Korb Proprietor, hav. ing built a large and commodious house, is now prepared to cater to the wants of the traveling public. Luthersburg, July 16th 1864.-1y. LUTHERSBURG HOTEL, Luthersburg Clearfield County Penna.

WILLIAM SCHWEM, Proprietor. Luthersburg, July 27th 1864 .- tf.

NATIONAL HOTEL! Corner of Peach Street and the Euffalo Read, ERIEPA.

ENOS B. HOYT, Prprietor Des This House is new and fitted up with especial care for the conveniecen and comfort of guests, at moderate raset.

Der GOOD STABLING ATTACHED THAT EXCHANGE HOTEL.

Ridgivay, Elk county Pa

P. W. BARRETT Editor [INDEPENDENT.] TERMS-$1 50 per Annum if paid in Advance

fell.

RIDGWAY ELK COUNTY PENNA. THURSDAY June 15 1865

VOL. 5

DHILADELPHIA & ERIE RAIL ROAD .- This great line traverses the Northern and Northwest counties of Pennsylvania to the city of Erie, on Lake Eric. It has been leased by the Tennsylvania Rail Road Company, and is operaed by them. Its entire length was opened for passenger and freight business, October 17th, 1864.

Leave Eastward.

1 53 p.m. Through Mail Train Accommodation a.m Leave Westward. 12 33 p.m. Through Mail Train

Accommodation n. m Passenger cars run through without change both ways between Philadelphia and Eric. ELEGENT SLEEPING CARS on Express Trains both ways botween Williamsport and Baltimore, and Williamsport and Philadelphia. For information respecting Passenger business apply at the S. E. corner 30th and Market Sts.

And for Freight business of the Company's Agents:

S. B. Kingston, Jr. Cor. 13th and Market Sts. Philadelphia. J. W. Reynolds Erie.

J. M. Drill, Agent N. C. R. R. Baltimore.

H. H. HOUSTON, Gen'l. Freight Ag't. Phil'a.

H. W. GWINNER, Gen'l. Ticket Agt. Phil'a.

Jos. D. Porrs, General Manager, Wmsp't.

W. T. LESEER,

Dealer in

Clothing, Hats, & Men's Furnishing Goods WATER STREET, LOCK HAVEN, CLINTON CO., Pa.

ADOLPH TIMM. Cenreville, Elk' county Pa.

General Manufacturer of Wagons, Buggies &c.-ALSO Furniture, such as Bureaus, Tables, Stanus Bedsteads and All kind of Repairin done a

POLTRY. THE PRINTERS, FRIEND. The night was dark-and not a star Peeped through the gathering gloom ; house. And silence brooded o'er the type

In the composing room. The printers had to supper gone.

And vacant were their places, When through the door a villian crept. And stela Dick Johoson's spaces !

O, foulest wrong beneath the sun ! O, deepest of disgraces ! The darkest crime that can be done

Is that of stealing spaces. When the forgiving angel's pen

All other sin crases, Alone, untoched, shall still remain

The sin of stealing spaces, Dick went to "lunch," and left his case Filled-running o'er with letter, And thought he would return again When copy should get fatter.

When he came back he took his place

Again before his cases-You should have seen his attitude When he beheld his spaces.

It was no time for charity, Or other Christian graces ; He wildly cried-"I'll dot the eyes Of him who stole my spaces !"

The fiend still lives and walks the earth, And so must walk forever ! He cannot die-a wretch like him-For rest awaits him never !

And printers, for long years to come,

Will tremble at their cases, Well knowing that his spirit still Is fond of stealing spaces !

Edwards Temptation.

It was six o'clock in the afternoou. At this time the great wholesale ware. house of Messrs. Hubbard & Son was wont to close, unless the pressure of bu. siness compelled the partners to keep while Mr. Hubbard was sought by the open later.

upon Edward Jones, a boy of fourteen, any thing happened ?" who had lately been engaged to perform "No, sir," said Edward, "but I pick value of one of these boxes how much became sick, and since then we have had good it would do poor Mary," and Ed- a hard time. Mary's appetite was poor. ward sighed. and does not relish food, but we are able The long day wore away at last, and to get her nothing better. When I half crown bowl of punch, to be decided dward was about to close the ware, picked up the bill I could not help by any of the members you may please thinking how much I might buy with it to appearint, that I perform my promise." Edward was about to close the ware.

THEY AND LODGED BY THE PARTY OF A

But as he passed the desk of his em- for her.' ployer his attention was drawn to a bit of "And yet you did not take it ?" paper lying on the floor beneath. He picked it up, and to his great joy and I could not have looked you in the found it to be a ten dellar bill. face after it.' The first thought that flashed upon im was, "How much good this will do confidence. Mary. I can buy her the oranges she wants, and she shall have some every wrote a check. day. And perhaps she would like a chicken." asked. But a moment later his countenance

"It isn't mine," he sighed. "It must creased and I will pay you two hundred. be Mr. Hubbard's. This is his desk, Will that please you and he must have dropped it." dred thousand.

Still Edward was not satisfied, fidonce,' Whether Mr. Hubbard could spare it or Oh, slr. how can I thank you ?' said not was not the question It was right. Edward, full of gratitude. fully his and must be given back to him. I presume you are in present need of "The of the presence of the pr "He determined to go to Mr. Hubbard's And, by the way, you may have the rest of the day to yourself."

before he went home. The sight of his sick sister might perhaps weaken his his sudden riches hastened to the marresolution, and this must never do at all ket where he purchased a supply of prohazards. He knew where Mr. Hubbard lived. come at home, and then made haste

It was a large, fine looking house, on a home to announce his good fortune. A weight seemed to fall off the hearts fashionable street. He had passed it several times and wondered whether a of mother and daughter as she heard his !

o live in such style. fore, he went to the house, ascended the great relief.

steps, and rang the bell. A servant came to the door.

don't think he can see you," was the there were more employers as consider-rather supercilious reply. "I am in his employ," said Edward, quictly, "and have just come from the store. I think he will see me if you mention this to him." "Very well, you can come in." Edward was loft standing in the hall,

They exhibit enlargement of the pupils servant.

The duty of closing usually devolved "Well ?" he asked inquiringly, "has of the eyes, and itching of the nose. They have been making what they retired, call "deliverances," but they are such Secrets of Masonry.

the product of the second s

At an inn in the west of England, several persons were sitting around the fire in a large kitchen through which was a passage to the other apartments of the house, and amongst whom was a femala traveler and a tailor. At this inu a lodge of Free and Accepted Masons was held, it being lodge night several of their members passed the company in the way to the meeting room. This circum, stance introduced observations on the occult signs by which Masons could be known to each other; when the female observed that there was not so much NO 34 mystery in masonry as many imagined. and that she herself could show any person a Mason's sign." "What !" said the tailor, "that of a Freemason?"

"Yes," she replied, "and I'l bet you a by any of the members you may please "Why," say the tailor, "a woman was never admitted, then how is it possible "No, sir, it would have been wrong, you can produce the secret ?"

"No matter for that," replied the lady, "I will readily forfeit the money I lay if I do not prove the fact.'

Edward spoke in a tone of modest The company urged the tailor to accept the challenge, and the amount of the bet was deposited. The woman im. Mr. Hubbard went to the dosk and mediately started up, and took the tailor "How much do I pay you now ?" he by the collar-

"Come," said she, "follow me," which he did, trembling as he wentalong, fear ing he was to undergo some part of the "ill that please you?" discipline in making a mason, of which "Two hundred dollars a yer!" ex. he had heard such a dreadful report "Still," urged the tempter, he will claimed Edward, his eyes sparking with She led him into the street, and pointing, never know it; and after all what are ten delight. "Yes, and at the end of the to the sign of the Lion and the Lamb, dollars to him ? He is worth a hun- year that will be increased, if, as I have usked him whose sign that was? The no doubt, you continue to morit my con- tailor answered, "Mr. Lodge," as tha name of the innkeeper. "Is he a Free Mason ?"

"Yes," said the tailor."

"Then I have shown you the sign of a Free and Accepted Mason,

The laugh was so much against the tailor, that it was with much difficulty he could be prevailed upon to take some of the liquor which was forthwith pro. duced at his expense.

An Invitation to dinner-

It was observed that a certain covetous rich man never invited any one ta dine with him.

"I'll lay a wager," said a wag, "that I get an invitation from him."

The wager being accepted, he goes man must not feel happy who was able hurried story, and Mrs. Jones thanked the next day to the rich man's house God for bestowing upon her a son whose about the time he was to dine, and tella Without any necessary delay there- good principles had brought them this, the servant he must speak with his master immediately, for he can save him a

And Mr. Hubbard slept none the thousand pounds. "Sir," said the servant to his master, "Well? he said "Is Mr. Hubbard at home?" "Yes, but he has just come in, and I and gladdened a struggling family. If Out came the master.

"What is that, sir? You can save me a thousand pounds ?

"Yes, sir, I cau; but I see you are at dinner-I will go away, and call again." "Oh, pray, sir, come in and take din-

The invitation was accepted. As soon as dinner was over and the family

"I shall be troublesome "
"Not at all."

DAVID THAYER, Prop'r. neo. This house is pleasantly situated on the bank of the Charjon, in the lower end of the town, is well provided with house-room and stabling, and the proprietor will spare no pains to render the stay of his cuesta pleasant and agreeable. Ridgway July 28, 1860.

HYDE HOUSE Mrs. E. O. Clements Proprietress Ridgway Elk County Penna. CLEARFIELD HOUSE, CORNER OF MARKET AND WATER ST'S

President Judge. Associate Judges, Clearfield Pa

Chairs.

reasonable rates.

GEO. N COLBURN, PROPRIETOR

ST. MARY'S HOTEL ST. MARY'S ELK COUNTY PENNA, M. WELLENDORF, Prop'r. FALLEM HOUSE

LOOK HAVEN, PA.

E. W. BIGONY, Proprietor.

Omnibus running to and from the Depot ree of charge.

MOORHEAD HOUSE, Main St Brookville Pa., C. N. Kretz. Prop'r This house has been refitted and furnish ed in a neat style, and is every way adapted to the wants of the public. BUSINESS CARDS

WOODS & WRIGHT

LOCK HAVEN, CLINTON COUNTY PA. D EALERS in Flour, Grain and Feed-near the Passenger Depot

Ridgway		Markets.						1
Corrected							- 1
Apples, (d	ff (v1	bushel	÷	-	÷	$ 4	00	Ľ
Buckwheat		164	×	÷	ų,	1	50	E
Beans,	4.46	44	5	÷		4	00
Butter	66	1b		ų,	-		45	F
Beef	47	45	÷	-	÷	96	012	L
Boards	14	M		ų,		20	00	ľ
Corn	46	bushel	4	a,	4	1	50	L
Fiour	44	bbl.		ų,	ŭ	12	00	ł
Hides	. 44	15	-	-	÷		08	L
Hay	- 64	ton		į,	ų,	50	00	ŀ
Oats	1.64	bu.	5	ū,	4	1	00	Ľ
Wheat	48	11	5	2	ũ,	2	50	ł
Rye	41	at a	G.	4	4	1	75	ł
Shingles	85	M.	1	4		- 4	50	ł
Eggs	24	dozen				- 1Ê	30	ł
Hama	64	Ib	ι,				25	I
Pork	14		2				15	ł

STORE: BOOK ST. MARY'S, ELK COUNTY PA In the room formerly occupied by Doct. Blakely. COUNTY DIRECTORY. Hon, R. GWhite, Wellsborough. Hon. V. S. Brockway, Jay tp. Hon. E. C. Schultze, St. Mary's. Sherif. P. W. Hays, Ridgway Prothenotary, Reg. and Rec. George Ed. Weis, Ridgway District Attorney, L. J. Blakely Ridgway Treasurer, Charles Luhr, St. Mary's County Surveyor, George Walmsley, St. Marys Commissioners, Charles Weis, St. Mary's Geo. Dickinson, Ridgway. Joseph W. Taylor, Fox. Auditors, R. T. Kyler, Fox Jacob McCauley, Fox. H. D. Derr, Benczett

Coal Lands For Sale.

The subscriber offers for sale the Coal privilege, with the right of mining and other minerals under 495 acres of land situated in Fox tp., Clearfield county Pennsylvania, within 2 miles of the Ridgway & Shawmut R.R., chich connects with the Phila. & Erie a larger salary, and then we shan't have t. R., at Ridgway, with a six foot vein t Bituminous Coal upon it, which is ow commanding such enormous prices, or manufacturing purposes. For sale heap, terms cash, a good title given. For further particulars, address C. L. BARRETT, Clearfield P. O., Clearfield Co., Pa NOTICE .- The Books and accounts of AGTICE. - the Books and Accounts of Jacob J. Etorer & Co., and Charles H. Gering & Co., of St Mary's, have been placed in the hands of the undersigned for settlement. Parties indebted to either of the above firms, are notified that their no-counts must be settled by payment to the undersigned, within 30 days. LAURIE J. BLAKELY, Att'y for GERING & CO, & STORER & CO.

St. Mary's February, 25th '65 .- 5t.

a few slight duties for which he received | ed up this bill near your desk, and sup the sum of fifty dollars annually. He posed you dropped it. I thought I had spoke of -- they have brought forth wind, know how I am to save a thousand was the "boy," but if he behaved himself so as to win the approbation of his good Yet there were some things that renhim-circumstances with which his employees were unacquainted. His moth-er was a widow. The sulden death of upon their own resources and these were indeed but slender.

ward's salary, constituted the entire income of the family. Yet by means of untiring industry, they have continued thus far to live, using strict economy, of course, Yet they had wanted none of cold which terminated in a fever. This not only cut off the income arising from relish, Mary ?" her own labor, and also prevented her mother from accomplishing as much as that we can get." she othewise would have been able to

On the morning of the day on which our story commences, Mary had expressed a longing for an orange. In her fever it would have been most grateful to her: It is hard, indeed, when we are oblig ed to deny those we love that which would be a refreshment and benefit to them.

Mrs. Jones felt this and so did Edward.

for the store. Next year I shall receive stored. to pinch so much."

"Never mind, Edward," said Mary, smiling faintly, "I ought not to have asked for it, knowing how hard you and mother find it to get along without me.

"Don't trouble yourself about that, Mary," said Mrs. Jones. soothingly. though her heart sank within her at the thought of her empty larder. Only get withheld you. I should never have well, and we shall get on well enough known it."

in money. "Oh."

"You have done well," said Mr. Hub. employers his chance of promotion was bard, "and I will remember it. Honesty them. We know-and so do many of daughter to dispose of in marriage."

commencing a business career. Here dered this small salary a hard trial to after I shall have perfect confidence in your honesty."

Edward was gratified by his assurance.

There was an elder sister who assisted how much good could have been done her mother to sow, and this, with Ed. with ten dollars. Not that he had re. gretted that he had been honest. There was a satisfaction in doing right. Mrs. Jones brought some toast to her daughter's bedside, but Mary motioned it away. the absolute necessaries of life.

"No," said she hesitatingly, "nothing Mrs. Jones sighed a sigh which Edward echoed. It was with a heavy Leart that Ed-of him.

"I only wish I could buy you one titioned off from the remainder of the held that some people ought to be damned Mary," said Edward, just as he set out spacious rooms in which goods were eternally !

He smiled pleasantly as Edward cutered his presence.

"Tell me frankly," he said, "did you not feel an impulse to keep the bill which you found last night?"

say that I did."

"Tell me all about it," said Mr. Hubbard, with interest. "What was it that put their feet to the fire, and to take thought he, "if I only had the deliverances as the inspired prophet

"Fifty dollars a year," said Edward.

"By prescribing your integrity. As Edward flew to the bank, and with visions such as he knew would be welate as he, there would be fewer dishon-

A Shot Back.

The Presbyterians are very uneasy .-

From the Freeman's Journal.

They say the "man of sin" troubles is a very valuable quality in a boy just their own people-that men of sin abound among them. The "man ofsin" is, in their view, the Pone, or Poperv itself. As a dying spasm, they try, once more, the old sing-song of abuse of the yet as the door closed behind him, and Catholic Church. They have been "de-Mr. Jones had thrown the entire family he walked out into the street, the thought livering" on the matter in their annual of his sick sister at home again intruded upon him, and he thought regretfully how much good could have been done Some "religious" body, lately Presby-teriau or Methodist, wanted to make a religious matter of insisting on the admission of nonroes to the right to vale ! They wanted them, they said, to counterbalance the Irish and German Catholics. They elaimed the negroceans Protestants. "I thank you for taking the trouble to But President Johnson, who has lived But Mary Jones-Edward's sister- make it mother," said she, "but I don't all his life in Slave States, told a set of think I can possibly eat it." all his life in Slave States, told a set of think I can possibly eat it." "Is there anything that you could claimed as reliable Protestants-to the number of "four millions," "live in open and notorious concubinage !" Is that his hearers that he should divide his dis, what makes them reliable as Pretestant?

plaiming to be the Presbyteriau Church ward started for the Warehouse the hext in these States. One claims to be the | in a startling, agonizing touemorning. He had never felt the eray, old orginal Jacobs. They split and ing for wealth which now took possession blackened each others eyes, in a quarrel, t him. He sat about his duties as usual, none of them knew anything about. The "It's nothing but my li About two hours after he had arrived at gist of it was that one party held that it he won't bite nobody. the warehouse, Mr. Hubbard entered, was in the eternal decrees of God to He did not at first appear to notice Ed-ward, but in about half an hour sum- foolish in these to try and save their tion that the terrible horrible head was moned him to the office, which was par- souls. The other "Church," we believe, never reached,

These "played out" Presbyterian min. isters think they can get up a persecu-tion of Catholies! Poor fools! That persecution is last coming on, in this land, but Presbyterian, or any other sect professing the name of Christain, will "I hope you will not be offended with not be as the dust in the balance toward me, Mr. Hubbard," said Edward, "if I promoting it ! The time is not just yet. We recommend to these feeble folk of Presbyterian to put blankets round them, Fanstock's remedy. If it don't do good it can't do hurt, and they are in a bad ing for a living, and we live but poorly -Behold how these Christains, (in a at the best. But a fortnight since Mary Pickwickian sense) love one another !

All around him were boxes of rich goods representing thousands of dollars in morey.

"Well, sir," said the man of the h "now to your business. Pray let ma pounds ?"

"Well, sir, I hear sir, you have a "I have sir."

"And you intend to portion her with tou thousand pounds ?"

"I do sir."

ner with me.

"Why, then, sir, let me have her, and will take her with nine thousand." The master of the house arose in a passion and kicked him out of doors.

Some literary friends were out in the ountry. In the course of their walk they stopped to notice the gambols of an ass's feal. A very sentimental poet pre. sent vowed that he would like to send the thing as a present to his mother. "Do," replied one, band the a piece of paper round its neck, bearing this motto:

SENSATIONAL ELOQUENCE .---- A scasational elergyman out in Wisconsin told course into three parts ; the first should be terrible, the second horrible, and the There are, however, two bodies, each third terrible horrible. Assuming a dramatic tragic attitude, he exclaimed,

"What is that I see there ?"

Here a little old woman in black cried

"It's nothing but my little black dog ;

The thread of the discourse was so

-The ploughman's is a dangerous occupation around Richmond and Petersburg, because of the unexploded shells.

-The prattiest girl in Bradstown, Ky, died last week from tight lacing.

-Worn out war horses are solling in Virginia for $10 and $15 a nag.

-What did Io die of ? Iodide of notasijum.

A HITCH IN THE HAITCH .---- We once heard a man give his hostler orders as follows : "Eury,take the 'arness hoff the hoff, 'orse, slip the 'alter over 'is 'end, hand give him some 'ay hand hoats."

OUR ARISTOCRACY .--- A wag says a colfiish aristocrat is one of those men who can piu a dried herring to his coat tail and imagine himself to be a whale.