

LOCAL INTELLIGENCE.

Car Time at Ridgway.

Table with 2 columns: Direction (East/West) and Time (e.g., 10:15 p. m., 8:52 a. m.).

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to Cologne and at half the price.

THE HYDE HOUSE.—It would be invidious to particularize between the outgoing and incoming proprietors of this popular hotel.

A NEW FIRM.—We learn that the store lately occupied by J. S. Hyde has been sold to Messrs. Hyde, Hall & Gillis, and will hereafter be conducted in the name of Hyde, Gillis & Co.

WAGON SHOP.—Messrs. Beinap, Lesser & Dieble have lately purchased the interest of H. H. Thomas in the wagon making business, and have almost completed within a week's time, a new shop immediately in the rear of Mr. Thomas's Furniture Ware Rooms.

Mr. Thomas intends now to deal in furniture, picture frames, &c., exclusively, and has started for the cities to make purchases to fill up the space which the removal of the wagon shop has occasioned.

ROBBERY.—On Tuesday evening last H. A. Parsons' shop was entered and some $60 taken therefrom. The money was not missed until Wednesday morning, when suspicion at once attached to a man by the name of Bingham, who had intended to leave on the morning train for the west, but overstept himself, and did not leave until the local freight train went east.

SOME OF OUR COTEMPORARIES seem to think that the triumph of their cause depended, like the fate of Jerico, upon the amount of noise made—in these days of refinement and luxury, an article of real intrinsic merit is soon appreciated; hence the unbounded and unparalleled success of PLANTATION BITTERS.

This remedy has ever and always been found reliable. As a gentle stimulant and tonic appetizer it cannot be excelled. It is no doubt a sovereign remedy for stomachic disorders—for Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and in stimulating a healthy appetite.

A MODEL FARM.—On Boon's Mountain in the southern part of this county, a score of years ago, a man named Peter Smith, fond of hunting and trapping, built a shanty and cleared a small field for potatoes, turnips, &c., but after a crop or two he fancied that the land was worn out, and each year he cleared an additional field, and so on, until his farm contained a hundred acres—half cleared and half tilled land.

His successor is an industrious Belgian known by the name of John Belgian, whose income this fall from this mountain farm is 1000 bushels of corn, 150 bushels of rye, 200 bushels of oats, over 200 bushels of potatoes, 100 bushels of buckwheat and 18 fat hogs, average 200 pounds of pork each, besides a great quantity of cabbage, turnips, pumpkins, beans, etc.

THE NEW GRIST MILL.—The Flour and Feed Mill of Hyde & Houk, lately repaired and now in complete running order, is destined to give a new impetus to the trading interests of Ridgway and vicinity. The main building is 20x36, and three and a half stories high; the addition is 16x26, and three stories high. Besides this, there is an overshot, eight feet from the main building, and fronting on the road. It contains two runs of burrs, with new elevators, &c., and has no superior, if an equal, in the county.

We cannot drop this subject without awarding the due meed of praise to Judge Derby, the contractor, and his able assistant, Mr. Burbank, for the prompt and energetic manner in which they have done their work.

Mrs. MILLER.—This unfortunate woman will soon expiate her crimes. Gov. Geary has issued the warrant for her execution, which will take place on Wednesday, the 13th day of November next. Sheriff Faust, with two clerks, and several other gentlemen, repaired to her cell on Monday about ten o'clock, for the purpose of reading the Governor's warrant to her; the reading of which seemed to effect her nervous system considerably, but otherwise she betrayed the same stolid indifference manifested upon her trial. The Sheriff and his wife had visited her cell on Sunday morning and informed her that the day of her execution had been fixed, and that the warrant was now in his hands. He asked her if she was ready to meet her fate, to which she replied, "yes, tomorrow, if necessary."—Clearfield Republican.

DEMOREST'S ILLUSTRATED MONTHLY.—The current number of this favorite periodical is a very good one. In addition to its usual illustrations, including the colored fashion plate, there are three large plates devoted to fashions, and another feature of special interest to ladies, viz: a full size pattern of Winter cloak. The special departments are not neglected, and there is the usual variety of excellent reading matter, stories, poems, etc. This is the best and most useful of the parlor magazines, and no family can afford to do without it.

Subscription price, $3 yearly, with valuable premium. Address, W. JENNINGS DEMOREST, 473 Broadway, New York.

Address ALFRED L. SEWELL, Publisher, Chicago, Ill.

Cold weather is fast approaching and our friend Service anticipating it and the wants of the people, has just received a new lot of the justly celebrated Morning Glory Stoves, which he offers to sell at sensation prices. Service is always up to the times, and the community should see that he is rewarded.

MARRIED.—On the 22d instant, at the residence of the bride's father, by the Rev. Mr. Verner, Mr. G. L. McCracken to Miss Kate Ross, both of Ridgway.

The happy couple have the best wishes of the printer, who hopes that their married life may be a continual honeymoon. Long may they wave.

Godey, for November, has been received, and abounds with its usual variety. Godey pays more for Fashion Plates than any other magazine publisher in the country.

The Board of Registration at Atlanta asked a freed franchisee his name. "Bob." "Bob what?" "Bob nuffa. Bob." The absurd board insisted on two names. "Well then, Bob Radical Ticket."

In Mobile last week, as a white man and a negro were at work on the scaffolding of a three story building, they were precipitated to the ground by the giving way of the scaffolding. The white man was picked up in an insensible condition, but the negro fortunately fell on his head, and escaped with but a few light bruises.

—Some three years ago a man was arrested in New York and incarcerated in a foul and loathsome cell of a dungeon by military edict, his only crime being that he had spoken disrespectfully of Mrs. Lincoln—but she was the wife of the government then. The Radical papers are now saying worse things about her than were ever dreamed of by any Democrat.

—The Jews constitute so large and influential an element at San Francisco (furnishing fully one-third of the pupils in the schools,) that school holidays and vacations are coming to be governed by the Jewish holidays and festivals.

—On Mr. Alexander's stock farm at Woodburn, Kentucky, there are one hundred and twenty brood mares of thorough blood, running over its acres, one hundred cows, and eight hundred sheep of the finest varieties, just the half of the number before some epidemic swept over the flocks.

—An Ohio editor had ciphered out the number of grasshoppers in that State. He estimates the number at 42,626,150,000. These placed in single file, allowing one and a half inches to each hopper, would reach a distance of 8,960,000 miles, or would girt the earth 2,490 times.

The continued agitation in Italy, and the determined disposition evinced by the party of action to persist in its attempts at the invasion of the Roman territory, causes much financial uneasiness and depression in London and in Paris.
