[For the Advertiser.]

A TWILIGHT SONNET.—The waning shadows of the autumn eve Vell the dim landscape from my ling'ring sight.

OBITUARY.—Albert Willis, Esq., whose death we announce in this issue, was buried from his late residence on Monday afternoon, last.

He came to this place from New York State, and commenced the practice of his profession, with Hon. Henry Souther, with whom he remained in partnership until his death.

He built for himself a beautiful home; and his surroundings betokened the refined and christian gentleman. In the possession of plenty and happiness death hungered for him.

The perfumed light Steals through the midst of alabaster lamps, And every air is heavy with the breath Of orange flowers that bloom 'T the midst of roses."

Such was the flowery land filled with healing-herbs and life preserving products, where Mr. Drake discovered the chief ingredients of his wonderful Tonic Medicine—PLANTATION BITTERS—the enchanted tropical island of St. Croix.

OYSTERS.—A few days ago we were made the recipient of a present of as nice a can of these delicious bivalves as it has ever been our fortune to put ourselves outside of. They came from Mr. C. V. Gillis, who has them for sale at the Store of Hyde Gillis & Co.

The fact that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has exempted from all tax the funds which are raised by the Washington Library Company of Philadelphia, for the endowment of the Riverside Institute; also that Messrs. Geo. A. Cooke, & Co., the well-known Bankers, No. 83 South Third street, Philadelphia, have consented to act as receivers of the moneys thus raised, together with the names of those well-known and prominent citizens who have associated themselves with the Institute, and have consented to act as Trustees, should certainly be a sufficient guarantee to the public that every pledge and promise will be carried out to the letter.
