FOR PRESIDENT IN 1868,
GENERAL GREENBACKS.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
GENERAL LOW TAXES.
DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

For Auditor General,

CHAS E BOYLE,
Of Fayette County.

For Surety General,

GEN W H ENT
Of Columbia County.

The Commissioners will meet at their office in Ridgway, on the 1st Monday in April, 1868.

F. G. DICKINSON, Clerk.

W. A. Galbraith, Esq., of Erie, is the Democratic Presidential elector for this, the 19th Congressional District, and Byron D. Hamlin and W. L. Scott are the delegates to the National Convention.

An apology is due our readers for the limited amount of reading matter given in this issue. We intended to have enlarged our paper ere the commencement of the present volume, and the appearance of the Treasurer's Sale List, but the dullness of times has frustrated our intentions.

Within the past two weeks the Democrats have been carrying almost every town in the State where elections have been held. Corry, Titusville, Harrisburg, York, Bedford, Middletown, Marietta, Marysville, Elizabeth, town, Easton, and other towns, have gone Democratic with tremendous gains. In some of the above named places, Corry and Titusville for instance, such an event as a Democratic victory is surprising to both Democrats and Radicals. Straws show which way the wind blows.

The friends of Col. Dan Rice have issued a long address to the delegates to the Democratic National Convention, which they are spreading broadcast over the country. It recites the causes which have enabled the Radical party to retain power for so long a period, argues that none of the candidates named for the Democratic nomination can be successful, and comes to the conclusion that the only man whose name can lead the party on to victory is the one whose claims they advocate. It must be acknowledged that, whatever Dan's chances for a nomination may be, he has got his friends roused up to a point of rare perseverance and enthusiasm.

Bonner, of the New York Ledger, is now publishing about the 'sickest' piece of first-class tomfoolery we have ever read. It is in the shape of a biographical sketch of Gen. Hiram U. Grant, written by his Dad. Daddy Grant says Hiram was once a very little boy, and that he was very fond of hoss flesh; that he was always wanting to go with larger boys than himself. Dad has not got to the interesting period of Hiram's life when he was forced to retire from the regular army to prevent a dismissal. When he gets that far we hope he will give it to the public, along with the number of time he begged five cents to get a drink with in the streets of Galena, Illinois.

A company of capitalists are endeavoring to get a charter from the State Legislature incorporating a boom company, who purpose building a boom for the storage of logs at Freeport, on the Allegheny river. The erection of a boom on the Allegheny is a direct blow at the prosperity of all the lumber region above the place where it is built. Remonstrances against the measure are being circulated in this, Warren and Jefferson counties, and are being signed generally by those whom it would affect.

The World at Home, for March, is on our table. For select, sound, philosophical and instructive reading, this monthly visitor has not its superior anywhere. The publisher neglected to send us the February number, which we regret, and hope they will make amends.

The peerless Lady's Book has been received. If there is anything in the line of getting up a first-class magazine that Godley can't accomplish, we would be surprised to hear of it. Address Godley's Lady's Book, Philad'a.

Democrat's Young America.—This excellent little magazine continues a great favorite of the juveniles. Its stories, colored pictures, and apt way of conveying most useful instruction, render it exceedingly attractive, as well as a real help in the way of education. Price $1.50 per year, with a premium. Publishing Office, 473 Broadway, New York City. Send for a circular.

PERSONAL.—We were pleased to meet Dr. J. L. McKee, of Pittsburgh, who called at our office on Wednesday last. The doctor pays particular attention to the treatment of chronic diseases, and also all diseases pertaining to women and children. He invites those laboring under any disease which has baffled the skill of their family physicians to address him at his office, No. 908, Penn Street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

"WHILE THE LAMP HOLDS OUT TO BURN," there is a chance for restoration of health. If, therefore, the constitution has been weakened by disease or excess—the nerves shattered—the stomach weakened—the appetite gone, and all the world appears gloomy—pour some fresh oil into your lamp, in the shape of Plantation Bitters, which will make the flame of life again burn brightly, and illuminate a once wretched existence. For ladies it is an excellent and gentle stimulant, exactly such as they require. Many families will not bewitch it. It has an immense sale throughout the world.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to cologne and at half the price.

—Late advices from Washington state that trouble is expected in Tennessee. The capital is full of rumors. The Rads should get up a row somewhere, and kill a few negroes. It would help the impeachment business and fire the Northern heart.

—The condition of old Thad Stevens, according to late Washington accounts, indicates a final breaking up of his system. When the old fellow can't recognize a colored fellow citizen, his case is hopeless.

—A Pittsburgh editor says his faith in the story of the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah by a shower of fire and brimstone would be far stronger than it is if he had never heard of Chicago.

—In the United States Senate on Tuesday last, an amendment reducing the tax on petroleum one half was added to the bill reducing the tax on manufactures.

—The cholera at St. Thomas is unabated. Thirty to fifty deaths occurring daily.

THE IMPEACHMENT.—Ben Butler's railroad speed impeachment court adjourned on Monday afternoon to secure concert of action, as Sumner said, against the application of the President's counsel for time to prepare his defence. At one o'clock on Tuesday, the 24th, the court again met, and (the motion of counsel for thirty days' time having been voted down on the previous day by a strict party vote) the question then returned on Senator Johnson's motion to grant ten days' time. The court retired for consultation, and, after three o'clock—having secured the requisite 'concert of action'—returned with an order which declares 'That the Senate' [why not court? ] will commence the trial of the President* on the 30th of March instant, and proceed therein with all despatch'—i. e. with railroad speed, so as not to allow the President's counsel to 'educate themselves in the case.' The 'high old' court then adjourned itself as a court and put on its ordinary Rump garb.

It will be perceived that this order allows the President's counsel four working days to prepare their defence—Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday. They asked for thirty days, alleging that they had not a document prepared nor a witness summoned, but the conspirators, who have their own testimony and arguments all prepared, (having been at it for more than a year past) were determined to take every undue advantage. They do not want a fair trial; they have prejudged the whole case from their hot headed partisan standpoint, and, seeing so much power and patronage almost within their grasp, they cannot refrain from an exhibition of the most indecent eagerness to clutch the coveted prize. Certainly no event has ever transpired in the history of this government, so shocking to every sense of justice and propriety as the initial proceedings of the railroad speed court of impeachment.
