PRESIDENT JOHNSON FOUND

GUILTY.

The substance of a dispatch from Washington to-day informs us that the Court met this morning and voted on the 11th article, on which Mr. Johnson was found guilty. The Court then, without considering the other articles, adjourned until the 20th inst. This action will make Wade President. God save the country now.

IMPEACHMENT.

The week has passed along so far in its course, and A. J. still sits undisturbed in the White House.

Though the Rump has devoted its best efforts to forcing impeachment through the Senate, the uncertainties of the result has delayed the vote and the cauldron still continues to boil.

The High Old Court meets again today, but there is much doubt about the vote being taken. There is a strong probability that another adjournment will be made, as the National Black and Tan Convention meets at Chicago on the 20th, and influences may be found there that will whip the conscientious, doubtful and wavering into line.

Among all the expedients that have been tried to bring about a verdict, it seems a little strange that "Gentle Anna" and her "barbaric yawn," have not been heard in the chambers of Senatorial wisdom.

That the revolutionists should neglect so strong an influence is greatly to be wondered at, but as "whom the gods would destroy, they first craze," so it is possible that in their extreme anxiety for conviction the Jacobins overlook the easiest and most obvious means.

Democrats really feel very little interest in what, as it stands, they regard merely as a family quarrel, well knowing that whatever the result, it can but benefit them.

The Radicals have bought the impeachment elephant, let them care for him. It's none of our funeral.

On the 20th, the farce of a Presidential nomination is to be gone through with at Chicago. Washburne has trained his steel well, and that nomination is a foregone conclusion; the real struggle will be over the Vice Presidency. New York presents Reuben Fenton, so-called, who will be a fit companion for Ben Butler and the carpet-baggers from Dixie. Pennsylvania favors Curtin, but we think he is too much of a gentleman for the position. Fenton sits, and would dovetail into Washington society, even better than drunken, cursing Ben Wade, who is the candidate of the nigger-suffragians of Ohio.

One thing is certain that whoever may be the candidates, if we fight them square upon the real issues, and with a man who has a straight and clean Democratic record, who is in favor of allowing the white laborer the right to live at least, we shall certainly be victorious.

Rally for the fight! Cry, up with the white man! Down with the nigger! Up with Liberty! Down with tyranny and taxation! Give them their own prescription for the Southron; a short shirt and a long halter for Rumpers and their tools.

The N. Y. Tribune informs its readers that Andrew Johnson is the first president who ever undertook to remove an officer whom the Senate had decided should not be removed. This is not true. During President Jackson's administration Mr. Duane, Secretary of the Treasury, was removed because he refused to carry out the policy of the administration. Daniel Webster opposed the removal of Mr. Duane in a lengthy speech, but that gentleman whilst disapproving of the removal, admitted, nevertheless, that the power of removal existed in the President according to the established construction of the Constitution.

RESOLUTIONS.

[The following are the resolutions passed at the railroad meeting held in St. Mary's on the 4th instant.]

Whereas, It is well known that the citizens of Buffalo desire rail-road communication with the coal-fields of North-western Pennsylvania, and

Whereas, There is now in course of construction a road called the Buffalo & Washington Railroad, the immediate intention of which is communication between the above points, and

Whereas, We believe that said B. & W. Railroad would naturally prefer taking that route which is shortest, cheapest and easiest of construction, which presents the lightest grades, and which leads directly to the centre of the coal basin, and

Whereas, We believe these advantages can only be demonstrated by actual surveys, made by intelligent engineers, therefore

Resolved, That money sufficient be at once subscribed and collected by this meeting to defray the expense of such survey.

Resolved, That a corps of engineers be at once engaged by a committee to be appointed by this meeting, who shall proceed from Miller's West Creek Summit, to meet a similar corps who are now proceeding south from Bishop's Summit.

Resolved, That a thorough and entire survey be made between these two points, and that the result be laid before the directors of the B. & W. R. R.

Resolved, That Hon. C. R. Earley, Joseph Patton, Esq., and Gen. R. C. McGill be appointed a committee to engage a corps of engineers.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The vote on impeachment which was to have been taken on Tuesday last, has been postponed until to-day, when it may be postponed until after the Chicago Convention—or possibly until after the next Presidential election.

The Tribune's special says:

"Senator Sherman spoke for conviction on the third, eighth and eleventh articles. Then followed Stewart, from Nevada, Williams, from Oregon, and Edmunds, from Vermont—all of whom recorded their names in favor of conviction on all the articles.

James W. Grimes, of Iowa, came next. He spoke for Radical Iowa, against all the articles, and earned the applause of men who never before saw aught in him to applaud. The Republicans were not at all surprised that old Grimes was dead."

Kansas followed for conviction through Pomeroy.

Hendricks, of Indiana, against all.

Howe, of Wisconsin, pronounced for all the articles but the first.

Morill, of Maine, succeeded him. His was another vote for all, without reservation.

Doolittle and Garrett Davis spoke against all the articles.

Henderson followed, and great anxiety was felt as to his position. Word came that he spoke against the first and second articles, and so on up to the ninth, leaving his position on the remaining three undefined.

Lyman Trumbull, the next speaker, denounced the whole trial. It would not, he said, stand a moment in any justice's court in the country."

The Times' special says:

"A prominent Senator, who heard all the debate, gives the following names of Senators who will vote for acquittal: Bayard, Buckalew, Davis, Dixon, Doolittle, Fessenden, Fowler, Grimes, Henderson, Hendricks, Johnson, McCreery, Norton, Patterson, of Tennessee, Laulsbury, Trumbull, Van Winkle and Vickers—18.

He gave the names of 36 Senators for conviction which of course includes the remainder of the Senate. I do not think this vote will be quite realized.—It all hangs by a single thread, and depends really upon Anthony, Frelinghuysen and Willey, who want to vote for conviction, but may not after all."

The reasons given by the Radicals for not taking the vote on Tuesday last, was the alleged illness of Senator Howard, of Michigan. The health of some other Senators is also said to be bad. A dispatch from Washington on the 10th inst. says that Senator Grimes was on that day attacked with sickness, he is however, improving. Senator Couklings is also confined to his lodgings. The sickness of Senator Howard still continues, and a further postponement of the final vote on the impeachment subject we regard as almost certain.

JOHN BILLINGS.—Don't swap with your relations unless you can afford to give them the big end of the trade.

Marry young, and if circumstances require it, often.

If you can't get good clothes and education, too, get good clothes.

Kultivate modesty, but mind and keep a good stock of impudence on hand.

Be charitable—one cent pieces were made on purpose. Don't take anybody's advice but your own.

It costs more to borrow than it does to be.

If a man flatters you, you can calculate that he is a rogue or you are a fool.

MAGNOLIA WATER.—A delightful toilet article—superior to cologne and at half the price.

J. B. McCormick's Minstrels will give an entertainment in the Hyde House Ball Room on Tuesday night next. The music is excellent.

BETTER THAN BENKIN.—BARD, at Messenger's Drug Store still keeps dealing out icy Cold and Sparkling Mineral Water. It is excellent. Go try it.

Our townsman, Hon. Henry Souther, starts for Chicago on Monday next to attend the meeting of the wool-growers' convention, which convenes in that city on the 20th instant.

JACK ADVOCATE.—Please request Teachers' Institute to state how many square inches should be taken from the corners of a board 12 inches square to make eight sides of equal length, and the exact length of each side. T. O.

Our lady readers will be glad to learn that H. S. Belnap has just received and is now opening a large stock of Spring Goods lately purchased in the eastern cities, and which he proposes to sell very cheap.

Josh Billings says: If you liech for fame, go into a graveyard, and scratch yourself against a tombstone.

If you want to buy cheap goods in the Hardware line, and not get cheated, and also get the worth of your money, never mind Josh's prescription for obtaining fame, but go to Beecher & Cope, land's St. Mary's Hardware Store, and buy what you want. They keep everything from a jack-knife to a saw-mill.

A SPLENDID WAGON.—H. S. Belnap & Co. are turning out some work in the wagon-making line which equals any in this part of the State. A wagon was gotten up by them a few weeks ago for Service, of the Ridgway Tin Store, which is a regular beauty, and we will wager our old hat that it can't be beat anywhere. The painting was done by Mr. W. P. Williams, an artistic genius and talented cuss, who can do anything in his line.

IMPORTANT DISCOVERY.—During a pop visit to St. Mary's the past week we were informed that a vein of four feet of pure coal had been discovered about one mile east of that place. From the thickness of this vein we should judge it to be that designated as F, in Prof. Rodgers' Geological report of the Saint Mary's Coal Basin. The land under which this valuable coal lies, is owned jointly by Mr. George Weis and Hon. E. C. Schuitze. Mr. Weis informed us that the coal had been pronounced by competent judges to be superior to any coal found in this section, and when Elk county coal is outrivalled a big thing will be done.

Demorest for May has been received. Every number of this excellent monthly contains some new and pleasing feature. Its colored fashion plates far surpass anything in the art that we have ever looked upon. Its reading matter is both instructive and amusing. Send for a copy. Ad. New York City.

"THE MESSENGER OF HEALTH," Edited at the Pennsylvania Institute of Medicine, contains an article on Dyspepsia, Chills and Fever, and Kidney Affections, in which the writer positively declares that the whole science of Medicine contains no remedy for the cure of those diseases, that is half as efficacious as MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS. He speaks from experience, having used them in his practice for the past two years, to the exclusion of all other remedies, and without a solitary instance of failure.

Sold by all Druggists and Dealers. Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Proprietors, Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and Chicago, Illinois. [my1-3m edw]

"HOW CAN YE BLOOD SO FRESH AND FAIR?" goes the old Scotch song. How? Why, those who show the bloom of health on their cheeks, take Plantation Bitters, which has the power of fortifying the system against disease, and of regulating the digestive apparatus. Are you dyspeptic, weak, void of energy? Have you little or no appetite, headache, continued lassitude and depression of spirits? Take S. T.—1869—X., and bloom and beauty will return. The Bitters have become a household friend.
