SPEECH OF GEORGE FRANCIS TRAIN, ON FINANCES.

Long Brauch has its General Grant -Albany its convention--Saratoga its Judge Chase-while Clifton Springs has its George Francis Train. His swinging round the circle with Johnson to Chicago, and Ben Wade's party through the western States, seems to have sent him into the water cure for repairs. The moment he arrived he was waited upon by a committee of cler. gymen from all parts of the Union on behalf of the ladies to address the several bundred guests at the springs, but Mr. Train said that he was on the blue list. Organizing Credit Mobiliers— Credit Fouciers—building Pacific railways-establishing cities, and putting up a hotel in sixty days on his principality at Omaha, and making speeches all along the line, we should think would use up most any constitution. But Mr. Train seems to be fire proof.

After repeated promises to speak, which had not been fulfilled, he came to time on Wednesday night to a crowded hall, and made one of the most extraordinary speeches we ever recorded.

Wishing to caution the nation against demagogues, he said for once he would personify the demagogue in order to put oyal men on their guard. We do not intend to give an elaborate report of the speech or the interruptions, but we have caught sufficient to make it pointed and of interest. Mr. Chapman, of St. Louis, was called to the chair.

Mr. Train, who was received with applause, commenced by reading the folowing resolution:

Resolved. As our national debt was contracted by inflation, by inflation it shall be paid. Mr Chapman, of St. Louis-What do you mean by that proposition? Mr. Train-We mean "up with greenbacks and down with specie payment." [Laughter and applause]. All those in favor of greenbacks say aye. [Loud cries of aye]. If the people proorce them to take bonds and notes with nterest? [That's so]. The statistics show that out of thirty-six millions of people only half a million pay an income tax on a thousand dollars. Hence it is fair to suppose that the number will covor the hendholders. The question aries is there sufficient virtue & generosity in the other thirty five and a half milions to vote to tax themselves to pay hese five hadred thousand bondholders. The demagague will make much of this point. [Laughter.] And just must meet him squarely or to will have the argument. The New York Herald closed one of its leaders on the national bank by saying since Horace Greely by bailing Davis admits that there is no such crime as treason, our national debt is a national swindle. [A voice "the Herald is no guide to public opinion."] You are mistaken. Benett always looks ahead. His hot shet into the national banks are riddling those pet presidential making institu-

He is the first to see a change in the minds of the public, and an experience of thirty years has made him a prophet as well as a fortune. [Applause.] Many years ago he told me that a panic was a good thing for a city or a nation. Chipanic came, bankruptcy followed, but the substantial stores, the magnificent residences, the splendid city and two bundred thousand people remained there [Loud applause.] Give us greenbacks, we say, and build cities, plant corn, open coal mines, control railways, launch ships, grow cotton, establish factories, open gold and silver mines, erect rolling mills, start the su. gar cane, and sorgum and tobacco once more. Turn Niagra Falls into a Manchester. [Loud applause.] Vote ten millions bonus if we finish the Pacific railroad before 1870. [Chears.] Vote subsidies for steamboat lines;to Europe; aig a canal from lake Michigan to the Mississippi [applause] and remove the capital of America from the corrupt and God-forsaken sink of iniquity, Washington, to Columbus. Nebraska, ninety six miles west of OMaha, the geographical centre of our four million square unde nation. [Loud cheers.] Carry my resolution and there is sun shine in the sky. [Applause ] Vote McCulloch's English plan of paying English. men one dollar for what they paid forty cial ship. Greenbacks will start us ahead again at forty miles an hour. Specie payment will produce a regular

How strange that you should mix up greenbacks with repudiation. [Laugh. ter.] You might as well call a Copperhead a Democrat. [Laughter.]

Blucher and Wellington represented distinct nations, yet they closely represented each other in wax figures.
[Laughter.] Take care that the demaslippery-elm tongue. He will argue that it is cheap to save the Union and price. $2,700,000,000 according to McCulloch, $12,000,000,000 according to the demagogue [Oh.]
Rev. Mr. Falkner, Bridgeport, Connecticut-where do you get your $12,the South, says the western demagogue, 900,000,000 ?

Mr. Train-From the debt viisble and the debt invisible. [Laughter.] Says McCulloch's statement. $2,-700,000,000.

Here you have for the North, $1,-000,000,000, And the bogus southern debt for war, pestilence, famine, and ne. groes,7,000,000,000. And you have $12,000,000,000.

This, the demagogue will argue, is legislated to have no taxes on their bonds. Hence the rich man can send his children to school where the poor man pays the schoolmarm.

He said the poor man must be better paid for his labor. Seymour, of the ow York Times, reported fairly; but it was Raymond who gave the start on the agrarian interpretation. (A voice -did you hear the speech?) Yes, sir, I introduced Mr. Wade to his Kansas audience, and endorsed all he said. Wade is no agrarian. He is a bold. plucky humanitarian, not atraid of man or Democrat. He believes, as I do, that the laboring man should divide his day into eight hours labor, eight for recreation and improvemen t, and eight hours sleep if he requires so much. Wade is more of a statesman than a politition. Mr. Paine asked if I proposed repudiation. By no means; but the demagogue will tell you that repudiation has been the policy of the government from the first. You don't agree to that. Let me prove it. The government commenced the war by making contracts in gold. They repudiated gold and gave legal tenders. They then repudiated legal tenders and gave certificates of indebtedness, and gave contractors seven-thirties. All the demagogue. For he will sesure you that even now the endorsement on your greenback, agreeing to exchange for a five-twenty, is repudiated. Take the day. (Some hisses, and "What else have they repudiated?") Mr. Train-What else? Why Congress has repudiated the Constitution repudiated the executive, and repudiated the idea first asserted, that the States were in the Union. Then they repudiated the Supreme Court, repudiated the constitutional amendment, and now they intend repudiating the recon. struction bill, and in voting the bounty bill commenced repudiating the national debt. You see repudiating is fashionable. Hence nothing can save us but cents for and disaster wrecks our finans greenbacks. For insolvency is the strongest point in the American char-

And the sum of New England's greed. (Hisses.) You ought not to hiss. You know I am only giving you the speech of a dem. agogue. The country will be full of one way of repudiating. This is only for the principal. To pay it off in thirty years, as McCulloch proposes, we must raise—from the poor more than the rich $10,000,000,000 and the plausibility of their argument, all loyal people like this audience of distinguished clergymen can be must raise—from the poor more than ence of distinguished clergymen can be from the rich—$10,000,000,000 more prepared and fortify themselves against in Taxes. From dawn to the dusk of day,

For your hopes are crushed with a weight of debt, That toil of your life won't pay!

-(Dissent.)
I agree with you who hiss. Such doctrines should be put down by the strong arm of military power. When a man talks repudiation shoot him on the spot ; for Greely has done a christian act in liberating Davis. The demagogue always catches up some popular idea. He will appeal to his audience in Union squrre on the question of substitutes where the rich man showed his loyalty by paying a thousand dollars to have an other man shot. Again he will resort to rhyme :

You gave your son to the war ! The rich man loaned his gold ! And the rich man's son is happy to-day, And yours is under the mould ! -(Sensation.)

You did not think, poor man-You can scarce believe when you're told,

That the sum which the rich man loaned to the war,

Was the price for which you were sold ! In this way the real demagogue will bills. set the poor man to thinking, and as it is a free country he will be allowed to national bank; but sixteen hundred is vote as his pocket and his reason die- too much for us. agony:

Nay, do not pause to think, Or sigh for your children or wife, For your moments are mortgaged to hopeless toil, The rest of your weary life !

The orator baving aroused their pas. sions will say: "If you are in favor of paying off the debt in greenbacks, say ave." Of course it is carried by acclamation. What can four hundred thousand bondholders do against a Congress who owns no bonds! Against six hundred thous sand negro votes, one million southern white votes, and three million of northern and western men who hold no bonds, but hanker after greenbacks in order to make their property more valuable?

No national debt was ever paid why should ours be? It costs us five times was an accident. Having taken care of as much to day for peace armament as formerly it did for war. Our national disease is politician on the State, bloodsucker in the treasury, and office on the brain. A national debt is a national tax. It never was, it never will be paid. You seem to forget that I am making at your request the speech of a demagogue-or, in other language, putting up a man of straw for the loyal man to knock down. You forget that I am against repudiation, as Lowell would say. I am for greenbacks-twenty five hundred million of greenbacks-one currency instead of sixteen different dates, vide McCulloch, and one kind of interest, that is no interest at all-instead of a dozen different rates as at present. McCulloch's whole policy is in the in-terest of Europe, of England and, of the bondholders. He has triedled break Wall street a dozen times, and nearly broke himself. What a wretched state we must be in to have the whole question of our fa cial future depend upon two thingsthe state of Mc Culloch's stomoch and a good crop. Once our people had selfreliance. Now the conversation is on the Secretary of the Treasury. He is selling gold. Up goes the price. He is contracting. Down go stocks. He is negotiating a loan abroad. He wants one hundred millions at home. He is bearing the market. No, he is a bull to day in Wall street. One man says Jay Cooke is his partner, that Lanier does his foreign business, that Meyor, his brother-in-law, manages his gold. Another, he is cheeking out his deposits or is locking up greenbacks. This is Wall street. Never before did man wield such power-one thousand six hundred national banks, and when they fail Mr. Spinner says he will cash the Nor as we must be taxed $10,000,000,000 a pay off our national debt, why not ther it all into the pool and show our loya by paying it all off at once ? As Mel. of the World, says, our policy is to manthe the rich richer and the poor poorer. Our bondholders will be prince. The money-lenders will be divided into rabobs and nobobs.

As the debt was made so let it i paid—an eye for an eye—a tooth for tooth. England paid $200,000,000 for $600,000,000 of bonds. Insolvency is general. When I saw the gold brokers buying and selling 370,000,000 a day, I asked what it was for? What do they do with it? I found only two outlets-one to pay the interest on five-twenties, the other for export, both amounts only $60,000 a day, or $400,000 a week. I then came to the conclusion that somebody was behind this action-that the foreign exchange brokers, the importers and the English manufacturers were all combined to hold up war prices in time of peace. Hence they sold gold short in order to hedge against high priced im.

If gold goes up, they save loss by rise in goods. If gold goes down, they make on gold what they would lose on goods. But this holding three balls in the air is fatigueing. Did you ever see the Ravels roll that big ball up an inclined plane? He stopped to take breath and the wheel went over him crushing him as flat as a pancake. So with insolvent merchants holding goods or if solvent banks holding up bogus stock. They had hard work rolling that big wheel up hill, until McCulloch came to their assistance and backed down from his specie paying policy of contraction. Public credit can only be tased on industrial prosperity. A war, n pestilence, a famine, always places tax-payers and bondholders face to face. Universal suffrage is our great hobby. An American Astor has but one vote. An American sweep is equally rich .--Hence some day the pit may vote out the dress circle.

Why will you persist in forgetting that I am acting the part of damagogue to your request, so that you can always be on your guard. In conclusion Mr. Train stated that
