FROM HON. JAMES THOMPSON,
Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania,

I consider Hoofland's German Bitters a valuable remedy in all cases of debility, nervousness, or impurity of the blood. It is a powerful and reliable remedy for all the ailments mentioned above.

FROM REV. J. H. KENNEDY, D.D., Pastor of the Third Baptist Church, Philadelphia.
Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir:—I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but I have never done so, as I have no special opinion in favor of any one, but with a clear mind in various instances, and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Hoofland's German Bitters, I have from time to time used it, to express my full conviction that the medicinal virtues of this medicine, and especially its power to cure debility, and impurity of the blood, is a fact, and not a mere theory. In some cases it may fail, but usually, I think, it will be very beneficial in all cases where the disease exists. Yours, very respectfully, J. H. KENNEDY,
English, below Chestnut St.

THE ELK ADVOCATE.

FOR THE RIGHT AT ALL TIMES.

JOHN F. MOORE, Editor & Proprietor.

VOLUME EIGHT—NUMBER 24.

THE SARDINE AS A WHALE.

The spectacle of a candidate whose powers of oral expression are limited to two or three sentences, standing at the head of a party which professes to be the great defender of human liberty, would be very amusing if it was not astonishing. Grant, in his capacity as leading horse in the radical wagon goes "gee" or "haw," just as he is told, but never for one instant does he undertake to disregard the signal sent to him over the line in the hands of his driver.
Time after time has he been called on to say something in answer to the demands of waiting crowds, who, anxious to know what the "great man" is made of listen with mouths agape, to hear the wonders that are to fall from his Salonicic lips. But, like the boy whom the call run over, our "Coriolanus" has nothing to say. Further than "I thank you," or, "I am very tired," "I have been traveling all night," or something to that effect, the "General of the Arms" does not go. The expectant crowds instead of dew drops of wisdom, hear but the commonest platitudes and the most insipid remarks. The theme is generally the "great man's" health or the fact that he has been here or there or somewhere else. Behind that cloud of cigar smoke are issued the most uncertain sounds that ever entered into the composition of any candidate's response to the admiration of a wondering crowd. Expected things come not; but things unexpected, flow like thick molasses through a narrow spigot on a winter's day.

And yet this man is the Radical candidate for President of the United States. A man who cannot make a speech or write a letter. The mere nobility of a set of men who expect to make his opinions for him, and steer the ship of state to suit their own ambitious views, even if they throw it rocked and mangled, upon the rocks and breakers of national discord. What a candidate for the American people to risk their future with! Let them not forget the warnings of the past, nor fail to heed the lessons we are learning every day.

YO SEMITE.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29, 1868.

DEAR EDITOR: Well we are back again—back from the most magnificent scenery on the round globe.
We have been to the Yo Semite and returned. I have looked upon the primeval mountain scenery of Europe, and I have seen the Yo Semite, and I never saw anything on the whole equal to this exhibition up in our Rocky Sierra.

Other bits of landscape may surpass it in single points of comparison, but none contains in combination so many surprising and peerless attributes.

Your letter will hardly be complete till you have taken in this little sketch of travel; and I am impatient to have you come and do it. You come upon the valley on the top of the walls of it, some 8,000 feet above the sea level. The valley itself is 4,000 feet above the same level. From this crest of rock you look virtually down into the mighty chasm, rifted at some old time and by some great convulsion in the heart of the mountain. You see it in its whole length some eight miles and a half to one and a half wide. Far down below you rise the tall pines, and under the shadow of the giant walls winds the river (the Merced).

Of from the brow of this wall of water falls, kept fully by the melting snows from the loftier summits.
These loftier summits are from 10, 000 to 15,000 feet high. One named the South Dome rises perpendicularly from the level of the valley 6,000 feet.
You remember Mount Carmel, perhaps.
That's 800 feet high. Take about eight such mountains, let the material be hard and bare granite rock, pile them up with a perpendicular face and overhanging brow, and stand at their base and gaze up. That's the style of the thing.

And this is only one height in that double wall of eight miles. The "Bridal Veil" face is about 1,000 feet high and some 50 feet broad at the top. The "Yosemite" Fall is a triple leap of length 2,500 feet. The "Ribbon" Fall is 3,000. The Nevada and Vernal Falls precipitate the main Merced River over two ledges 700 and 500 feet high.

We took all the adventurous trips belonging to the tour without accident. Horseback riding on mountain trails, twenty four miles a day—our ladies went through it bravely. We had a party of eleven and two guides in addition.—Journal of Commerce.

IRISHMEN.

Every mean thing that it has been possible for a mean man to say has been said of the Irish.
Confounded rascals, stupid fools, vilest of the vile and lowest of the low, dogs and offscouring of humanity, cowardly and treacherous, is the style in which Radical organs have treated of the Irish in this city.

The general opinion of their intelligence and virtue is far below what it would have been but for the demagoguism of party leaders. The Irish have, as a rule voted the Democratic ticket, and that has been sufficient to condemn them to everlasting infamy by the Shoddy knights.

We have no desire to malign the mechanics and laborers of New England but we do not assert without fear or favor, and will forever assert and maintain that the Irish of this city are as intelligent and virtuous as the native born laborers of Massachusetts, or any other New England State. No people in this country vote more scrupulously in accordance with their convictions of Right than our Irish fellow citizens. No people are more devoted to the welfare of the nation. No people have a keener appreciation of the blessings of our institutions.

So great a proportion of their numbers cannot read and we are aware of.
But the Irish are social, and in every establishment in this region one Irishman reads to others. One will read while others are dining—taking turns—and after the reading follows a thorough discussion. To say that the Irishmen as a class are ignorant, is a lie.

To say they are low, beastly, dishonest, rottenhearted is an other lie.
To say that they are a disgrace, a danger and a weakness to our government fabric is an untruth, malicious and infamous.

To say they are infinitely inferior to the laboring classes of New England, is not and never was true.

The danger to this country is not in the votes or voices of Irishmen, but in the self-righteousness, narrow-mindedness, and bigotry of Radical politicians!

The poor Irish have been the butt of ridicule for years—poor reward for their industry, their disposition to labor—their devotion to labor as illustrated by the canals, railroads and public works they have erected for us. It is for radicals to abuse them and accuse them of vices they do not possess.

New England is especially abusive of Irishmen—the same New England that fills the land with Yankee prostitutes, and Ireland fills America with honest laborers—with men who are democratic because they hate old and New England aristocracy.—La Crosse Dem.

THE NORTH CAROLINA POLICE BILL.—The Jacobin Legislature of North Carolina, a few days since, hastily adopted what was termed a "Police Bill," but which is nothing more nor less than a law giving authority to Gov.
Holden to organize an armed force, scattered throughout the entire State—a standing army on a small scale, and responsible for their acts to one head only —this Radical Governor Holden. This infamous bill gives to the Governor unlimited power in regard to calling out the militia, or, as they are falsely called, the "police." Not even the sheriffs are to be consulted, an amendment embodying that proviso having been voted down by a large majority; as was another amendment, forbidding any organized armed body to approach within a quarter of a mile of the polls during an election, except in case of riot. The Governor has absolute control of this engine of tyranny. He has the sole power of appointing officers—in fact, his authority in regard to this military organization is without limit or restriction.

Steadily and surely rises the amount of the public debt under Radical misrule. The public debt statement for August will show an increase of ten millions. But with this rapidly accumulating burthen of debt under which the people stagger, the Radicals compacently propose to pay off the debt in gold. Where do they expect to get the money?

An Iowa prisoner, lately released took away with him the jailor's daughter. They call the affair a grate clop-net.

Fanny Fern objects to men shedding tears; she says it is an infringement on women's most valuable "water privileges."

Will Jacobin newspapers, which are anxiously inquiring where the greenbacks will come from to redeem the five twenty bonds, tell us where the gold will come from to redeem these bonds. Is gold more plentiful than greenbacks? Is there more of it in the country? Is it worth less? Can it be more easily attained? Will a day's work get a dollar in gold more easily than a dollar in currency? You will get the gold to pay the debt, in taxation, will you not Jacobins? Democrats will get greenbacks by the same process.
Do you understand? Is it easy?
Do you see it? If you do, let us have no more repetition of your nonsensical question of "Where will the greenbacks come from?"

To get money—"lawful money"—and to save money, are two processes. The Jacobins are adept in getting money from the taxpayers, but they don't know how to save it. They are extortionists and spendthrifts. Under their management the treasury is a vast river, into which a volume of currency is constantly pouring and disappearing. To keep up this current the hard workingmen of the country are taxed.
It comes from the sweat of their brows.
They sweat and toil for a privileged class who pay no taxes and demand from the government more than twice the amount they lent it. The Jacobin party is pledged to force their infamous demand.—Chicago Times.

HOW BRIGHTLY BREAKS THE MORN-ING.—The morning of our political campaign in which is to be fought the great battle for the perpetuity of Constitutional liberty, breaks most auspiciously upon the country. Since the nomination of Seymour and Blair, elections have been held in three States. Oregon, Kentucky and Montana, in each of which there has been large gains since the last elections. Kentucky gives a Waterloo defeat to the Radical revolutionary party, and the Democratic majority cannot be much under one hundred thousand.—Grant extended his travels out toward Montana but his presence gave neither hope nor strength to his party. The Democratic majority there is largely increased also. These victories have struck terror into the Radicals and they are now trembling as did Bolshazker of old, when he read the fearful handwriting upon his palace wall. Their fate is just as certain as his, for like him they are now being weighed in the balance and are found wanting. As further victories come rolling in upon us they will be seized with dismay, and their ranks will break and scatter.

FORNEY SAYS: "We anxiously await Seymour's third letter." He will have his wants supplied on the fourth of March next. The document was prepared some time ago and is as follows:
"I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the office of President of the United States, and will to the best of my ability preserve, protect, and defend the Constitution of the United States."

Almost as short as Grant's speech at St. Louis, and a little more to the point.

In Maine the Radicals are circulating forged speeches among the voters, attributing to Seymour, Blair, and to other Democrats, Northern and Southern, sentiments which they never uttered. The same game will be attempted in this State. A safe rule to follow is to believe nothing heard from the Radical platform or seen in the Radical press.

A panther in Madison county, La., made his breakfast from a laboring man there.

A little domestic unpleasantness caused a negro woman in Memphis to poison the well of a neighbor.

The Cincinnati Zouaves, a crack company of ante war fame, has been reorganized.

Rev. Dr. Bright calls Tilton's shameless eulogy of Thad. Stevens "really blasphemous."

John Allen says that though he has been called the wickedest man in New York he is not.

Quotation lovers will be glad to learn that a dictionary of Shakespeare quotations has been published.

A. G. Abbott and John R. Sheffield are the Presidential electors for Massachusetts.

Gov. Smith of Alabama, proclamates an extra session of the Legislature for the 19th inst.

NEGRO VERSUS WHITE MAN.

The Radical policy of banding together the negroes of the South against the whites of that region, has had its natural effect. It has also united all the whites—Radicals, carpetbaggers and all against the rule of the negro. Negro votes might pass to carry an election; but negro legislators making laws for white men, brought the blush of shame even to the cheeks of many Northern carpetbaggers. They had not been used to that at home. They have, therefore, joined in the decision of the House of Representatives in Georgia, that while the Constitution of that State allows negroes to vote, it does not make them eligible to office. A provision, to that effect, was, it seems, struck out of the Constitution, even by the "Reconstructing" Convention that made it.

All Northern Radical papers are in a terrible stew over this matter. Some find in it a pretext for an extra session of Congress to amend the Constitution of Georgia, so as to give office to the negroes. It is odd, to hear this chorus of lamentations among the Radical newspapers of Pennsylvania, because a negro in Georgia, like a negro here, is excluded from office. No doubt, one purpose of the expected session will be to pass the bill Thaddeus Stevens postponed last session, which gives votes to negroes in the Northern States. This is indeed, the last desperate resource of the Radicals, to carry Pennsylvania. It is plain they are now trying to bring the public mind up to it. Negroes in all the State Legislatures, negroes in Congress is a necessary sequence to the Radical policy. One of the very negroes ejected from the Georgia Legislature, named Alpeora Bradley, specially ejected, however, for conviction of felony, is now a candidate for Congress! Everywhere, the Radical clique are striving to give to the negro the casting vote between the political parties of our country. They are almost frantic now with the thought that fifteen or twenty thousand negro votes in Pennsylvania, might give them a majority.
The bill of Thaddeus Stevens will, we believe, be one of the first called up, if there is an extra session of Congress.
At this moment the note of preparation is sounding in the Southern cities. The Radical clique have issued their mandate, "let there be negro riots." These are to furnish political capital, like the negro riot, called "negro massacre," at New Orleans, in 1866, which was deliberately planned by the Radicals to counteract the influence of the Conservative Convention held at Philadelphia, in that year.

ATTENTION MILL OWNERS!
THE EAGLE TURBINE WATER WHEEL, patented July 30, 1857, is superior to any wheel in use. The underlying good have the agency for said wheel in the State of Pennsylvania, and can recommend it as being the best manufactured.
For further particulars, and circulars, inquire at our Foundry in Keosauqua, where machinery, mill-gearing, castings and steam engines will be made to order at reasonable prices. We expect by giving satisfaction in our work to receive a good share of public patronage.

A CARD TO THE LADIES.—Dr. Duponco's GOLDEN PERIODICAL PILLS for Females. Reliable in curing irregularities, removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turn, from whatever cause, and always successful as a preventive. One Pill is a dose. Females peculiarly situated, or those suffering themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, lest they invite miscarriage, after which admission the Proprietor assumes no responsibility, although their indefinite would prevent any mischief to health; otherwise the Pills are recommended as a Most Invaluable Remedy for the alleviation of those suffering from any irregularity whatever, as well as prevent an increase of family when health will not permit; quieting the nerves and bringing back the "rosy color of health" to the check of the most delicate.
