

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1894.

Read Bell's offer in another column.
E. A. Laird, of Tyrone, spent Monday in town.
For fine boots and shoes go to the Patton Clothing Store.
Frank C. Guison, of Huntingdon, had business here Monday.
C. & E. Little last week killed a bovine that weighed 1,750 pounds.
Wm. Boyce and Wm. Wells, of Brim, are visiting friends in town.
Best flannel shirts in Patton for 90 cents, at the Patton Clothing Store.
Jack Shied is able to be around again after a severe attack of rheumatism.
J. C. Oberlin, of Smicksburg, Indiana county, is a guest at the Hotel Beck.
Good overcoats for boys, nobby with cape, $1.50 at the Patton Clothing Store.
Misses Anna Seyler and Bertha Barr, of DuBois, are guests of Miss Sannie Dale.
P. M. Brown, of Willmore, was in town Thursday, and paid the COURIER a visit.
Storm coats $7.25, former price $9.50, at the closing out sale at the Economy store.—64f.
It is often difficult to get shell oysters. I. R. Snyder, Fifth avenue, has them at all times.—1
Don't miss the great closing out clothing sale at the Economy store, opposite the Beck.—54f.
The New York dry goods store will continue auctioning off goods, every evening this week.
Notice the change in the advertisement of Fisher & Beck, the furniture dealers, on Beach avenue.
Dr. Neilman, of DuBois, was in town last week, presumably looking for a location for a dentist's office.
This is your only chance to buy clothing cheap, at the Economy store. All clothing must be sold at once.—54f
I have a number of fine building lots for sale in different parts of the town. Inquire at postoffice, E. A. Mellon.
John Boyce expects to begin erecting an addition to his building, opposite the Hotel Beck in about two weeks.
Try Magic drops for pain, internal and external. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.—4f
W. H. Bell, Jr., of Reynoldsville, spent a few days in Patton last week. He was the guest of his brother, L. S. Bell.
Wanted.—A practical blacksmith desires a location. Write to Alex S. Pyles, McCullough Mills, Juniata county, Pa.—64f
The money collected a short time ago will, for the payment of street lamps, as published, but for the purpose of paying a policeman.
H. J. Boyer, one of the COURIER forces, who formerly represented the citizens of the Fourth ward, DuBois, as councilman, has tendered his resignation.
Mr. Swent, of Indiana county, is putting up a large building on the lot in the rear of the Good building, intended to be used as a boarding house.
Go the Kinkaid restaurant if you want a good lunch. Frank is a good fellow and is deserving of the patronage of the people of Patton.—54f
The guests of Hotel Beck had the pleasure of sampling the six-dollar fruit cake Sunday which Mr. Beck, the general proprietor, secured at the fire company dance.
E. J. Kuhn, of Altoona, was in town on Monday. Mr. Kuhn is the proprietor of a large bakery in that city. He is at present trying to get a foot hold in this place in his business.
Attorney McKenrick, of Ebensburg, was a caller at the COURIER office on Saturday. Mr. McKenrick knows a good thing when he sees it. He subscribed for the COURIER.
Specimens of job printing done at this office will be shown patrons on application. Note heads, bill heads, statements, envelopes, handbills and all kinds of commercial printing done at reasonable prices. Send in your orders.
Inadvertently an error was made in last week's COURIER in the statement that Striman & Pack's store had been robbed. It should have been reported that the proprietors of the New York dry goods store week the victims.
G. P. O'Leary is now ready to cater to the wants of his friends in the line of meat. His market is supplied with the best meats and it will be sold at living prices. Next door to T. F. Mellon's grocery.—54f
John Yahner and William Dummell, each have board walks completed in front of their properties. These were the last two sections to complete the walk from the COURIER office to the branch railroad crossing. Who will be next?
John Boyce and Samuel Kelly have applied for wholesale license, and which application will be heard at the license court in February. Patton is the centre of a good territory and if any of the towns of this section secure wholesale license it will probably be this town.

Look over the new advertisements in this issue.
County Superintendent Leech, of Ebensburg, was in town Tuesday.
Dr. Summerville and Samuel Kelly, of Chest Springs, were in town Tuesday.
L. S. Bell, the clothier, was drawn this week as a juror for court at Ebensburg.
If you want an elegant crayon portrait free, see offer in another column.
For coughs, colds and sore throat try Magic cough cure. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.—4f
If you are interested in game cocks, walk down to the grist mill and take a look at Mr. Burns', they are beauties.
Mr. E. C. Brown, who has been to Jersey Shore and Williamsport for several days on a business trip, returned home Monday.
A miners' and mine laborers' mass meeting will be held in the opera house on Friday evening. Several speakers from a distance will be present.
Dr. Worrel has moved his office from over Dale's hardware store to a room on the second floor of the new Good building. He has very pleasant and convenient quarters in his new location.
A. Libovis, of Altoona, has rented the room formerly occupied by Charles Wholley the barber, in the Yahner building, and will fit it up for the merchant tailoring business. Mr. Libovis expects to be ready for business next week.
The Enreka Recess, next door to the Grey Hotel, Carrolltown, Pa. is open day and night. Turkey, Chicken, Hamburg steak, Broiled beefsteak, Roast Pheasant, Roast Rabbit, Hot coffee, tea, &c., always on the bill of fare. Regular meals 25 cents. Side dishes, desserts and second order for meat, extra.—4f
Who sneezes with you when you are sad, who laughs with you when you are glad, and smiles with you when you are mad? The editor. Who has to be both kind and wise and never (hardly ever) lies, and when he does, creates surprise? The editor. Who owns a heart as well as cheek, is possessed of spirit, proud yet meek, and lives on forty cents a week? The editor.—EX
Entertained at Opera House.
Powell, the magician, in his wonderful and marvelous performance in the opera house Thursday evening, made the hit of the season. It was pronounced the best entertainment that has ever been in Patton, and gave universal satisfaction. Those who have seen Keller and Herman pronounce Mr. Powell the equal if not the superior of either. Mr. Powell is a gentleman on the stage, who cannot always be said of those who make magic a profession. His East India trunk trick and his version of Rider Haggard's "She" were marvelous performances. We predict for him a crowded house when he appears here again.
Frequent Social affairs.
Misses Anna Seyler and Bertha Barr, of DuBois, were tendered a very pleasant reception at the opera house Tuesday evening. About twenty-five couples were present and all who attended will remember the occasion as one of the most pleasant social events ever given in Patton. Several guests from out of town were present, among whom were Miss Maggie Thompson, of Curwensville, and Mr. W. D. Gilmora, of Philipsburg. Music was furnished by the Patton orchestra.
Box of Jewelry Found.
The box of jewelry found along the branch railroad above town last week, was at first supposed to be some of the goods that were stolen from the New York dry goods company's store last week, but the proprietors say it does not belong to them. It is probable that it was lost by some peddler.
Building a Bridge.
Messrs. J. E. Bowser, J. H. Emert, H. K. Carson and A. N. Carson, bridge builders for the Beech Creek railroad company, are stopping in town. They are engaged in building a bridge at the lower end of the "Y" switch for the company named.
Preparing to Locate.
J. H. Garrity, of Altoona, was in town Tuesday with an idea of locating in Patton. Mr. Garrity represents the Columbus Brewing company and expects to open an agency here in the near future. A building will be erected especially for his use.
Rested in the Cooler.
Saturday evening a Hungarian, loaded with whiskey and a pole ax, created some excitement on Magee avenue. He had been around with the boys during the early part of the evening and about 10:30 imagined that he had lost his purse under the sidewalk near the Cornelius furniture store. By some means he procured possession of an ax and with a will went to cutting the sidewalk to pieces to procure the alleged purse. He had not been long thus occupied before he was gathered in by the chief of police and taken to the cooler to rest. He was given a hearing before Burgess Jackson and fined $3 and costs.

CARROLLTOWN.
CARROLLTOWN, Jan. 9, 1894.
Mrs. J. W. Sharbaugh is improving. Fresh roasted peanuts at the Eureka, day and night.
Call at the Eureka restaurant and get noodle soup, 5 and 10 cent dishes.
D. C. Sullivan, proprietor of one of the best hotels at Spangler, was in town Monday.
W. H. Waltz, proprietor of the Eureka restaurant, next to Gray's hotel, keeps open day and night.
Adam Freese, our popular liveryman, says that business is fair to middling, but if there was sleighing it would be better.
Albert Flick, of the Gray hotel, returned from Pittsburg Saturday. He was selling apples and was very successful.
Considerable interest prevails in Carrolltown over the license question, and as the time for granting approaches the interest increases.
Mrs. Quince Brickley, of Spangler, died Monday morning, January 8th, of consumption. She was about 36 years of age and leaves one small child.
James Sharbaugh, of Carrolltown, was in Patton Tuesday looking up a location for blacksmith shop. He is a competent mechanic and will do justice to all patrons.
T. W. Letts, formerly editor and proprietor of the News, has left his accounts with Squire Schrott for settlement. All those indebted to him will please call and settle to save cost.
BELLWOOD.
BELLWOOD, Jan. 9, 1894.
The Republican voters of the borough met in Cornmesser's hall last Saturday evening and nominated a full borough ticket. Their chances for success were looked after in the selection of candidates. Party lines are not very closely drawn in local contests; good men are looked for.
E. A. Howell has severed his connection with the Pennsylvania & North-western railroad as assistant engineer of maintenance of way. He departed last Wednesday evening for Chester, where he will study law.
A fire broke out in the stable connected with the Bell hotel on Wednesday morning. Some shingles and hay were burning when the flames were discovered. The bucket brigade quenched the blaze.
Ray Baker, son of William and Clara Dymart, died at the home of the parents in Bellwood Friday afternoon of diphtheria. He was aged 2 years and 10 months. The remains were interred in the Logan Valley cemetery.
The Patton Water Company.
Bills for water rent, for the first quarter of 1894, are due January 1st, 1894. Attention of consumers is called to the following portions of the Rules and Regulations of the Patton Water Co.: "If not paid within ten days, after they fall due, five per cent will be added to the bills, and if not paid within thirty days, after they are due, the water company may shut the water off without further notice, and collect the full amount as debts are now recoverable by law."
"In case the water is turned off by an agent of the company for any cause, it will not be turned on again till all back charges and fifty cents additional are paid."
