PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 25, 1894.

A Watchword for the New Year.

When you find a certain lack
In the stiffness in your back
At a threatened nerve attack
Just the hour
That you need your every power,
Look a bit
For a thought to be in it.
Just recall that every knave,
Every coward, can be brave
Till the time
That his courage should be prime—
Then 'tis dead.
Keep your head
What a folly 'tis to lose it
Just the time you want to use it!

When the ghost of some old shirk
Comes to plague you, and to lurk
In your study of your work,
Here's a bit
Like enough will settle it.
Knowledge is a worthy prize;
Whose enemies
Ourselves never.
Everybody would be wise
As his neighbor,
Were it not they who labor
For the trophy crown, creep, creep,
While the others late of sleep,
And the sun comes up some day
To behold one on his way
That the goal
Which 'he soul
Of stoutness has desired,
But whose motto was—"I'm tired,"
When the task of keeping guard
Of your heart—
Keeping weary watch and ward
Of the past
You are called upon to play
Every day—
Is becoming dry and hard—
Conscience languid, virtue lifeless,
Good behavior growing worthless.
Think this thought:
Doubtless everybody could,
Doubtless everybody would,
Be superlatively good,
Were it not
That 'tis harder keeping straight
Than it is to deviate,
And to keep the way of right,
You must have the pluck to fight.
—Edmond V. Cook.

E. W. Reed came over from Coalport last Thursday.

Jas. Morgan, of Clearfield, was in Patton Monday.

Harry Mays, of Berwindsdale, visited Patton last week.

M. J. Horne, of Punxsutawney, spent Friday in Patton.

For fine boots and shoes go to the Patton Clothing Store.

I. S. Rively came over from Altoona Friday on business.

Ed. Renhinger, of Hastings, was in town last Thursday.

E. A. Rickford, registered at the Robison house Saturday.

Miss Minnie Collier spent Sunday at La Jose visiting friends.

Sam'l Kelley, of Chest Springs, was over to Patton Saturday.

Chas. Mitchell, of Mahaffey, was a guest at Hotel Beck Saturday.

Read the Philadelphia Times "ad" in another column of the COURIER.

Geo. Ivory and Jos. Benge, of Loretto, spent Tuesday in Patton.

W. J. Weakland, the groceryman, was in Pittsburgh last week on business.

Miss Lizzie A. Pullin, of Adison, Somerset county, Pa., visited in Patton on Saturday.

Grier Hill, the accomodating clerk at the Commercial, spent Sunday at his home in La Jose.

H. H. Schied, of DuBois, spent Thursday in Patton with his brother, Jack, the barber.

Mr. Hon. James Flynn, of Altoona, was in Patton Saturday looking after his saw mill interests.

R. L. George, of Gallitzin, and Wm. Keller, of Austin, Pa., registered at Hotel Beck last Friday.

Try Magic drops for pain, internal and external. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.-tf

Warren Shepherd assistant freight agent at the P. R. R. station, spent Sunday with his parents at Westover.

The COURIER representative has noticed quite a number of new board walks being put down since our last issue.

Bell, the hustling clothier, has a new advertisement in this issue which is of interest to all readers. Just see for yourself.

Dr. J. Harry McCormick took a business trip to Balsano, in the vicinity of the Black Lick coal region Friday and Saturday.

The family of Elmer Smale, arrived from Lock Haven Monday. Mr. Smale and family are stopping with F. W. Rodgers, Fifth avenue.

Nagle, the liveryman, erected a very attractive sign on Magee avenue and also had the front of his stable lettered with large, attractive letters.

A. M. Kirk, of Curwensville, spent last Friday in Patton, and of course visited the COURIER. His name was added to our subscription list.

John Weakland of Chest Springs, was in town on Saturday last, and made the COURIER a visit. Mr. Weakland expects to move to Patton in the spring.

We are under obligations to Mr. E. D. Curran, of Chest Springs, for courtesies extended to our solicitor when on a visit in that town last week.

The COURIER is grateful to the Times of Philadelphia for one of their valuable almanacs of 1894. For public and general information The Times almanac is on top.

Mrs. J. M. Robison, who has been on the sick list for several days, is, we are pleased to say, well again and as usual very busy getting ready to move in the new Palmer hotel.

Go to John Boyce's billiard parlor for a good cigar.-0t2

P. F. Brown, of Altoona, was a guest at the Commercial Monday.

The carpenters are putting in the banisters at the Good building.

Best flannel shirts in Patton for 90 cents, at the Patton Clothing Store.

Go to the Kinkhead restaurant and get a fine oyster stew. Oysters served in every style.-0t7

Wm. Askey and James Fulkrod, of Jersey Shore, were guests at the Robinson house Monday.

Quite a number of young people attended a dance and festival given at St. Augustine Saturday night.

Prof. G. E. Hipps and M. J. Cramer, both of Chest Springs, were callers at the COURIER on Saturday last.

Mahaffey is erecting an electric plant. Mr. E. B. Crosswell, of Ebensburg, has charge of the construction.

For coughs, colds and sore throat try Magic cough cure. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.-tf

F. N. Dunegan now has charge of the Patton laundry and has employed first-class, experienced workmen. Try him.

When you go to Hastings, stop at the Central hotel; it is a good place and Mr. Nicholson knows how to hospitably treat his guests.

A dance was given in the opera house Saturday evening for the benefit of the Patton orchestra, which was very poorly attended.

The Kinkhead restaurant is the best place in Patton to get a good lunch and a first-class meal. Everything kept to be found in a first-class eating house.-0t7

All the rooms in the Commercial hotel were occupied by guests on Monday night. Mr. Wilson, the proprietor, is well satisfied with the outlook for future business.

Wigton mines have started up and are working to their full capacity. Rittly's are shipping ten cars a day. The balance are still shut down, but are hoped to be started again soon.

Lock Haven was visited by quite an expensive fire last Sunday night, January 14th. The store of S. E. Finny with several others was consumed. The total loss is estimated at about $7,000.

Mrs. William Smeal, of Blue Ball, Clearfield county, died a few days ago from excessive bleeding of the nose. Every effort was made to stop the bleeding, but without success.—Clinton Democrat.

G. P. O'Leary is now ready to cater to the wants of his friends in the line of meat. His market is supplied with the best meats and it will be sold at living prices. Next door to T. F. Mellon's grocery.-8tf

Specimens of job printing done at this office will be shown patrons on application. Note heads, bill heads, statements, envelopes, handbills and all kinds of commercial printing done at reasonable prices. Send in your orders.

The contractors who were building a dwelling on the rear of the Good lot have about completed their work. The building faces Beach avenue, and will be occupied by a party from Indiana county who expect to run a boarding house.

The COURIER learns from the Reynoldsville Star that the tannery which was consumed by fire at that place about two months ago will positively be rebuilt soon. This is a very good news for the people of that enterprising town.

The Industrial Vindicator, published at Gallitzin, Pa., has again come to the front after a suspension of about two months. Brother Kilduff, the editor, has made resolutions to the effect that all business hereafter will be strictly cash. Right you are.

During the past few weeks the streets of Patton presented a very lively appearance, and very little complaining is done by our business men. This is what very few towns can boast of considering the stagnation of business all over the country.

A prominent member of the G. A. R., Andrew McLaughlin, died at Loretto January 17th., and was buried at that place last Friday. The deceased was second lieutenant of company G, 12th Pennsylvania cavalry, and served three years in the late war.

The Eureka Revere, next door to the Grey Hotel, Carrolltown, Pa. is open day and night. Turkey, Chicken, Hamburg steak, Broiled beefsteak, Roast Pheasant, Roast Rabbit, Hot coffee, tea, &c., &c., always on the bill of fare. Regular meals 25 cents. Side dishes, desserts and second order for meat, extra.-tf

The Hungarians who live in the vicinity of Ricker & Gould's machine works made "Rome how!" Saturday night. A dance was given by one of the residents of foreign birth which was kept up until early Sunday morning, not allowing the more law abiding citizens within hearing, to partake of their needed rest. One party whose passion was aroused to some extent tried to drown the noise of the "merry dancers" by discharging a Winchester between acts, but had to give up in despair and wait until the "polinky" had worked off.

Phillip Lutringer, and J. A. Boney, of Ebensburg, were in town Monday.

Good overcoats for boys, nobby with cape, $1.50 at the Patton Clothing Store.

I have for sale several desirable lots in Patton, suitable for dwelling and business houses. The terms on which these lots will be sold are reasonable. For prices, terms, etc., call on or address E. A. MELLON, Patton, Pa.

We refer the readers of the COURIER to the card of G. E. Hipps, who will open a Normal School in Chest Springs. The Prof. comes highly recommended, and is a graduate from one of the best schools in the country. Write to him for terms if you have not already received his circular.

F. N. Dunegan has purchased the Patton laundry, which is located next door above Hotel Patton, and is now prepared to do all kinds of laundry work with neatness and dispatch. Orders can be left with Jack Schied, barber, opposite Hotel Beck, and with J. Feigh & Bro., barbers opposite the Good building.-0t4

A lot of hoodlums in Gallitzin, on Saturday night of last week smashed in all the windows in the basement of the new school house in that place. The directors have offered a reward of $100 for their apprehension and conviction and it is to be hoped they will be caught and made an example of.—Cambria Freeman.

H. J. Watson, the painter, expects to erect a building on the lot next to Hodgkin's drug store Fifth avenue soon. The building will be 30 by 40 feet, two stories and a large basement. The first floor will be used as a store room and the second for a dwelling. The basement will be occupied by a cigar manufacturing establishment.

C. M. Letts, the contractor, who has charge of the painting at the Palmer house has very nearly completed his job and the workmanship speaks for itself as being one of the very finest jobs done in the painting line the COURIER representative has seen for some time. Mr. Letts understands his business well.

Daniel F. McSweeney, a U. S. detective stationed at Pittsburg, was in town on Monday and Tuesday looking up evidence in the case of the counterfeiter, Platt, who had been passing spurious coin in this place several weeks since, and was subsequently arrested for the same crime in Punxsutawney. The evidence secured at the time of his arrest and since, is sufficiently strong to convict and send him to the penitentiary for a long term of years.

Notice of Election.

WHEREAS—The Borough of Patton being without adequate school buildings to accommodate and properly educate the children of said Borough and, WHEREAS, it is not possible to secure necessary school accommodations from present property valuations by taxation. Therefore be it

RESOLVED, 1st, That the School Board of Patton borrow a sum of money for building purposes, not to exceed $10,000, on bonds of said Borough bearing interest at the rate of 5 per cent per annum. Said bonds to be redeemable at option of said Borough after five years, and payable in 20 years from date of issue.

That this proposition be submitted to the electors of Patton Borough at their assent at the regular spring election, February 20, 1894.

Attest: J. B. NOONAN, President.

J. E. DALE, Secretary.

Notice A. M. Thomas' advertisement in another column of this paper.

H. J. Waltz, and M. J. Staltz, of Carrolltown, spent Monday in Patton.

Single copies of the COURIER can be purchased at this office for five cents apiece.

Geo. Logue and Lewis Goazon, of Hastings, called at the COURIER office Tuesday.

E. J. Severin, the harness maker, has a new advertisement in this issue of the COURIER.

John Martin, and Jas. Potts, of Punxsutawney, were guests of Lanlord Beck Tuesday.

A teacher's local institute will be held at the Mill school in Chest township on Saturday, January 27, 1894.

Mrs. John Ashcroft, who has been visiting relatives at Phillipsburg and Curwensville returned to her home in Patton Wednesday.

B. L. Sharbaugh and M. J. Hebe, of Carrolltown, were in Patton on Tuesday. The citizens of that industrious little place are organizing a fire company and these young men came to gain information regarding rules, regulations etc.

Readers of the COURIER will be pleased to learn that A. M. Thomas expects to open a first-class plumbing and hardware establishment on Magee avenue in the room now occupied by Wolf & Thompson. Thus Mr. Thomas joins the ranks of Patton's enterprising merchants and we extend to him a cordial welcome.

Mr. Samuel Kelly, who formerly owned the Hotel Beck, and Dr. Somerville, of Chest Springs, are erecting six frame houses just outside of the borough limits, on the Carrolltown road. Watson Spencer is doing the carpenter work.
