

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1906.

For fine boots and shoes go to the Patton Clothing Store.

Men's fine mackintoshes at the Patton Clothing Store.

S. M. Wilson put a new Barnes safe in his Commercial hotel office.

Have you called at the Kinkaid restaurant? If not, you want to.—27

Best flannel shirts in Patton for 90 cents, at the Patton Clothing Store.

Attend the firemen's ball at the opera house New Year's night for a nice time.

Examine Hoy's holiday presents. Prices away down. Engraving free.—412

Good overcoats for boys, nobby with cape, $1.50 at the Patton Clothing Store.

The firemen's ball on New Year's night will be the hop of the season in Patton.

A good serviceable glove at 50 cents, goat skin lined, at Bell's one price clothing store.

Storm coats $7.25, former price $9.50, at the closing out sale at the Economy store.—54f

Try Hoy on spectacles and watch repairing.—27

License court in Cambria county is held in February and the licenses take effect March 1st.

Don't miss the great closing out clothing sale at the Economy store, opposite Hotel Beck.—54f

The defunct Blairsville Reporter has been revived and rechristened The Times-Reporter.

J. E. Dale, the insurance and real estate man, ate his Christmas dinner at Maderia, Clearfield county.

At the Kinkaid restaurant you can get a very good meal or an excellent lunch for a nominal sum.—25f

This is your only chance to buy clothing cheap, at the Economy store. All clothing must be sold at once.—54f

Try Magic drops for pain, internal and external. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.—1f

I have a number of fine building lots for sale in different parts of the town. Inquire at postoffice, E. A. Mellon.

Geo. S. Good came up from Lock Haven, Tuesday, to assist in the opening of his new store in the Good building.

The Patton band disbanded and the instruments were returned. There is talk of reviving it after the first of the year.

Quite a number of the workmen in and around Patton have gone home on a visit to their families, to spend the holidays.

Wanted.—A practical blacksmith desires a location. Write to Alex S. Pyke, McCullough Mills, Juniata county, Pa.—614

Turkey thieves still infest Patton. Last Sunday night two birds were stolen from J. E. Dale and three from Postmaster Mellon.

Geo. W. Leitinger, one of the oldest residents of the northern part of the county, died on Tuesday of last week, at Chest Springs, aged 95 years.

Geo. O'Leary is putting up a building near Lingle's mines. Mr. O'Leary will use the building as a meat shop, and will be ready for business about the first of the year.

The mines about Patton are making fair time compared to the state of progress in industries generally. If the times were more prosperous there would be more work everywhere.

Centre county contractors get something to do in Cambria. The building of the new Presbyterian church at Cresmon has been let to Hoover, Hughes & Co., of Philipsburg.

Jack Scheid was the happy recipient of a very handsome handkerchief case and a beautiful silk muffler on Christmas. Jack refused to tell from whom he received them; his friends, however, have their own opinion.

T. H. Hasson, of The Freeman, E. J. Luther, of The Mountaineer, and G. H. Langstein, all of Ebensburg, were callers at the office of the Courier on Christmas. Gentlemen, we would be pleased to have you call again.

Several gentlemen from a distance were in town last week prospecting for a certain mineral. The intention of the parties is to put up a factory, providing the mineral alluded to above can be found in sufficient quantities.

Specimens of job printing done at this office will be shown in a room on application. Note heads, bill heads, statements, envelopes, handbills and all kinds of commercial printing done at reasonable prices. Send in your orders.

The only holiday event which is creating any special interest here is the firemen's ball which is to be held at the opera house New Year's night. The attendance promises to be the largest ever seen at a similar gathering in Patton.

A plot to kidnap little Ruth Cleveland, has been unearthed at Abilene, Kansas. Several letters written by a supposed crank, named Rock, were found. Five other people are implicated. Measures, to frustrate the designs of the rascals have been taken.

The Patton bank will be moved into its new room in the Good building the first of the year. The new quarters will have all of the conveniences for banking and fixtures of the most approved style. The fixtures were furnished by Wm. Schwarzwald & Co., of New York.

A. E. Patton, president of the First National Bank of Patton, and organizer of the Chest Creek Land and Improvement company, came up from Currensville the first of this week. Mr. Patton is a very busy man but manages to look closely after his extensive interests here.

T. W. Letts, who formerly lived at Penfield, Clearfield county, and who, until recently, for four years past, published the Carrolltown News, with Mr. Waltz, his son-in-law, has embarked in the restaurant business at Carrolltown. Mr. Waltz is associated with him in that enterprise also.

The Annie Mitchell company, which opened a week's engagement here Christmas night, is giving very good satisfaction and is playing to good houses, considering the size of the town. Not many towns of less than 3,000 inhabitants pay a dramatic company to make more than a one night stand.

The PATTON COURIER, the paper started at that new and booming Cambria county town, has been added to our exchange list. It is a six-column quarto, brim full of news, gotten up in a spicily manner and is a credit to the profession as well as town in which it is published.—Marion Center, Independent.

The Eureka Revere, next door to the Grey Hotel, Carrolltown, Pa. is open day and night. Turkey, Chicken, Hamburg steak, Broiled beefsteak, Roast Potatoes, Roast Rabbit, Hot coffee, tea &c., etc., always on the bill of fare. Regular meals 25 cents. Side dishes, deserts and second order for meat, extra.—1f

From now until New Year's we will cut the price on all our furnishings. We have a very large stock and intend to give the people the benefits of the holiday prices. Our chamber suites are beautiful and cheap. My patrons who are looking for presents for the holidays should come in now and make their selection. The goods you may select will be delivered to any part of town at any time you may choose. J. R. Cornelius, Magee avenue.—27

If you are looking for the finest bedroom suite in the country, for the money, we have them now. I sold two of them before I could unload the car. I am actually selling them for less money than they can be bought for in the factory at present. We would be pleased to have every home keeper come and take a look at them. If you want one now, buy quick as they cannot possibly last long. J. R. Cornelius, Magee avenue.—27

The latest exchange coming to our desk is the Patton COURIER. It is a little beauty typographically, is edited by a master hand and is liberally patronized by the home merchants. There is not any question as to the future prosperity of our sprightly little contemporary, because the hustling Gray Bros., of the DuBois Courier are at the helm. May its light grow brighter and the town rapidly increase in population and wealth through its influence.—Huntsdale Advance.

The Annie Mitchell company will produce "Tress or Beyond the Rockies," a new border drama, never before presented here or in the vicinity—first season to-night and Saturday evening "Emeralda" will be produced, a melo-drama in four acts. At the Saturday evening entertainment each lady holding a reserved seat coupon will be given a souvenir. Matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30. Admission 10 and 20 cents to all parts of the house. Every child will receive a present.

D. H. Lovell, superintendent of the Cambria and Clearfield division of the P. R. R., addressed a letter to Councilman Brown, in which he states that the company would be pleased to comply to the request of the borough council to lay a walk from the station to Magee avenue, and from Magee avenue to Fourth street. Providing the borough would do the grading on Magee avenue which the council promised to do. It is gratifying to note the prompt and courteous answer to Mr. Brown's letter to the above named official of a powerful corporation.

Sweet & DeCoursey's combination was greeted by a good sized house on Thursday evening last. Both the first and second parts were irresistibly funny. Mr. Arthur Deming being a host in himself. The singing, with one or two exceptions, was much above the average. The dancing of the girls was well it tickled the bald-heads very much. The only objectionable feature in the whole show was the dropping of several parts. This was severely criticized by some. It should not be tolerated by the local manager, who should see that his contracts embody a clause imposing a fine on all shows that persist in cutting short the performance. The show going people should not be deprived of that which they pay for. However, taking the show as a whole, it was very good, and gave general satisfaction.
