A Telephone Call.
He called his wife up by the phone. His words were most inspiring: "Dear, see if on my desk upstairs I left some papers lying. 'I'll go at once,' responded she. Her voice o'er all the clearness. 'And see you know if they are there—just wait a moment, dearest.' She went away—he held the line. And stood there—calmly waited: The minutes passed—no message—Again the call he stated—'What do there was no message. And his impatience growing. He tore his hair and raved around. His anger overflowing. He rang, he rang, he wildly stormed To central to his madness. When in the door his wife appeared. Her features beaming brightly. 'Dear, I forgot to answer you,' She said, seeing the flurry. 'Here are the things. How do I look? I dressed in such a hurry!'" —Josephine Vos.

Not a car of coal was shipped over the P. and N. W. R. R. Tuesday, a thing that has not happened before in the history of the road.—Bituminous Record.
Phillipsburg citizens have awakened to the necessity of a board of trade in that prosperous place. An organization of that kind was effected there last week.

A. H. Swope, who has been teaching the Strittmatter School for the past winter will leave next Monday for Lock Haven where he expects to attend the State Normal.
A new fire company was organized at Curwensville lately known as the Rescue Hose and Ladder Co. No. 2. The new company will be composed of boys between the ages of thirteen and sixteen years.

The Curwensville Review says: "Hon. John Patton returned home Tuesday evening from Clifton Springs. He will return in a few days and from there he, with Mrs. Patton, will go to Philadelphia the next home."
Persons elected to the office of Justice of the Peace at the recent election must notify the Prothonotary in writing, within thirty days after the election, of their willingness to accept the office; otherwise commissions will not be issued to them.

Last week, according to the Pittsburgh Times, there were 8,000 unemployed laborers for whom subsistence was being provided. According to the estimate, the total number receiving support from the relief committee will reach 40,000 in that city alone.
Robert Yeager, of DuBois, was a visitor in Patton the latter part of last week. Mr. Yeager is a property holder of Patton and expects, very soon, to erect a large business block. Mr. Yeager is a shrewd business man and Patton can well feel proud of gaining his future business relations.

The Dublin Dan Comedy showed at the Patton opera house Tuesday night. It was not as well patronized as shows generally are here, owing no doubt, to the scarcity of loose cash. The entertainment was a good one and should they chance to come to Patton again they may expect a full house.
It was stated in last week's issue of the COURIER that S. P. Kirkpatrick, of this place was contemplating locating in Hastings. Since then he has purchased the hotel property of Wm. Townsend there and took charge of the same the first of this week. Mr. Kirkpatrick will make a first-class landlord.

Robert Haines, of Snow Shoe, dropped dead on the streets of that place on Saturday. He was a well-known Republican politician, and formerly resided at Kithaus, in this county, where his son now resides. He was a visitor to Clearfield Jan. 3rd and 4th last.—Clearfield Raftsmen's Journal.

It is reported that Clearfield has a dude who crimps his hair, and who has sported his girl all winter on borrowed capital. Patton dudes are not "in it."

Joseph Farabaugh having decided to close his photograph gallery at Carrolltown in May and remove elsewhere for the summer, all persons wishing pictures taken are invited to call without delay.
The streets of Patton presented a very lively appearance Monday afternoon and evening. The remark was made several times that it was like the old time Patton of last summer. The reason for the "activity" was free beer given out by new licensed houses and also by the old ones. Every body seemed to enjoy the treat whether they drank or not.

ST. AUGUSTINE, Pa., March 19, 1894.
The entertainment in the hall on Saturday evening was a success both socially and financially.

The Catholic church at this place is almost completed and is a credit to the congregation, as well as to the contractor, Mr. Auman, and Mr. Valentine, who done the woodwork.
Mr. Simon P. Nagle opened up the St. Augustine Hotel to-day, and all who patronize him will be sure to be treated well.

Tom Swires paid our quiet little town a visit last Saturday night and with a knife and club commenced to "paint the town red" by cutting Mr. Thos. Valentine on the head. But as Mr. Valentine did not appreciate such work he turned the tables and Swires got whipped so that he will keep in doors for a week at any rate, for which Mr. Valentine deserves the thanks of all who witnessed the affair.

Your correspondent is still stopping at the Arlington house and will stay a few days longer as he finds it a first-class place. Mr. Harber and his estimable wife make every person who stop with them at home.
Fatty Stroup, (Ed. Waters), has not been here since the bears treed him on the fence stake with the bucket of cider, and Joe has got to going home by himself without the young man and his sister as escorts.

In their New Church.
The Rev. Wason will preach in the new Methodist church on Palmer avenue at 10:30 A. M. Sunday next, Easter. The Union Sunday School will also meet hereafter, beginning with next Sunday in the church instead of the Patton hall as heretofore, at the usual hour, 2:30 P. M. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend these services.

A Correction.
In the card of appreciation and thanks made by Rev. W. Wason in last week's issue a mistake occurred which read "refused as your pastor," and should have been "returned as your pastor."

Swedish Lutheran Services.
There will be Swedish Lutheran Services in the Sunday school room Wednesday, March 28th at 7:30 o'clock P. M. All are cordially invited to attend.
