

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1894.

Local Time Table.

The hours of arrival and departure of trains at the Patton Station are as follows:

Table with 3 columns: Train No., Arrival, and Mail Class. Includes entries for 7:00 AM, 8:00 AM, and 3:00 PM.

Postoffice hours from 7 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Trains marked "N" are northbound and "S" southbound.

Notice.

Water rent for the second quarter of 1894 will be due April 1st. Five per cent. additional will be added to unpaid bills after April 15th, 1894. The collector of the Patton Water Company will call on its patrons the first week in April. PATTON WATER CO.

A Boy's Mother.

My mother she's so good to me. If I was good as I could be I couldn't be so good. No, dir. Can't any boy be good as her!

Soda Water at Hodgkins.

Try the COURIER for job work. E. C. Brown spent Sunday in the east. A. J. Hoff, of Pittsburg, was in town Monday. John Royce drove over to Houtstade Sunday. Go to Keller's for Bread, Cakes and Pies.—Haf. Harri Done came over from Hastings Sunday. Geo. Dwers, of Spangier, spent Saturday in Patton. Get yourself a bicycle at Hodgkins, Fifth avenue. T. Graham, of Warren, O., was in town Monday. Chas. Milson, of Millvale, N. Y. was in town Friday. John Royce is stopping at Briabin for a few weeks. F. H. Goong, of Olanta, was a visitor to Patton Sunday. Fine Soda water is rare. Try Hodgkins, the druggist. Peter O'Neal, of Ridgway, Pa., was in town last week. Sylvester Miller, came over from Spangier last week. A. R. McDollen, of Funzantown, was in Patton Saturday. Carrolltown will hold its regular county fair this summer. John Bremen, of Pittsburg, was in town on business Saturday. H. F. Bots, wife and daughter, are stopping at the Palmer house. D. C. Rice came over from Hastings Tuesday and visited among friends. Mrs. Fred A. Hodgkins, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting at C. W. Hodgkins. Buy the celebrated Crescent wagon, for sale by A. C. Winslow, Patton, Pa. H. C. Smith, of Washington, D. C., was a guest at the Palmer house Monday. The Bellewood Bulletin issued a very neat colored Easter supplement last week. P. Delva, of Orbisonia, Pa., visited in town Saturday, and was a guest at Hotel Beck. Rev. Wasson, the M. E. minister at Hastings is suffering from a serious attack of pneumonia. J. H. Brocken, a contractor and builder of Gallatin, Pa., was in Patton Thursday of last week. E. M. Robinson, the architect and builder of Altoona, was in Patton the first of the week on business. H. J. Watson, the painter, was called to Reynoldsville Saturday owing to the serious illness of his father. J. J. Palmer, representing a printing house at Black Lick, Pa., was a caller at the COURIER office last week. Try Magic drops for pain, internal and external. Guaranteed by C. W. Hodgkins, druggist, Patton, Pa.—H. J. S. Foley, editor of the Carrolltown News, made Patton a visit Thursday and stopped at the Commercial hotel. Curt Richards, the lumberman, is at Bower, Pa., on business. He will remain there for a period of about two weeks. C. W. McCormick, general agent for the German National building and loan association, was a caller at the COURIER office Friday. The COURIER subscription list is steadily increasing. Bring in your dollar and get the best paper in Cambria county. Everybody reads it.

Buy the Crescent wagon.

R. L. Goff was at Ebensburg Tuesday on business. Jas. Harfield, of Altoona, was in town Sunday. Go to the new millinery store in the Good building. W. J. Overdorf, came up from Johnstown, Saturday. P. E. Jones, was down from Unionville, Pa., Saturday. Try Kelly for tobacco, cigars and confectionery.—144. J. C. Gies, of Philadelphia, spent Saturday in Patton. A. C. Nelson, of Altoona, was a guest at Hotel Beck Friday. J. H. Brocken, of Gallatin, spent last Thursday in town. Dr. Belcher, and son Lewis, came up from Munson Saturday. A cold day for Easter and the spring bonnets were not "in it." Leonard G. Grimes, of Funzantown, spent Thursday in Patton. Orlando Press, of Sharpburg, Pa., was seen on our streets Saturday. D. F. Kilgore, of Pittsburg, was a guest at the Palmer house Friday. Thermometer 100 degrees, Soda 22 degrees, price 5 cents at Hodgkins. H. J. McAniff, of Carrolltown, was a guest at the Palmer house Thursday. Dr. Somerville and Sam'l Kelley came down from Chest Springs Monday. Take notice of the advertisement of the Philadelphia Record in another column. Rob't McCracken and Miss Mahie Strass, of Kerrmor, were in Patton Sunday. The Pennsylvania railroad officials passed through Patton in a special car Saturday. Tony Snyder, a traveling salesman, of Pittsburg, spent Monday and Tuesday in Patton. Look out for the grand opening of the new millinery store in the Good building to-day. An apple tree in the yard of Geo. M. Briabin is in full bloom.—Orsolia Leader-Courier. Rev. Chas. W. Wasson has been re-appointed the Methodist Episcopal minister at Hastings. R. C. Kaufman, a Commercial traveler, of Altoona, was a guest at the Commercial hotel Friday. Jake Truby, proprietor of the White house at Gansam, Pa., visited among friends in Patton this week. Mabel C. Snyder, who lives at Du-Bois, visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. C. Snyder, of Fourth avenue, last week. This week the COURIER publishes the auditors' settlement of accounts of Chest Springs borough. It will be found in another column. Miss Alice A. Ashcroft, proprietor of the new millinery store in the Good building has a fine line of goods on hand. Go and see. The Crescent wagon is one of the best wagons for farming and general use in the market. For sale by A. C. Winslow, Patton, Pa. Two filthy looking foreigners with a large cinnamon bear amused the boys and girls of Patton Thursday. The bear is quite an athlete. T. W. Lests, of Carrolltown, has purchased the John D. Jones property on Magee avenue, two doors west of John Yabner's hardware store. John Rishel, of Westover, was a pleasant visitor to Patton last week. Mr. Rishel has many friends here who are glad to see him when he comes. See the fine line of millinery of all kinds at the new millinery store in the Good building. Miss Alice A. Ashcroft, the proprietress, is always glad to see you. Mr. L. S. Bell, the clothier, of Patton, accompanied by Mr. Hill, were in town several hours Tuesday on business, and while here made this office a pleasant visit.—Hastings Tribune. Harvey Patterson, the insurance man of Patton, was in town between trains Saturday. He came within a few votes of being the mayor of Patton.—Clearfield Public Spirit. The old Presbyterian parsonage at Ebensburg has been sold to Mr. Geo. L. Fredericks, of that place. The congregation have purchased another lot and will soon begin the erection of a new manse. The Cambria Iron Company's pay in Johnstown on Saturday amounted to between $50,000 and $60,000, being for two weeks work. Recent pays have only run from $20,000 to $30,000, showing an improvement in work. The Cambria Herald says: "The past few days a horse buyer visited this place and vicinity and purchased seven good horses for the sum of $200. They were sent to Johnstown on Tuesday and from that place they were shipped east." The Berwind White Coal Mining Co., of Clearfield county has received some nice orders for coal, amounting to something over a half million tons. There are prospects of the coal business brightening up in Clearfield county with a good summer's work ahead.—Coal Trade Journal.

E. L. Clark, of Dallas, registered at Hotel Beck Thursday.

Dr. Murry, of Mahaffey, was in Patton a few hours Monday. J. C. Dumont, of Phillipsburg, was in town on business Friday. A. W. Lyda, of Johnstown, was a visitor to Patton Saturday. E. R. Snyder, of Orsolia, was among the many visitors to Patton Saturday. Lewis Jones, of Mahaffey, was circulating among friends in Patton Tuesday. A. M. Brann, a traveling salesman of Philadelphia, stopped at the Palmer house Monday. R. F. McGee and W. P. Bostly, of Le Jon, were guests at the Commercial hotel Thursday. Jos. B. Wimer, E. Stok, C. A. Sharbaugh and Albert Plick, all of Carrolltown, were visitors to Patton last week. The Kinkoad restaurant is the best place in Patton to get a good lunch and a first-class meal. Everything kept to be found in a first-class eating house.—64. Joseph Parabaugh having decided to close his photograph gallery at Carrolltown in May and remove elsewhere for the summer, all persons wishing pictures taken are invited to call without delay.—162. Warren, the painter has just completed two very attractive signs for Keller & Co. to be placed in front of their store on Magee avenue. These signs certainly show good taste and fine workmanship. A. Lewis and E. A. Lewis, opticians of Philadelphia, were stopping at the Commercial hotel Monday and Tuesday. They left here for Carrolltown and Hastings and expect to return to Patton about the first of July. H. C. Smith manager of western Pennsylvania for the Washington National building and loan association, of Washington D. C. is in town and has about completed arrangements for a local branch of the association here. John S. Nagle, an old and respected citizen of Bear township, and a veteran of the late war, died at his home in that township on Tuesday, March 13th, aged about 55 years. He leaves a widow, three daughters and one son to survive him.—Cambria Freeman. H. D. Leland, representative of the Loveland axe manufactory, of Lamar, Pa., was in town the fore part of this week. The Loveland axe has an enviable reputation among the woodmen of these interior counties, and they are the best judges. See the bicycle advertisement in another column of the COURIER. C. W. Hodgkins is the general agent for the Columbia, Hickory and Hartford bicycles and he will give you all particulars about the same. If you are contemplating buying see him. Considerable attention is attracted to the show window of L. S. Bell's store on Fifth avenue by the appearance of an oil painting valued at $100. It represents "Diana the Huntress" and is a fine piece of work. In the other window is a beautifully arranged display of shoes. Bids for New School Building. Proposals will be received up until Monday noon, April 16th, for erecting a brick school building in the borough of Patton, Pa., from plans of Robinson & Snyder, Architects. Copies of which may be seen at either of their offices in the Dressal Building, Philadelphia, Pa., or the Nicholson Building, Altoona, Pa., or at the office of Dale & Patterson, Patton, Pa. The Directors reserve the right to reject any or all bids. Bids in duplicate, 1st, incorporating the Smead, Wills system of Heating and Ventilating, and 2nd, incorporating a semi-direct steam system must be addressed to the Architects and sent to the Secretary of the school district, Patton, Pa. Bond in an equal amount to the bid of the successful bidder will be exacted. Jesse E. Dale Sec. School Board, Patton, Pa. 1813. The Father and His Boy. Don't be a hypocrite before your boy, writes Robert J. Burdette in the first paper of the series "Before He is Twenty" in the April Ladies' Home Journal. When he believes you to be infallible don't encourage the belief. Take him into your life as you desire to be taken into his. Don't tell him that when you were a boy you were never cross to your little sister, never disobeyed your teacher, never cruel to dumb animals, and always kept the Golden Rule. Be honest with him above all things. Don't be too dignified with him. The more he loves you, the more he plays with you and the less he fears you, the more profoundly will he respect you. pity the man, who, in order to secure and retain proper respect from his children, has to wear at all times an uncomfortable veneer of artificial dignity. Notice. For all kinds of Painting, Paper Hanging and Sign Writing, go to A. C. Fisher. None but first-class material used. Satisfaction guaranteed. Patton, Pa.

WARREN, CONTRACTING PAINTER,

15 years experience. Best work guaranteed, lowest Prices. He paints, Houses, Signs, Carriages, Frescoes, Calomines and Hangs Paper, etc. Landscape, Grecian and Ornamental Painting Taught. Advertising a Specialty. Drop a card to Box 232, 18-6mo PATTON, PA. A. G. Diehl, PRACTICAL BLACKSMITH, Magee Avenue, Across Chest Creek. HORSE SHOEING. A specialty. Prices are moderate. All work done with neatness and dispatch. Call and See Me, A. G. DIEHL, Patton, Pa.

Adamant Plaster

Gives a first-class wall a moderate expense. Is the best fire-resisting plaster. Always ready for use in any season. Does not hold gases or disease germs. Is the par excellence for patching. Can be papered as soon as dry. Is recommended by all the leading Architects who have used it in this country and England. Will give you a solid wall. Of itself will not crack, swell or shrink. Will not cleave off when used as directed, even in case of leakage. Will give you a warm house. Does not ruin woodwork by loading it with moisture. Admits of carpenters following plasterers in a few days. Is capable of every variety of finish. Used on the Palmer House, Good Building, Hotel Beck, Hotel Patton, C. C. L. & I. Co. office, Patton Opera house, M. E. church, and on more than one-half of the plastered houses and store rooms of Patton. Also the Catholic Church St. Augustin. For prices and information, write ADAMANT PLASTER CO., Patton, Pa., Lock Box 364.

NEW Millinery Store,

Just opened. I have just returned from the city with an elegant and complete stock of SPRING MILLINERY, NOTIONS and Ladies Furnishings, and will occupy one of the rooms up stairs in the Good Building. Call and see me. Prices moderate. ALICE A. ASACROFT.

THE PALMER HOUSE,

J. M. Robinson, Prop'r. Located on the corner of Magee and Fifth avenues, in the central and business part of the town, only one minute's walk from the railroad station. Rates, $2.00 per day. A Modern Hotel, heated by steam—entirely new—sample rooms—livery in connection—first-class in every respect—headquarters for Commercial men. Good Bar in connection.

For Fine Custom-Made CLOTHING,

Call on C. BRANDON, The Merchant Tailor, Glass Restaurant, Near Opera House, Patton, Pa.

SUITS & OVERCOATS

When PRICES are made to suit the times. Good - Fit - Guaranteed. Mr. Brandon has had several years' experience at Redfern's in New York, London and Paris and is prepared to make all kinds of

Ladies Garments

In the Latest Styles. A large line of pattern for ladies coats to select from.

THE WILSON BILL PASSED,

But do not pass our plac of Business for we have something very nice to offer you in the way of OIL PAINTINGS. We will GIVE AWAY with every cash purchase of $30 worth of goods a fine Oil Painting 28 x 34 inches. The frame is of Moulding about six inches deep. The pattern and design is a new style and very effective. We are the leaders in every thing kept in a first-class store. We handle a full line of DRY GOODS, GROCERIES AND GENERAL MERCHANDISE. All are invited to stop in and ascertain all particulars about our wonderful offer. WE HAVE BARGAINS. PATTON SUPPLY CO., Agent for Palace Laundry Patton, Pa.

A GROCER WITH ANY SAND

Will not put it in his sugar, but rather into business principles. In groceries we are careful what we buy. Try us! A HORSE SHOE DENOTES GOOD LUCK. Buy your BOOTS and SHOES from us and be in luck. Dry Goods Are a specialty with us. Try us in any of the above. We have the stock.

DRY RUN STORE CO. General Merchandise, Corner Magee and Fifth Avenues. PATTON, PA.