THE TEMPLE OF HATHOR.

One of the Ancient Buildings of Egypt and An Automatic Electric System Which Has Renarkable Contrast In the Recent Utter-Very Well Preserved. Been Tested In Germany.

SIGNALS FROM MOVING TRAINS.

on the Nile and after an early breakfast during last year would appear to have French and one English, have told us role on donkeys about three miles to acted as a stimulus to inventors in the recently what they think of the tendenrode on donkeys about three miles to acted as a stimulus to inventors in the famous temple of Hathor, the Egyp-tian Aphrodito, at Denderah. This tem-ple was built just before the Christian era by one of the Ptelemies, and the porch works of these, which is regard-was added by Tiberius. Though built been patented within the last few months. One of these, which is regard-by Streek and Remain emperors, it is been pacentally tested on some of the second test of a provide at the beat and the prospects of the times and the prospects of the future. The Frenchman, M. Berthe-lot, is so visionary in some of his ideas that they seem to be absurd. The Eng-been pacentally worthy of attention, has been pacentally tested on some of the second test and the prospects of the times and the prospects of the future. The Frenchman, M. Berthe-lot, is so visionary in some of his ideas that they seem to be absurd. The Eng-been pacentally worthy of attention, has been pacentally tested on some of the second test and the prospects of the times and the prospects of the future. The Frenchman, M. Berthe-lot, is so visionary in some of his ideas that they seem to be absurd. The Eng-lishman, Professor Huxley, is so coneter and 40 test, high, the capitals pre-senting colored flathor on four sides. Every foct of the surface, outside from the rear of a train is also notified.

consists of four central chambers and some 20 others, each of which had its use. The faces on nearly all the figures in fact, the system seems to have pro-insects. There will be no passion to own have been mutilated by iconoclastic Mo- vided effectively against all ordinary land; beasts need not be bred for slaughhammedans or Christians. On the ex- contingencies, and its employment should ter; men will be milder and more moral. terior of the wall in the rear, among greatly reduce the risks of railway trav. The reign of chemistry will beautify the. other figures are Cleopatra and her son el. The German government experts planet, and there will be no need to dis-Casarion, whose father was Julius speak highly of the apparatus in their figure it with the works of the agricul-Casar. This representation of the fa- official report. mons Egyptian queen, though contempo- Among other experiments a train en- chiganeys. It will recover its verdure, rancons, scarcely justifies the tradition tering a station was warned of an ob- and the flora of the earth will be a vast tyris are mainly of brick, baked and -Pittsburg Dispatch. unbaked. The temples are of limestone. Some of the stones forming the roof are 24 feet long and 6 feet wide: side are traces of color which must have greatly added to the beanty. At Den-came to Luxor. -Boston Herald. A Little Surprise.

There was a great crowd in a railway provided at the expense of the club and might otherwise have. - New York Sun. station, from which a train was about should remain in plain view of the refto depart, and all at once a man who eree as long as they were competing for had put his hand in his undercoat the prize, no contestant being allowed pocket to take out his pocketbook and to take food, drink or medicine during A Remarkable Young Man Who Is Securing the match. pay his fare exclaimeds

I've been robbed! Some villain has The prize was to be given to the con-book, sir?" inquired a bystander.

We steamed two hours one morning The frequency of railway accidents Two eminent men of science, one

BERTHELOT AND HUXLEY

ances of These Eminent Men.

essentially Egyptian in architecture and military lines in Germany. The system servative that he is accused of extreme decoration, and as it was the first of is automatic and is actuated by electric pessimism. Berthelot discussed the futhe great temples that we had seen we ity. The circuits are so contrived that ture triumphs of chemistry under the were very much impressed. It stands on two trains traveling on the same metals, subject of "The World In the Year the borders of the desert, and the very whether in the same or opposite direc- 2000." He declares that chemistry will dant plain, surrounded by the ruins of tion, are warned of each other's position furnish deliverance from the social evilsan old town, the debris of which, to by the ringing of a bell on each locomo of the present day. This will be accomgetHer with the blowing sands, rise sev-eral fect above its foundations. The drivers (engineers) are brought into tel-the sun and the central heat of the temple is very well preserved. Its porch. ephonic communication. The same thing earth. The latter will be obtained by the latest part, is a noble hall, support- occurs if one of the trains be stationary, shafts two miles deep, and modern caed by 24 columns about 8 feet in diam- so that if there is any breakdown on the gineers are equal to this task. Chemical and in, is covered with sculpture, which, both to the driver and to the station food can be made from carbon taken ; though of the period of decadence, is which the train has last passed through, from carbonic acid, hydrogen taken still striking because of the amount of and the distances at which all these from water and nitrogen taken from air. it. The work vegetables have so far done

The main temple behind the porch varied in such a manner as to provide science will soon be able to do better, turist or with the grime of factories and of her beauty. Near by is a small tem-ple of Isis, and another which seems to proaching each other on the same track will live in peace and plenty. have had some connection with the tem- were warned; two trains proceeding in Professor Huxley furnishes a sober fro ple of Hathor. The town of Tentyris the same direction, the second at great- contrast to this talk by the danger he stood here. The Tentyrites hated the er speed than the first, were enabled to sees in the present social tendencies. crocediles which the people of neighbor- give each other automatic notice of His speech the other evening was in ing Ombos worshiped, and a religious their respective speed and position, and protest against the proposed unification war of great fury was carried on be- a train which was entering a station re- of London. He had the greatest respect tween the two places. If there must be ceived warning that points were in a for what is called the great heart of the religious wars, they may as well be over wrong position. In every case notice people, but had no great respect for what crocodiles as over dogmas which nobody was given in ample time to prevent dan- is called the great head of the peopleknows the truth of. The ruins of Ten- ger and to render a collision impossible. He imagined that in all things intellec tuality required guidance, and that universal suffrage was not the way to get THE SMOKING CHAMPIONSHIP. at this guidance. The tendency of all democracies, however great and good The whole construction is massive. In- Herr Knopf of Berlin Ready to Meet All they might be, was to believe in the Comers For 500 Cigars a Side. doctrine of human equality. It was a A smoking match was given recently them toward the Arabian side as we prize was a solid silver cigar case and existence of the corporation of London 200 cigars. The entrance fee was $1, was one of the conditions by which that and the conditions were that the con-testants should smoke only the cigars doctrine might be prevented from ac-quiring the great domination which it to be breezy.—Paris Exchange

A BLIND STUDENT.

an Education at Harvard.

ecently made some experiments on () Although completely blind, Everett taken my pocketbock with over £100 testant who smoked down to one inch chauncy Bumpus of Quincy, Mass, is butts the largest number of cigars in now a member of the freshman class of erson of a man named Lartado, a naive of Trinidad. T. Status seemingly s a wender. He appeals to he utterly "Where did you carry your pocket-sok, sir?" inquired a bystander. "In my undercoat pocket, behind." two hours. There were 17 entries. "Herr Knopf, who smoked without pause from start to finish, was declared the row start to finish. Was declared blivious to the sensations of heat an cold, and, in fact, experiences no feel "In my undercoat pocket, behind." pause from start to finish, was declared "Then, siz, you can scarcely blame winner. He reduced 10 large cigars to e individual who has taken it," re-ashes in the allotted time, while his been totally blind since he was 6 years

MOURNED AS DEAD A Tilt Between an Artist and a Baroness

A Missing Man Returns While His Wife Is Attending His Funeral.

ACATER AND

Everybody remembers the portraitun-Machay and turn, has taken place in the identifica-tion of the body found in the caual at painter Meissens z bates still more noit affair is libely to be brough Bridgeport April 9, and the consequent $1,700,000, by far the largest amount of preparation of the body for interment insurance carried by any American, and, with one or two exceptions, probably the by Mrs. Kate Kurz as that of her hus- largest amount carried by anybody in the band, Fritz Kurz.

Well, this hely has a nose, but it set not for a memorial be supposed that is like correcton people's noses. Not a in the archiver the crushdes and r break even. In a word, it is a al note our excellence. Of cour aly is very propd of this nose, and where all the trouble comes from Mackey, slie went to a lead to get her portrait painted as closed at a high figur several sittings and at to have the picture a tyle and sent to her

A WOMAN'S NOSE.

Which Promises a Good Brecze.

tig opistle:

the artist has not yet com-

aced legal proceedings, but the frame-

FEELS NO PAIN.

Treatment That Would Kill Another.

has, and the masal trial promise

asautness between M:

believe the telegram The walnut casket containing the body was halted in its journey to the hearsy. Every effort had been made to ward giving Mrs. Kurz's husband wor-Mr. Wanamaker's example in taking all agia it wasn't "If] ward giving Mrs. Kurz's husband worthrought it wasn't. "If I for that," she yelled, "I'd i into the Saine!" Then "My Husband," a "Gates Ajar" two wrote to the artist the 'My Husband,' a 'Gates Ajar' two several life companies. Hamilton Dissten feet high, and a wreath bearing the in- carries $600,000; F W Ayer, $250,000;

d posever look at my nose d for a moment that it man was in waiting at the Montgomery Clyde, the steamship man, $200,000; hat you put in this per- cemetery chapel to pronounce the funeral Thorsas T. England, $250,000; G. G. After a hurried consultation the undertaker went to Philadelphia. At Mr. Davis' house, with whom the Kurzes Leve now. It board, sat Fritz Kurz. He was just rehis effervencent the covering his composure from the exciteartist at first becau ment and consternation his appearance ver, he took a pas had caused to a few female neighbors sketched a lot who were awaiting his wife's return and forms, including from the funeral. He then related to the Roman nosed, Rox-lat undertaker his first knowledge of his on noses, parrot poses, wife's errand, when, ppon entering his , while needs, thin poses, this home, he saw the strange occurcuts of and short noses, flat nosethe house fleeing in termin at his appearand B. Sur, a noses with rings in them Then he wrote to the baroness this test and the startling rescales, "At Nor-ristown attending y ar fameral." Kura Ta noses with rings in then at I mistock year more at I mistock year in scalesolately want at acy, will you have informed the undert her that he was in New York working at his trade, but owing to a disagreement with the boss from the inclosed of

came home. y put it on, and the di The undertaker durried home and informed the small band of mourners of the montance of my very high c the situation -Norristown Special in the ling the above the barone Philadelphia Press Ga recovering she burned th

INVENTORS BARRED OUT.

Only Flying Machines That Have Been Perfected Will Be Patented.

CON 172.27. We hear a great deal from time to A Man Who Undergoes Without a Sign of his own or through the intervention Three reputable physicians of Mobil chines beforehand, and the following is circular letter sent out to all attorneys who have made application for flying must be allowed, and while the defendant's

Quite a sensation, if not a mysterious A Number of Wealthy Pennsylvania Men Who Carry Enormous Policies. John Wanamaker's life is insured for work. The premiums on this enormous Mrs Kurz, who lives in Philadelphia, sum amount to $90,000 annually, which of fully identified the body as that of her litself would be pretty good line of insur-husband, describing its personal pecul- ance for the ordinary mortal. A great deal iarities and marks before being permit. of Mr. Wanamaker's insurance is increasiarities and marks before being permit-ted to see it. She at once ordered an undertaker to take charge of the body Mrs Kurz, attired in deep mournang, with three women, came here on Fri-lay. The funeral was about starting Mr Wanzmaker is insured in every rep-from the morrise when a telegram utable Abserican company for an amount signed "Waldrick" was received by the coroner stating Mr. Kurz is at Mrs. maximum amount which each company Davis' house alive. Mrs. Davis was one will write on a single life. In addition he of the two attending Mrs. Kurz in her the vibility the vibility of the second s bereavement. The latter could hardly that on the occasion of the shrewd Philadelphian's birthday anniversaries the com be insurance that money can buy appears below been infectious in Philadelphia. which, like New York city, is the home of scription, "At Rest." Rev. J. H. Nei- George C. Boldt, $232,000; William P.

HEAVY LIFE INSURANCE.

> $285,000; George Harding, $200,-Herstman brothers, $250,000; Daniel K. Millerand D. K. Mills, $270,000 John B. Stetson, $750,000; J. F. off. $260,000, and so on through a arest lines of in wares are also to be d in western Pennsylvania. The com-es would have had to pay $310,000 to Frick's beirs if the assassin who atd hira had subseeded in his work, cherry, who field at Mayville, Pa., light ago, one of the great oil opera-tis insured for $200,000. The re-lide Chris Mages corries $375,000, John M. Patterson is insured for M. Armstrong, J. E. Schwartze W. D. Wood, all'of Pittsburg, reaches 0.000 - New York Times.

An Important Point. In a New England courtroom one after noon in late spring there was a scene of great excitement. A witness had testified he saw the defendant splittin up 'a few hours before the

the accident for which the defendant was What did he say he was going to do with the rails" asked the counsel, fixing the wandering eye of the witness with his

Before the wittiess could answer the detime in regard to new inventions which fendant's counsel was on his feet, insisting are coming out for the purpose of en that the question was not allowable. A abling a man to fly, either from efforts prolonged wrangle ensued. Various high othorities for and against the admis of steam engines or other motors. It is of the question were consulted and quoted. interesting to note the attitude which log to the other and gave vent to several Meanwhile the witness shifted from one the United States patent office has taken in regard to such inventions. They prac-inutter dust ' itwas fearful hot, ' but aside tically destroy all claims for flying ma- from that he made no remarks. As the controversy raged higher and higher some an abstract from what is practically a thing resembling a smile passed across his sir, upon theft, by carrying your money profusely when the referee called in such a place. Now, I always carry "Time." -London Tit-Bits.

The late Lord Hannen, the distinguished English judge, was known as a by the removed intention of the Coal- ly all the appliances made especially for very stern and strict ruler of his court. | masters' association to introduce coal the blind, except his typewriter. He de-No man ever dared to take a liberty cutting machinery on a large scale. The pends almost entirely upon having his with him, and he was never known to men regard the scheme with great sus- exercises read to him. His course is in be hoaxed but on one occasion A jury- picion, fearing its effects will be to re- Latin, French, English, Italian, Greek man, dressed in deep mourning, serious duce wages and decrease the number of and German-what may be termed a and downenst in expression, stood up and claimed exemption from service on their beloved pick, as their forefathers a view to becoming a journalist. Later that day, as he was deeply interested in need it, and work in the way they are on in the course he will give his atlenthe funeral of a gentleman at which it accestomed to, even though it be, as re- tion to history, philosophy and political was his desire to be present. "Oh, cer- formers say, a constrained and unnatural economy. - New York Herald.

tainly!" was the courteous reply of the method. Inventors say that the British judge, and the sad man went. "My coalmasters as well as the colliers are ord," interposed the clerk as soon as difficult to convert in this matter. Coal A girl baby 2 weeks old was found a the sad man had gone, "do you know cutting machines are being sent to all few nights ago on locomotive 148, pullwho that man is that you exempted?" "He is an undertaker."-De- mand exceeds the ability to supply it, Haute, Ind. The baby was snugly packed troit Free Press.

The Smallest Motor.

Mr. Herbert Page, an assistant in the pared with the hand pick. The latest neatly folded up, were two dresses of physical laboratory in the Central high machines combine compressed air and fine material, a nicely embroidered flanschool, has constructed an electric motor electrical principles, and each cuts one nel skirt, besides a bottle of milk and a which is probably the smallest in the yard per minute in medium hard coal. bottle of paregoric. A tramp who was world. It weighs but one-third of an -Newcastle Letter. ounce. It is of the drum armature type

Billingsgate Market.

and is complete in all the parts. The armature is but three-sixteenths of an inch in diameter, and the motor is only away. It seems that owing to the heavy but who disappeared just before the half an inch high. The machine runs at corporation tolls the trade of Billings- train started. The tramp avers that he places. The hunt on the 5th and 6th the velocity of 5,000 revolutions a min- gate is passing to Shadwell, where the subsequently examined the basket, and last January at Buckeberg was very a ute. It requires a current of one-fourth | rents are only half those charged by the | ascertaining its contents pulled off his of an ampere, with a pressure of three corporation and there are no tolls. The coat and covered it over. The little waif volts. The motor would make an appro- tolls of Billingsgate amount to about is well and will be cared for.-Effingpriate watch charm - Kansas City $25,000 per annum. The rental charged hanr (Ills.) Dispatch. for stails at Billingsgate used to be about

Not a Minstrel Show. "What kind of an entertainment was it you attended last night?" Sinagg-I don't just know. "Well, what did they do?" Sinagg-On, sang and danced and Standard played banjos and mandolins and bones

"It was a minstrel show?" Suagg-Not much, it wasn't. "How do you know?" Snagg-Because they told several new jokes. -- Chicago Inter Ocean. A Real Reward. "Well, Johnny, your father gives you a quarter a week, ch?" Yes, for not eating candy. He says it's bad for me." "No doubt. Now, what do you buy with your quarter?" "Candy."-Brooklyn Eagle.

plied the other in a pompous, self satis- closest competitor smoked but 71/2. At old. He was deprived of his sight by fied, patronizing manner, and in a voice the end of the first hour 10 smokers re- spinal meningitis. There is hardly a of warning intended for the cars of all tired from the match and left the room. within hearing. "Yes, you offer, if 1 None of them returned. Of the seven class than this member who has to demay say so, a temptation, a premium. others three were pale and perspiring pend almost entirely upon remembering what is read to him and by dictating to others to work his way through the Knopf felt well and professed his wil- course. my money here," he exclaimed, putting Knopf felt well and professed his wil-his hand into an inside breast pocket of linguess to begin at once another two Before he entered Harvard all of the his coat, "and there it is always"- hour match, but his challenge found no blind student's textbooks were special-"safe." he would have said, but he snd- takers. He says that he is ready to ly prepared for him on the Braille sysdenly drew out his hand as if it had smoke against anybody in Berlin for 500 ten, instead of the older plan of raised been bitten by an adder and cried, cigars a side, the length of the contest letters. It is much more convenient to "Why, my pocketbook has gone too!" to be fixed by mutual consent between read, and it can be read much quicker. 11/2 and 5 hours - Berlin Tagblatt The typewriter, too, on which he does most of his writing is made expressly with reference to this system.

Coal Catting Machinery. British miners are just now disturbed He has given up now, however, near-

Baby's Ride on a Locomotive.

parts of the world, and the foreign de- ing train 11 into this city from Terre but very few are in use in this country, into a willow basket and was on the although they reduce the cost of getting forward end of the running board of the coal from 1 to 3 shillings a ton com- locomotive scenrely tied, and with it, found on the engine says the basket was placed on the locomotive in Terre Hante by a fellow whom he took in the

The glory of Billingsgate is fading dark to be an unfortunate like himself,

A Boy's $500 Copybook.

2 cents a foot; now then are 16 cents, and the tenants complain of being crush-The express agent at Ogdensburg lost ed and driven out of the market. It is a book of money orders that had been said the corporation has spent $500,000 signed by the officers of the company, on a cellar under the market, which is All that it required was to fill out the nothing but a white elephant -London amount, and they would be honored at any bank. For a time consternation Built a Tomb For Suicide. A rich foreigner who settled in Mar- that a small boy was seen with a book seilles a few years ago had made elabo- similar to the one lost, and on going to this season instead of keeping their ow rate preparations for dying by his own his school desk the order book was Nevertheless the season is expected to hand whenever he decided that the mo- found, the boy having used it to work be exceptionally brilliant. Several great ment had come. He built a vault, which examples on. It was worth $500. --Uti- nobles who for various rensons have for could be hermetically sealed, in a cor- ca Press.

ner of his garden, furnished with a re-London's New Underground Road. clining chair, two large candelabra and light. He entered the vault frequently, addition to the underground railroad take this year upon a large scale. Promtwo pans filled with charcoal, ready to hght. He entered the valit frequently, addition to the inderground rainout inent among these is the Duke of Dev-but not until a fortnight ago did he close system. A line is to run north from onshire, who is spending thousands of the door and light the charcoal. He was Charing Cross to Euston and Hampfound dead in the chair.—Marsailles found dead in the chair.—Marsailles and west line, to cost $20,000,000 and west line, to cost $20,000,000. Correspondent.

agony. He is 24 years s 5 feet 7 faches in height, weighs 1

> His father was a Spaniard and h other an, English woman. The ma n through his neck down to and gra g the trachea a piece of steel w e-eighth of an inch in diamoter, which a most powerful galvanic hat pt to another, without any percel. n, but with considerable acceler pulse. Elo passed another large s into lais mouth and through beek in all directions, and no blo inwest. Another large wire was passed through ad through the large muscles of of of the leg and between the bies rasele, in line with the bracial arter t through the arm above the wr.

tween the two lones of the arm, her like experiments in different p f the body, all of which with seen y no pain and no bleeding frein ce but a drop from the neck. In fact ch of the openings made by the instru ment closed up as bloodless and as e ly as if the man was constructed of dia rubber. The physicians present lared that it was the most wonder exhibition of freedom from all pain th ad ever witnessed. The man ne ached during any of the experimen de the instruments were jabbed in m with no more consideratio he had been a watermelon .- New Orleans Times-Democrat.

The Kaiser's Hanting Trophies.

A collection of 74 pairs of antlers bea, ing to the German emperor has been placed in the arsenal in Berlin. These ophies were gained by the erapero aring a few days this year and last in he woods of Buckeberg and ot cessful. The strength, endurance accuracy of aim of the emperor, wh enabled him to kill so many stags in a omparatively short time, have been de scribed as admirable by a Berlin correspondent. The antlers, from those of to one of 16 points, are displayed o tablets covered with green cloth and are pilgrimages by Moslem inhabitants of students.

English Aristocracy

It is said that a large number of the reigned. A search was instituted, but it English aristocracy, badly hit by the was of no avail. Finally it was learned prevailing agricultural depression, have arranged to hire horses and carriage years past kept the doors of their London mansions closed or only half open London will soon have an extensive ed, so to speak, have decided to enter-machine patents. It reads as follows: "On taking up this case for examina- in his chair and mopped his forehead the counsel, exhausted with rage, leaned back "On taking up this case for the invention dis-tion is is found that the invention dis-the invention dis-"What did the defendant say he was go of practical operation, since without the ing to do with those rails?" assistance of gas, field or equivalent "Nawthin," drawled the witness.

the device will be incapable of ascen-sion. In other words, it is not useful train when I seehim. An naow, if it ain't within the meaning of the law. "No evidence will be considered suffi-for my legs is about gin cout." Amid uppoarious merrinicat his request cient to demonstrate the operativeness was granted -Youth's Companion of the device and warrant the with-

Distikes of Authors. drawal of the objection made by the office except a working model-that is, one It is a curious thing how those who with which it is possible to actually ascend and direct the course of flight at noms do plume develop an aversion to then as time goes on. Edward Bellamy, will." This it is practically useless for any inventor to make an application for a patent until he has actually succeeded Brot Harte than to refer to him as the auin flying. It it barely possible that such ther of "The Heathen Chinee." Will Carlea stand as this in regard to certain in-ventices would not be amiss, as there associate "Over the Hills to the Poor-best plose of work. E. P. Roe never could

Gastronomic Geometry.

the shades and shadows cast by a certain are more impracticable ideas patented than the world at large have any idea of While it may be considered as a than the world' at large mark any any of "Little Lord Fauntieroy in her pres-of. While it may be considered as a hardship by flying machine inventors "Vagabondie," with which so few, in that they are debarred from the protec-that they are debarred from the protect tion of the patent office, yet until they mous jevenile story, have any knowledge. have actually produced something which | Charles Heber Clarke has a strong averwill accomplish the results claimed sion to any association of his once famous new de plume of "Max Adler" with his the claim of protection on the patent mamie. Charles G. Leland's ire is aroused when office -- Aeronautics.

one speaks of "Hans Breitmann" as his One of the Entombed Miners Elected.

understand why people bought 'Opening Tom Picton was buried hundreds of feet in the ground in the Gaylord mine, feet in the ground in the Gaylord mine, and he was on the ticket for school di. Eugene Field feels that he has written 50 and he was on the ticket for school di-rector. Knowing almost to a certainty Blue." John Hay's feelings are hurt when that there was no chance of his being found alive, no one ventured to suggest chairman at a literary supper recently, as that another name be substituted on the the author of "Little Breeches."-London ticket. Every vote was recorded in his Tit-Bits. favor, and with a pathetic touch of human nature one of his neighbors said after the result was announced, "If he In the Massachusetts Institute of Techgets out alive, the office is his, and if nology the students of architecture have the poor fellow is dead we have respect- to solve some very abstruse problems in ed his memory."-Wilkesharre Daily descriptive and analytical geometry in connection with architectural forms, and

News-Dealer.

Consumption Heroics.

Paris Letter

To Stop the Pilgrimage. The French anthorities have begun to Exert strong pressure to stop the annual ring at the bottom of a column called the forus, and the angles and intersections made by supposititious sections of this ring are exceedingly perplexing to new a pleasant sight to sportsmen.—London News. ——London News. ——London ——London ——London — Meeca. It recently came out that it is the custom on board cholera infected the custom on board cholera infected for knowing about these densarial the first pilarian steamers returning from Mecca to burn the balles of the victims of the "Oh, it is case enough," said the young disease in the furnaces because it is for- lady. "All you have to do is to consider successfully removed. - New York Times. York ways and every way, and I've made my self sick at the stomach, and I can't understand that problem any better than I did tefore!"-Youth's Companion.

and so, and you will see what the sections > The young man went away reflectively, tion has, it is stated by a medical air thority, long been a dream of European surgeons. It is now announced that as a beginning of a series of experiments the "Oh, Miss H.," the young man gasped. "I've eaten a whole dozen of doughnuts. tion has, it is stated by a medical an- pale and miserable. diseased apex of the lung of a patient and I've eaten a whole down in oblique and transsuffering from tuberculosis has been verse sections, and up and down and cross

