The Brakeman's Appeal.

In the pleasant summer weather, standing on the car top high, He can view the changing landscape, As he rushes swiftly by.

Daily facing death and danger, One step or slip of hand, Sends some poor unucky brakeman To the dreaded unknown land.

Lively Patton. Pay your subscription. Attend the Carrolltown fair. Drink Hodgkin's soda water.

Street fights are becoming numerous in Patton. Fried chicken at the Kinked Restaurant. Attorney Somerville is attending court this week.

For a nice cool drink try Hodgkin's pure soda water. Jas. S. Blair, came over from Barreboro, on Sunday. Eli Flick, of Tyrone, was a guest at Hotel Beck Sunday.

Soda at Hodgkin's drug store. For fruits go to Kinked's. Lerch the tailor, Mahaffey, Pa. Advertise in the Patton COURIER. Try Marvin's bread at Weakland's.

Council did not convene on Tuesday night. Bargains at Ashcroft's millinery store. The best bread is sold at Weakland's.

Go to Sam'l Boyce for flour, feed, hay and all kinds of grass seeds. For flour, feed, hay, etc., go to Sam'l Boyce. Read Bell's new "ad" in another column of the COURIER.

Eureka and Tropic Etna ranges for sale by John Zahner. See the cut of the Palmer house on the first page of the COURIER. Forest fires have been raging south of Patton during the past week.

If you want a good tailor-made suit go to S. C. Lerch, Mahaffey, Pa. Jay Palmer, of Pittsburg, was a guest at the Palmer house Monday. T. E. Wartelesky, a merchant of Hastings, spent Monday in Patton.

Tony Snyder, of Pittsburg, registered at the Commercial hotel last week. Alice A. Ashcroft is the leading milliner of this section. Go and see her. C. W. Gould, of Somerset, registered at the Palmer house the first of the week.

Ashcroft's millinery store. W. McKinney Smith, the principal of the Patton schools spent Wednesday in town. He rode from Howard, Pa., to this place on his bicycle. Quite a number of young folks of St. Lawrence drove over to this place for an outing Saturday evening.

Philip Dietrick, V. J. Stolz and Louis Eiler, three prominent and prosperous citizens of Carrolltown, were in town circulating among friends Tuesday. Prof. A. F. Weakland, well-known in this end of the county, has just been elected principal of the Wilmore schools for the coming term.

Farmers should read the column in another part of the COURIER headed "Farming Notes," which will appear in every issue of this paper hereafter. Always look for it. Calvin Blair, 23 years old, a resident of Jersey Shore, and a brakeman on the Beach Creek railroad, fell off a running freight train on last week and was instantly killed.

J. S. Clark, of Glen Campbell, Misses Winifred and Emma Patchen, of Patchenville, Miss Barrett, of Camden, N. J. and Miss Bonine, of Altoona, visited in Patton on Tuesday. Mrs. L. L. Brown and daughter, Elizabeth of Hastings, and Mrs. Frederick Snare, and her two daughters, Elsie and Jeanette, visited Mr. E. C. Brown Friday and Saturday.

The COURIER wishes to express thanks to the Cambria county Agricultural association for a complimentary ticket to the Carrolltown fair, commencing September 26th. N. Stirman left on Tuesday for the city to buy a new line of dry goods, clothing, boots and shoes.

The Neapolitan, trio, composed of the following named gentlemen made some very fine music in Patton one day last week on a harp and two violins: G. Cella, P. Buongiorno and E. Bove. On Tuesday night a damaging wreck occurred at the Delta mines on the Susquehanna extension of the Cambria and Chesson railroad but the COURIER did not learn the particulars concerning it.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Boynton, of Clearfield, visited their niece Reuben McPherson over Sunday. Mr. Boynton is one of the oldest lumbermen of Clearfield county. He is up in the eighties now and appears hale and hearty. Several departments of the Milton car works resumed work Wednesday, giving employment to about 300 men.

The next fair at Carrolltown will be held on September 26th, 27th and 28th, on the handsome grounds of the Association at that place. Extensive preparations are now being made for the fair, and every attraction possible will be secured, and the management expects to have one of the best fairs in the history of the association.

The deal by which the Brock mines are to pass into the hands of the Shawmut coal company is still pending. It was given out that Shawmut was to take charge the first of August, but a hitch delayed the transfer. Another report was affixed during the week that the deal was closed up on Monday, but inquiry failed to verify the report. The Brock has made poor time lately.

LORETTA. LORETTA, Pa., Sept. 5, 1904. The summer season, this year, at Loretta has been prolific of visitors. Our town has been aglow with sight-seeing folks and tourists, coming and going. The public who have the time and inclination to go abroad seeking health and recreation, find an elevated mountain town, a most desirable resort for the purpose.

A. J. Spigelmire and wife, of Bradock, and their two children are guests at the Hotel Highland. We are sorry to note that a sore foot compels Mr. Spigelmire to hobble about on crutches. Mrs. W. W. McAteer took Mrs. Spigelmire out driving to Wildwood on Sunday evening. The pleasure of the outing was enhanced by the speed of the hambletonian, mare which Mrs. Mc. takes pride in speeding when the occasion presents.

The collection on Sunday for the church's winter coal supply netted Father Kittell $125 or more. Dr. Murphy went to Ashville to visit his patients and while there took in the picnic of Father Rosensteel. The public school season opened on Monday with about eighty pupils. Professor Bitts is back again as principal and Miss Tillie Bradley teaches in the primary department for the first time. Miss Lizzie Sweeney has gone to Scottsdale to teach school, and she will be missed by pupils and people as her charm of manner and accomplishments made her a favorite and welcome at the residence.

This week we are reminded that our beautiful summer is fast disappearing in the lap of autumn. The many visitors that have made the past pleasant, like swallows, are homeward flying. Miss Jacobs still lingers here as the guest of Mrs. Litzinger. Miss Annie Fitzpatrick and her little sister, who have been the guests of Miss Mary Shields, have returned to their home in Philadelphia. Charles M. Schwab and wife, of Homestead, visited the former's father, John Schwab, Saturday and Sunday. On Monday morning quite a pleasant party accompanied Mr. Schwab on a trip to Carrolltown, returning to Cresson in the evening. Peter Schwab paid our town a visit as the guest of his brother, the postmaster.

Otto Reinhart, an employee in the office of the Carnegie Steel Works at Homestead, and his mother, who have been the guests of Mr. John Schwab, continue their presence among us. Miss Mary Schwab started on Tuesday morning for the conservatory of music, Boston, Mass., where she will continue her musical studies. The Loretta Harvest Home Picnic will take place on Saturday, September 15, and all respectable people are cordially invited to attend. What Caused The Hard Times. Judge Hubbard, of Iowa, says it is the existence of private corporations. George Gould says it is the hostility to corporations. The farmer says it is the low price of wheat. The silver man says it is the action of Wall street. The consumer says it is the tariff. The debtor says it is the creditor. The creditor says it is the debtor. The Democrats say it is the Republicans. The Republicans say it is the Democrats. The Populists say it is both. The Prohibitionists say it is whiskey. The preachers say it is the devil. Now, what do you say?—Ex.
