PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors. THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 1904.

NEWSPAPER LAW DECISIONS. 1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.

Local Time Table. The hours of arrival and departure of trains at the Patton Station are as follows:

Train No. Arrives. Mail Closes. 7:00 A. M. 7:02 A. M.

Riley's Cure Cure. Riley's charm for the cure of corns is a receipt well worth knowing, and it is perhaps interesting too, as a bit of Hoosier folk-lore.

Winter is creeping on. Warren, the painter. Ashcroft's millinery store. Holiday Goods at Hodgkins.

What has become of your last summer's wages? Eried chicken at the Kinkead Restaurant.

The winners ought to have a big time in Patton. Ross' cough medicine will cure the croup on children.

An excellent cooking stove for sale cheap. Inquire at this office. Fall styles in ladies Hats at Alice A. Ashcroft's millinery store.

R. L. George and wife, of Gallitain, registered at Hotel Beck Friday. Go to Letts for the best flour in town for the price, Guaranteed.

Buy your election Hats from Bell, The Hatter. All the latest styles. O. Manley, of this place made a business trip to Williamsport last week.

Go to Sam'l Boyce for flour, feed, hay and all kinds of grass seeds. Joseph Stolger, of Pittsburg, was a guest at the Commercial hotel Friday.

E. T. Gould, of Reading, Pa., registered at the Commercial hotel Saturday. The low prices of fine mixed and stick candies at Letts's will surprise you.

Oysters served in every style at the Arlington restaurant, also a fine line of confectionery on hand. Fisher's slaughter house, Johnstown, was destroyed by fire last Saturday night. Loss $9,000; insurance $5,000.

Glen Campbell is a borough now, and has a full quota of officers. All the newly elected officers are Republicans but one. Those who have never seen "Ten Nights in a Bar Room" should make it a point to do so at Havings opera house soon.

The first coal train from the Blacklick passed through Ebensburg on Monday, October 29. It was loaded at Vintondale and went to eastern markets. E. S. Gray, of DuBois, who is connected with the Courier at that place and is setting up the cigars over the arrival at his home of a young editor.

The Philadelphia & Pittsburg Railroad engineers are again located at Glen Campbell, Indiana county. They are reported to be doing some fine work, in order to run their line over the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, and it is thought active work will begin there and at Mahaffey in the early part of January.—Johnstown Tribune.

The Johnstown Democrat says that William Wiseman and Harry Cuthbert of the Tenth ward had quite an experience last week in hunting on the Laurel Hill mountains. When near Belano they suddenly came upon a wildcat, which was killed with great difficulty. The animal measured over three feet in length. The gentlemen are very proud of their skill as hunters and will have the skin stuffed in remembrance of their powers.

How does election suit you? Lerch the tailor, Mahaffey, Pa. Childhoods happy school days. For fruits go to Kinkead's.

It is reported that the election went all one way. Oysters for sale at the Arlington restaurant. G. K. Haller, of Altoona, stopped at Hotel Beck Friday.

Every business should have one of Warren's signs. Why don't you cure that cough by taking Ross' cough medicine. John Deitrick, of Johnstown, was a guest at Hotel Beck Saturday.

A. Zolner, of Bellefonte, was a guest at the Palmer house Saturday. Halloween passed off very quietly in Patton. No mischief was done. Buy your election Hats from Bell, The Hatter. All the latest styles.

R. E. Cresswell, of Johnstown, registered at the Palmer house Friday. The largest line of Toys and Holiday goods at Hodgkins drug store. Everett Beeks, of Granville, O., stopped at the Commercial hotel Saturday.

Considerable local news is crowded out of the COURIER this week by election returns. When in Ebensburg, stop at the Blair House for a good meal, good lodging or good accommodation.

The Republicans of Patton held another political meeting in the opera house on last Saturday. McKinney Smith, principal of the Patton public schools, is visiting at his home at Howard, Pa., this week.

Ed. James, the popular druggist of Ebensburg, was in Patton Monday and made the COURIER a very pleasant call. It is not only amusing, but a grand sight to see the little boys and girls marching out of the school building in single file.

Mrs. A. M. Kirk has been on the sick list for some time, but is now getting better. Master Fred is also confined to the house with a severe cold.—Curtainsville Review.

The drillers at the oil and gas well near Karthaus had reached a depth of 560 feet Saturday noon. Drilling operations had been suspended several days owing to running casing to a greater depth.

The editor of an exchange in saying that the windows of the church ought to be washed, left the letter "n" out of the word windows and every widow in the town has since gone for the editor.

On last Wednesday, while George Bloom, of Richland township, was working at his barn, the wind blew a large door down. In falling it struck Lewis, his six-year-old son, fracturing his left leg near the hip joint.

As the COURIER has stated before, Friday, November 18, will be the great day for Cherrytree, it being the day that the monument marking the boundary line of Gov. William Penn's purchase from the Indians will be unveiled.

The citizens of Cherrytree are working with a great interest to have the postoffice address at that place changed from "Grant" to "Cherrytree." The COURIER joins in this great move and hope their efforts will be crowned with success.

The Coalport Standard says: "R. F. Gallaher & Co. have opened a Racket store at Patton. October 29th was opening day. The store is managed by J. S. Gallaher, of this place. We wish R. F. Gallaher & Co. success in their new venture. They know how to conduct a Racket store."

A special car came over the Beech Creek railroad last Wednesday which had aboard the following people: Supt. A. G. Palmer and son, of Jersey Shore; Mrs. Watson Gill and Miss Lizzie Gill, of Syracuse, N. Y., and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Patton, of Curtainsville. They took dinner at the Palmer house.

Dr. F. G. Sloan and Miss Virginia Blum, of Carrolltown, were united in marriage at St. Benedict's Roman Catholic Church, at Carrolltown, at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. Rev. Father Pryor, of the Order of St. Benedict, officiating. Their Attendants were Mr. James B. Eek, of Carrolltown, and Miss Theresa Rosendale, of Baltimore.

Some time on Saturday night burglars entered the Blair hotel in this place, kept by Mr. L. A. Craver, and, finding their way to a lodger's room, stole about $60. The lower is one of the bricklayers engaged by Saly & Lucas on the new Methodist church. Entrance was effected through a rear window of the hotel.—Ebensburg Mountaineer.

The Carrolltown news says on last Monday morning the license of the St. Lawrence hotel was transferred to Martin Schroth, son of the late Lawrence Schroth. This has always been one of the most strictly run hotels in our county, and as the new proprietor is a young man of sterling qualities, there is no doubt but that its future will be as prosperous as the past.

See the fine line of dolls at C. W. Hodgkins drug store. A fine lot of grass seed for sale by Sam'l Boyce.

A HAPPY WEDDING.

That of Aaron Weakland and Miss Mary Smith, both of Patton. A pleasant social event which took place on Monday, November 5th, was the marriage of Mr. Aaron Weakland and Miss Mary Smith, of Patton.

The nuptials were solemnized in St. Benedict's Catholic church, Carrolltown, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends of the contracting parties, the Rev. Father Marcellus officiating. The attendants were Mr. Walter Weakland, of Patton, brother of the groom, and Miss Ida Shettig of Ebensburg, an intimate friend of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal cortege, accompanied by relatives, repaired to the home of the groom's father where an elegant banquet was served in honor of the happy occasion. The hours were pleasantly whiled away until evening when friends of the bridal party to the number of 100 had been bidden to a grand wedding ball in the Patton opera house, beginning at 8 o'clock.

All were on the tiptoe of expectation and at the hour named the guests began to arrive in large numbers, showing congratulatory upon the happy couple who graciously received them. Mr. Weakland could not have planned a more novel or pleasant manner of entertainment and in the anticipation of a truly delightful event none were disappointed. Dancing continued until 12 o'clock, when bidding their host and hostess adieu, the guests repaired to their homes conscious of having spent a most enjoyable time.

The wedding presents were numerous and handsome, and included many substantial reminders that intermingling with the hours of happiness is a life time of realities. The COURIER extends congratulations.

A CREDIT TO GLENFIELD.

The Clearfield Silver Cornet Band Does Itself Honors. Upon the occasion of the Democratic mass meeting held in Patton on Friday night the services of the Clearfield Cornet band were brought into requisition to dispense music to the large number who had congregated to hear the speaking.

The band boys arrived on the 3:30 train via the Beech Brook R. R. and upon their arrival surprised the public by music far in excess of anything ever before heard in this vicinity. They are sixteen in number: Messrs. H. P. Bridge, Frank Leopold, John Mollihan, T. T. Patchell, Geo. Gulich, J. T. Shillenn, C. A. Gulich, D. E. Stine, John Smith, John Barret, Geo. Thurston, Lawrence Dale, Alfred Mitchell, J. F. Morgan, Wm. Morgan and Thomas Mollihan, under the able and efficient leadership of Mr. H. A. Bridge.

We cannot consider adequately the manifold success as a musician of each individual member but that they each take the same earnest and sincere interest in becoming artists in this line was quite manifest, upon their first visit in Patton. Their fine appearance and gentlemanly conduct elicited much favorable comment.

During the time which intervened before their departure Saturday on the 3:30 train via the Penn'a. R. R. they gave several concerts on Fifth and Magee avenues after which they were plied by their old friend A. J. Jackson to the homes of former residents of Clearfield whom they serenaded in their best manner, the COURIER office and Burgess Donnelly being included in their round. To all whom they serenaded they presented charming little souvenir cards bearing the inscription of the "Clearfield Band," and which will be prized by the recipients.

BAPTIST CHURCH ORGANIZED.

Thursday evening after delivering a very excellent sermon in the Good hall, Rev. R. C. Morgan, of Johnstown, completed the organization of the Baptist congregation in this place. The church starts with twenty-four members, five of whom were baptized in the creek Thursday afternoon. The day was a delightful one and quite a large crowd assembled on the banks of the stream to witness the ceremony, the first of the kind ever observed in our town. The young church will hold their services in the Good hall, where Rev. Morgan will address them every Thursday evening, until they can build a church on their lot on Magee avenue that the Chest Creek Land & Improvement company has kindly presented to them.
