Not Guilty.

In Clearfield court last week the case of commonwealth versus Patrick Vail, Thomas Blato, James Galbreath, Henry Walker, James Swainberry, Samuel Patterson, James Patterson, charged with conspiracy, riot and the burning of the Conditale tippie, was tried here before Judge Gordon last week and ended Saturday in a verdict of not guilty. This case grew out of a big coal strike. The tippie at the Conditale mines, near Occocois, was burned on July 19 to prevent the mine from being worked by non-union men. There were over 50 men arrested for the crime immediately after the burning, but the magistrate held only the seven above named. Attorneys Murray and Smith and W. L. Shaw defended the miners. Hon. D. L. Krebs, District Attorney Bell and S. V. Wilson conducted the prosecution.

J. Emmet Lucas, of Johnstown, spent a few hours in town on Monday.
Aaron Weakland, of Patton, was a visitor to Ebensburg on Thursday.
The new M. E. church on Julian street will be dedicated some time next month.
J. G. C. Bearer, of Spangler, and H. Kirk, of Carrolltown, registered at the Blair house Monday.

Michael Donovan and wife, of the East ward, are both critically ill with but little hope for their recovery.
J. H. Glasgow, one of the leading business men of Fallen Timber, this county, spent a few hours in town Tuesday.

J. A. Shoemaker has the contract for erecting the power house and five dwelling houses for Contractor McFadden at the Twin Rocks.

On Thursday Mr. James A. Siger, the popular section boss on the Blacklick railroad, moved his family from Ebensburg to Beulah.

Mr. A. McKee, of Altoona, formerly editor of the Cambria Freeman of this place, has secured a position in the government printing office at Washington. His many friends here extend congratulations.

C. A. Shurbangh, Carrolltown's leading clothier, who keeps the largest stock of clothing in the county, paid Ebensburg a visit on Tuesday.
Ex-Sheriff John A. Blair is having stone quarried and is making preparations for erecting a handsome brick dwelling house in Ebensburg next spring.

It is rumored that the P. R. R. company will erect a new station at this place early in the spring. The increasing business makes it a necessity for the erection of a larger building, the old one being too small to accommodate the increasing traffic.
