

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, JANUARY 10, 1895.

NEWSPAPER LAW DECISIONS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them uncollected for a prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

Local Time Table.

Who doth your modest "ape" annoy
By calling you his papa's boy?
And says: "He smiles—it is a boy?"
The editor.

Who, when you get a brand new wife
Tells folks that you are free from strife,
And wishes you a happy life?
The editor.

Who tells about it when you're sick
To Jim and Harry, Tom and Dick,
And hopes that you'll recover quick?
The editor.

Who, when at last you come to die,
Of your good qualities will lie,
And transport you beyond the sky?
The editor.

Who is a bad financial wreck,
Of trouble has almost a peck,
And always gets it in the neck?

Dr. S. W. Worell now enjoys the comforts of a good winter. He has had his lively little horse, Skip, brought to this place from Clearfield where it has been in the care of his father, and has purchased a brand new sleigh to match the animal. The doctor's representative wishes to thank the doctor for a very pleasant sleigh ride, the first of the season, behind his well-named Skip.

With the new year, work in the Cambria company and Johnson company mills has been resumed. The former has under way plans for increasing its manufactured products. The Johnson company is crowded with orders, so much so that the contemplated moving of the rail mill to Lorain, O., cannot be made without loss, and will be postponed several months.

RESOLUTIONS

Of Condolence on the Death of William McKinney Smith.

WHEREAS, In His infinite wisdom, our Heavenly Father has seen fit to remove from us by death, our beloved friend and fellow teacher, William McKinney Smith, therefore in view of the loss sustained by his relatives and friends, be it

RESOLVED, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, we deplore the loss of our friend with deep feelings of regret softened only by the confederate hope that his spirit is with those who having fought the good fight here, are enjoying perfect happiness in a better world.

RESOLVED, That we tender to his afflicted relative our sincere condolence in the time of affliction at the loss of one who leaves a shadow that will be deeply felt by all his friends.

RESOLVED, That a copy of these resolutions be printed in the Clearfield Monitor, Howard Hornet, and Patton COURIER, and a copy transmitted to the bereaved of the deceased.
