She had little of earthly beauty: She had less of earthly lore; She climbed by a path so narrow, Euch wearisome burdens bore! And she came with heart a trembling To the warden at heaven's door.

And said, "There were bearts of heroes She said: "There were hands of might.

I had only my little children.

That call to me day and night.

I could only scothe their sorrows,

Their childish hearts make light."

And she bowed her head in sijence, Vaen, out from a blaze of glory,
A form majestic came,
And sweeter than all heaven's music,
Lo, some one called her name!
