On her other birthdays the czar had been wont to place a bouquet in the morning room of the empress. Inside the flowers was always folded some rich rare gift, chosen months beforehand.

The empress had avoided the room as too full of painful memories, but this morning, the morning of his wedding day, Nicholas requested his mother to go there as a favor to him. The first thing she saw was the bouquet in the usual place, and inside the flowers was a case fastened and sealed by the czar's own hands. It contained the bracelet He had ordered it on the same day that the empress saw it, and on his deathbed had given instructions for the birthday gift, bidding his son to be near to com-

Revival of the Curfew Bell. There is to be a revival of the curfew in Canada, and if it prove successful in the cities and towns of that Dominion, it is not unlikely that it may be used in some parts of the United States, writes John Gilmer Speed, in The Ladies' Home Journal. The law which has been enacted by the legislatures of Quebec and Ontario was drafted by the Society For the Protection of Women and Children and provides that the municipal councils in cities, towns and incorporated villages shall have power to pass bylaws for the regulation of the time after which children shall not be in the streets at night without proper guardianship. The law also provides that these councils shall cause a bell to be rung at or near the time appointed, as a warning, to be called the curfew bell, after which the children, so required to be at their homes or off the streets shall be liable to be warned by any constable or police officer to go home.
