Fishing Fever.

I don't know how to count for it,
But every year in March
A homesick feelin' gits me—
Just sort of low my starch.
Oh thinkin' of the old home
Tup where I was born,
An' how the gamecock rooster
Used to wake me in the morn.
Seem to see the cherry trees
Burstin' into bloom,
Almos' smell the fragrance
Of the hyacinth's perfume,
Wond'rin' if the honey bees
'll git to business soon,
Thinkin' if the trout brook
Sings the same old tune,
Oh, the dancin', ripplin' trout brook!
An' then I jes' git wadin',
At business near in Haulin',
An' time 'ud come for fishin'.
—T. H. Horn.

Our better halves say they could not keep house without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is used in more than half the homes in Leeds. Sims Bros., Leeds, Iowa. This shows the esteem in which that remedy is held where it has been sold for years and is well known. Mothers have learned that there is nothing so good for colds, croup, and whooping-cough, that it cures these ailments quickly and permanently, and that it is pleasant and safe for children to take. The Butterine Product.

The manufacturers are the packers, although there are two concerns devoted exclusively to the business whose plants are more modern and complete than those of the big stock yard men. The capital employed in the various plants aggregates, it is said $500,000. Probably 2,000 persons are employed in the industry."
