THE GREATNESS OF AMERICA.
The New York World says that perhaps the article on the wealth and intelligence of the United States just published by the celebrated English statistician Mulhall is the highest compliment recently paid the country.

He dwells chiefly on the fact that in the thirty years between 1860 and 1890 the United States showed an increase of $49,000,000,000 in apparent wealth. But more important still is the real wealth of the country, which he shows as far as can be shown in statistics by saying that never before in the history has any nation possessed 41,000,000 citizens who have been taught to read.

In that lies a great secret of our power as a wealth-producing nation. Visible wealth is the result of the intelligence of the masses. It increases with increasing intelligence. It is always greatest among those nations where the natural intelligence of the working masses, the actual producers, has been most highly developed by education.

But in America and everywhere else popular intelligence depends on popular freedom. No people can become intelligent except in the measure that they become free. Nor can they remain free except as they become intelligent.

America has become the greatest country of history because it has been the freest. Freedom made intelligence possible and intelligence has created wealth beyond the dreams of the men who founded the Republic. It must be the care of Americans who succeed them in all generations to see to it that the wealth thus created is used to increase not to destroy or repress intelligence and freedom.

MOSSE PERKINS SWINDLED.
He Says He Does Not Pay to Patronize Hungry Peddlers.

Were you in it? I was, and I was mad too, as mad as I could be. I think that a traveling fakir could cheat my partner of joy and sorrow out of ten hard-earned dollars was too much for me, and I made sulphur by the ounce. It is hardly necessary for me to state what I mean for I do not think there is a dozen families in town but what are in love with the picture dealer who was here lately. Luckily for him, and possibly for me, he came while I was out of town and in consequence I am that much poorer, owing to the easy manner which this person had, and the successful way he pulled the dollars out of the wives of Patton was enough to make the eagles on the dollars screech with horror. It is past now and though poorer I am richer for I think Mrs. _____ will never again bargain for a picture. She ordered a picture of our three-year-old child, and I declare, I thought it was a picture of a young Chinaman. I asked her what she bought it for and she said, why that is Albert. I am sorry she told me for I always thought the boy good looking. The moral of the experience of last week is plain, patronize your home dealer and you then have recourse if the work is not satisfactory. But if you like to be swindled, buy from a traveling salesman who makes a house-to-house canvass. I am willing to wager that more women found out last week how their husbands can swear than can get into church on Sunday evening. Not that the casing helped things any, but it relieved the feelings and started the hunt for the salesman. I am sorry I was caught and I am more sorry so many others were caught, but experience is the best teacher, though he many times a dear one. Beware of the _____ and save your money, and I will try to do likewise hereafter. MOSSE PERKINS.

AT THE BAR OF JUSTICE.

For stealing some meat from Frank Dodson, to which act he acknowledged, Harry Singer was sentenced to serve six months in jail, besides paying the costs of prosecution and a fine of $20.
Mr. Robert Stewart was charged by his wife Laura with assault and battery. It was developed that the white-winged dove of peace did not brood much around the family altar, largely through Laura's fault, and that she had deserted her husband. Consequently the jury found him not guilty, to which Laura raised vociferous, but useless objections.

Summer Excursion Route Book.
The passenger department of the Pennsylvania Railroad company will, on June 1, publish its annual Summer Excursion Route Book. This work, which is compiled with the utmost care and exactness, is designed to provide the public with short descriptive notes of the principal summer resorts in Eastern America, with the routes of reaching them and the rates of fare. There are over 400 resorts in the book, to which rates are quoted, and over 1,600 different ways of reaching them, or combinations of routes are set out in detail. The book is the most complete and comprehensive hand book of summer travel ever offered to the public. Its 210 pages are enclosed in a handsome and striking cover, in colors. Several maps, presenting the exact routes over which tickets are sold, are bound in the book. It is also profusely illustrated with fine half-tone cuts of scenery along the lines of the Pennsylvania railroad and elsewhere. Any doubt as to where the summer should be passed will be dispelled after a careful examination of the contents of this publication. On and after June 1 it may be procured at any Pennsylvania railroad ticket office at the nominal price of 10 cents, or, upon application to the general office, Broad Street Station, by mail for 20 cents.

There is one medicine that will cure immediately. We refer to De Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure for all summer complaints. No delay, no disappointment, no failure. C. W. Hodgkins.

L'Art de la Mode.
L'Art de la Mode is the highest authority on the subject of fashion of any other journal published in this country. The styles are strictly original and represent the work of the leading artist designers in Paris. On this account those who depend upon this journal as a guide on the subject of dress can do so with confidence, since the styles are new, varied, advanced and have never appeared in any other magazine. It is the design of the publishers constantly to add new features of interest to L'Art de la Mode so that the journal may ever hold the front rank it now occupies as the finest fashion Journal in the world. To this end extra colored plates have been added, the last number containing eight beautiful designs showing the latest combinations of color and material, besides nearly one hundred black and white sketches. The coupon page of special patterns, the monthly New York letter, and the bright and chatty fashion notes are features that make L'Art de la Mode invaluable to all who are interested in Dame Fashion. Ask your newsdealer for it. Single numbers 35 cents.

Sometime ago I was troubled with an attack of rheumatism. I used Chamberlain's Pain Balm and was completely cured. I have since advised many of my friends and customers to try the remedy and all speak highly of it. Simon Goldbaum, San Luis Rey, Cal. For sale by C. E. Belcher's City Drug Store.

Get Toilettes.
We are pleased always to note a happy idea in the line of artistic embellishment, such as has made the cover page of Toilettes the cynosure of all eyes in search of the latest magazine. This publication presents with each monthly issue a lithographed bouquet of beautiful flowers emblematic of the month for which it is named. For the current number, July, a magnificent bunch of Gladioli is twisted half around the figure of the proverbial summer girl attired in a becoming lawn tennis costume. Each issue of Toilettes contains a larger number of illustrations than any other fashion magazine published in the world. Price 20 cents at all news stands.

Persons who are subject to diarrhoea will find a speedy cure in De Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure. Use no other. It is the best that can be made or that money can procure. It leaves the system in natural condition after its use. We sell it. C. W. Hodgkins.

FARMING NOTES

Of interest to the Farmers who Read the Patton "Courier."

This is the month in which to breed for February calves.

It is undoubtedly true that food of all kinds favors milk to a greater or less degree.

In the season just ended Canada and the United States sent to Europe nearly 4,500,000 barrels of apples.

Moss butter is injured in the ripening of the cream than at any other point.

Cattlemen in the Argentine are contracting to deliver dressed oxen in Liverpool at $60 per 700-pound carcass.

Nut cake made in India from rich, nutritious nuts is being extensively sold in Europe as far superior to oil cake or oil meal.

In Copenhagen last year 16.28 per cent of the animals which entered the slaughter houses were found to be tuberculous.

The size of the cow and the amount of food eaten are no indications of what she will do at the pail or what the milk will churn out.

The lady-bird beetle are unusually numerous this season. They are one of the fruit grower's best friends and should never be destroyed.

Swamp muck is not generally as valuable as it appears and requires to be heavily dosed with lime the first season to produce much effect.

"Many of the citizens of Rainsville, Indiana, are never without a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in the house," says Jacob Brown, the leading merchant of the place. This remedy has proven of so much value for colds, croup and whooping cough in children that few mothers who know its worth are willing to be without it. For sale by C. E. Belcher's City Drug Store.

We recommend De Witt's Colic and Cholera Cure because we believe it a safe and reliable remedy. Its good effects are shown at once in case of cholera morbus and similar complaints. C. W. Hodgkins.
