PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1895.

NEWSPAPER LAW DECISIONS.
1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrears are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their part from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office or removing and leaving them unsealed for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it; otherwise the publisher is authorized to send it and the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

Bell It Down.
When you've got a thing to say, say it. Don't take half a day. When your party's got little in it, crowd the whole thing in a minute. Life is short—a fleeting vapor—Don't you fill an eight-page paper with a tale which, at a pinch, could be condensed in an inch. Bell her down until she simmers. Polish her until she glimmers. When you've got a thing to say, say it. Don't take half a day. —Hot Springs Thomas Cat.
