PENNSYLVANIA DAY.

November 14 will be Pennsylvania day at the Atlanta exposition. The arrangements have not been quite completed but there will be nothing lacking when the day arrives to make it an occasion worthy of the Keystone State's relative position in the Union. It has been announced that the Pennsylvania Railroad company will furnish a vestibule train, and there will be about 150 on the trip, including the governor, his staff, members of the supreme court, heads of departments, the commission, 'ladies' Auxiliary and some invited guests. They will leave November 11, be at Chattanooga on the 12th to participate in the dedication of monuments there, and arrive at Atlanta on the 13th. The Pennsylvania visitors will be welcomed by the governor of Georgia and Governor Hastings and Lieutenant Governor Lyon. In the evening a public reception will be held at the Pennsylvania building. On the same day the Women's Auxiliary commission will hold a meeting at the Women's building, where addresses will be made by Miss Harding, of Washington, chairman of the Auxiliary; Miss Mary S. Garrett, of Philadelphia, and Miss Mercer, of Pittsburg.

Women Win In South Australia.

Word has come from the president of the W. C. T. U., Mrs. Nichols of Prospect, that in Adelaide, South Australia, adult suffrage has been carried, giving the women a right to vote on the same terms as men and with no barrier to seat in parliament. The bill now only awaits the queen's consent.
Mrs. Nichols says, "It is a grand victory for a hard and well fought battle."

FARMING NOTES.

Of Interest to the Farmers Who Read the Patton "Courier."

Next month the Thanksgiving turkey will be in demand, and now is the time to begin to feed the turkeys liberally and make them fat and plump.

The damp days, when the wind is in the northeast, are more severely felt by the cattle than when the weather is dry and cold. There is nothing to be gained by keeping the cows on the pasture at such times.

A cornstalk may remain in the ground a year without being decomposed, but cut it up and add it to the manure heap and it becomes an excellent absorbent, prevents loss of manure and soon decomposes.

Black walnut is becoming less abundant every year. A large tree near Washington, D. C., was recently sold for $200 and the products of the tree used for furniture, etc., brought $1,000. Even the roots were valuable.

It takes many years to realize from young walnut trees, but those who will plant them will leave fortunes for the next generations.

Potatoes should be dug, well dried and stored in a cool, dark place that is free from moisture. If exposed to dampness, or allowed to become too warm, they will sprout. They have been stored in layers in dry oats or sand with advantage, and it would not be amiss if those having crops of potatoes would make some experiments in that direction.

When a young animal is growing it is increasing its frame, which is composed of bone. Bone being phosphate of lime. The food of young animals, therefore, grain contains but a small proportion of lime, and does not supply the animal in that respect. Clover hay contains thirty times as much lime as corn, and bran is also a substance abounding in lime. The food of young animals, therefore, should not consist entirely of grain, but of a variety, clover hay being almost an essential substance.

Not a few who read what Mr. Robert Rowles, of Hollands, Va., has to say below, will remember their own experience under like circumstances: "Last winter I had a gripe which left me in a low state of health. I tried numerous remedies, none of which did me any good, until I was induced to try a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. The first bottle of it so far relieved me that I was enabled to attend to my work, and the second bottle effected a cure." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Patton Pharmacy, C. W. Hodgkins.

Money to Loan.

In sums of $200 to $10,000 on approved real estate security. For particulars address J. C. Patrick, Patton, Pa. 947

Mischelovs Mme. Malibran.

No prima donna was ever more delightfully capricious, more full of mischief than the famous Mme. Malibran. At the rehearsals of "Romeo and Juliet" she could never make up her mind where she was to "die" at night. It was important for Romeo to know, but all he could get was "not sure," "don't know," "can't tell," or "it will be just as it happens, according to my humor; sometimes in one place, sometimes in another." On one occasion she chose to "die" close to the footlights, her companion, of course, being compelled to "die" beside her, and thus, when the curtain fell, a couple of footmen had to carry the pair off, one at a time, to the intense amusement of the audience.
John Templeton, the fine old Scottish tenor, was probably never so miserable as when he was cast to sing with Malibran. Very often she was displeased with his performance, and one evening she whispered to him, "You are not acting properly; make love to me better," to which, so it is said, Templeton innocently replied, "Don't you know I am a married man?" Evidently the lady did not think there was anything serious in the circumstance, for not long afterward, when in "Sommambula" she was on her knees to Templeton as Elvino, she succeeded in making the tenor scream with suppressed laughter when he should have been singing by tickling him vigorously under the arms.

"The Only" for 1895.

The COURIER is pleased to announce its clubbing arrangements with The Pittsburg Post, the great home newspaper of Pennsylvania, and to persons who want the best daily or semi-weekly paper published in the city, we recommend The Post.

The Daily Post, a large eight-page paper, and The COURIER one year each for $3.00. The price of The Post alone is $3.00. Send us your order at once and get seven papers a week for the price you formerly paid for one.

The Sunday Post, twenty pages every Sunday, containing as much reading as any of the monthly magazines, and The COURIER one year each for only $2.25.

The Semi-weekly Post and The COURIER one year each for only $1.50. Just think of it, The Post twice a week, and your county paper for the price of one. Write us for sample copies.

It's just as easy to try One Minute Cough Cure as anything else. It's easier to cure a severe cough or cold with it. Let your next purchase for a cough be One Minute Cough Cure. Better medicine; better results; better try it. C. W. Hodgkins.

New York World.

The Twice-a-week edition of the New York World has been converted into the Thrice-a-week. It furnishes 3 papers of 6 pages apiece, or eighteen pages every week, at the old price of One Dollar a year. This gives 156 a year for One Dollar and every paper has 6 pages eight columns wide or 48 columns in all. The Thrice-a-week World is not only much larger than any weekly or semi-weekly newspaper, but it furnishes the news with much greater frequency and promptness. In fact it combines all the crisp, fresh qualities of a daily with the attractive special features of a weekly. And $1.50 will get the Thrice-a-week World and the PATTON COURIER for one year. Think of it. Call at the COURIER office and leave your name.

There are many good reasons why you should use One Minute Cough Cure. There are no reasons why you should not, if in need of help. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. W. Hodgkins.

A Big Undertaking.

J. E. Harder, of Clearfield, will start on Thursday morning of this week on his bicycle for Williamsport, with the intention of reaching that city the same day by dark, a distance of about 110 miles. Lew Gearhart, L. A. Gearhart and Ira Waite, of that place, expect to accompany Mr. Harder. All wheelmen have been invited, through the papers, to go along.
