Moses Perkins' Letter.

Once more we are in the midst of rain and mud and complaints are beginning to be sounded. My dear friend don't kick on the weather, we have just had one of the most beautiful autumns we have had for years. Then your kicking doesn't do any good; you may just as well save your effort and accept things as they are, you might change some things in this life, but you cannot change the weather, and if you could change it would you help it any? To be truthful about it the weather as it is and has been suits more people than it would if you or I were making it. Then kicking is not a good trait, especially when you are kicking about something that cannot be changed, (I admit the weather does change, but we do not cause it.) Then this thought is to be considered: We would not appreciate sunshine half so much as we now do if it was with us every day. Be more practical; we do not appreciate the good things of life until shadows come into it, then we enjoy the bright spots and know we have been mistaken.

Acts at once, never fails, One Minute Cough Cure. A remedy for asthma, and that feverish condition which accompanies a severe cold. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. C. W. Hodgkins.

At the Johnstown Opera House.

The "Story of the Scottish Reformation" or "John Knox vs. Mary Stuart" will be told by Mrs. H. E. Monroe, the distinguished lecturer of Philadelphia, with the aid of eighty-six superb stereoscopic views, in Johnstown opera house, November 28, 29, and 30, under the auspices of Trinity Lutheran church of Johnstown. The leading events in the lives of John Knox and Mary Stuart will be represented by 250 persons in the 18th century costume. The nature, views, representations, music, etc., will be pleasing and are cordially invited to bring your friends. This is undertaken for the purpose of reviving a love of and to teach modern and for the right. Chart of reserved seats at store will be open on Friday, November 26th.

Antiquary good reasons why men do One Minute Cough Cure is no reasons why you would need of help. The wood remedy that produces the C. W. Hodgkins.

river filled of starvation was ville. heaven an angel out for that purpose I look at the other place where I ascend to eternal happiness?" "Easily," said the angel. So they went below and skirmished around, taking in the sights. The angel lost track of the editor and went around hedges to hunt him. He found him sitting by a furnace fanning himself and gazing with care upon a lot of people in the fire. There was a sign on the furnace which said, "Delinquent Subscribers." "Come," said the angel, "we must be going." "You go on," said the editor. "I'm not coming. This is heaven enough for me."—Ex.

The healing properties of De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve are well known. It cures eczema, skin affections and is simply a perfect remedy for piles. C. W. Hodgkins.

Throat Disease Cured With Grapes and Horehound.
The noted old nurse, descendant of Holland Dutch, discovered that a certain combination of grapes with Horehound Herb and the root of Elecampane made into a cordial will cure sore throats and coughs, and is excellent for colds, catarrh and all irritation of the bronchial tubes, tonsils and throat, and for singers and public speakers. Druggists say the sales are immense, and it is doing great good. It is called aunt Rachael's Elecampane and Horehound Cordial.

The wife of Mr. Leonard Wells, of East Brimfield, Mass., had been suffering from neuralgia for two days, not being able to sleep or hardly keep still, when Mr. Holden, the merchant there, sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and asked that she give it a thorough trial. On meeting Mr. Wells the next day he was told that she was all right, the pain had left her within two hours, and the bottle of Pain Balm was worth $5.00 if it could not be had for less. For sale at 50 cents per bottle by Patton Pharmacy, C. W. Hodgkins.

A Letter to Aunt Rachael.

CAIRO, Ill., August 29.

To Aunt Rachael Speer at Passaic, N. J. DEAR MADAM—We have used your Malarial Bitters for several months past and find it the very best tonic we have ever used to effectually wipe out all traces of malarial fever. My wife has been sickly, feverish, weak and languid for the past four seasons, and tried almost everything. We heard so much of your bitters that I concluded to try it; my wife's appetite has returned and she is strong, well and sprightly again and all owing to your Peruvian Malarial Bitters. C. H. WOODWARD.

Say, why don't you try De Witt's Little Early Risers? These little pills cure headache, indigestion and constipation. They're small, but do the work. C. W. Hodgkins.

The Departure of the Teachers.

Of all comical things under the sun, the most comical is to see a school teacher run. They wave and they stagger as they run through the rain. In a very great effort to catch the seven train. It was the greatest of fun to see them run. They had not time even to undress in small talk. And one of them said the Prof. was surely in fun. "I won't run a step though to Ebenezer I do walk."

But run they all did from the first to the last. And the longest one just caught the train as it passed. And then they were started I trust they do well. Though the last look I got said "You go to the hotel."—O. N. Z.
