

Patton Courier.

PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1906.

The Winter Solstice.
Oh, it's chilly of a mornin' now,
And kinder cool at noon,
There's frost in everybody's hair
And whiskers on the moon.
The bicycle is put away
All snugly in the stable
While the horse is in the stable
A-cuttin' off his head.

Speer's Unfermented Grape Juice in Europe has a wide reputation for its efficacy in the sick room. The juice is rich, tastes like eating the ripe grape fresh from the vine; used by churches.

Samuel Kelly and his son Floy, of Chess Springs, this county, are credited with having killed the following game this season: Ninety-five rabbits, thirty-nine pheasants, fifty-nine red squirrels, one woodcock, and one coon.—Johnstown Tribune.

If suffering with piles, it will interest you to know that De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve will cure them. This medicine is a specific for all complaints of this character, and if instructions (which are simple) are carried out, a cure will result. We have tested this in numerous cases, and always with like results. It never fails. C. W.
Hodgkins.

The Patton Coal company have been making some improvements in their offices in the good building. The pay office has been changed to the room formerly occupied by Superintendent Ashcraft. Desks etc. have been added for the convenience of the office force and the superintendants office which is in the adjoining room is made more convenient.

Bell, the clothier, displays a nice elegant assortment of smoking jackets, silk mufflers, ties, handkerchiefs, dress shirts, jewelry, fancy suspenders, night robes, and shirts are displayed in a way that will prove Mr. Bell to be a window dresser of merit. It's worth your while to go and see this window.

The new Pennsylvania railroad water pipe line, running from the north of Bellwood, has been placed in operation, but notwithstanding the facilities thus increased, the water famine is still keenly felt around the railroad shops, says the Altoona Tribune.

Water trains are running with unceasing regularity, but on account of the cold weather the required supply is hard to maintain.
C. C. McKelvey left on Monday for Patton, Pa., his partner, C. F. Ward, having left for the same place last week. They will engage in the merchant tailoring and garment furnishing business at once at that place. We regret very much to lose these gentlemen as citizens of our town, but Cumberland's loss is Patton's gain, and we wish them success in their new field.—

made it possible for us to sell ladies' fine Lyons Kid Button Boots for $2.50. They are shapely, soft and pliable. Not very long ago the same quality shoe would have cost $4.

Boys' good shoes 85c, 1,
1.25, to $2.
Misses dress shoes 7, 1.25
to $2.

Ladies shoes 1.35 to $5.
Mens shoes 1.25 to $5
Rubbers 35c, 45c, 50c to 85c
Mens leather boots, good ones 2 to 3.50

COLCHESTER NO. 1 Rubber Boots at 2.60, same as all others sell at $3

Rather Slender

This store is run on the principle of slender profits and lots of them. That means many sales with a little margin on each one. It means, further, that this is the cheapest store in town—cheap because a man always gets his money's worth.

For Instance:

Men's good all-wool suits; our price 7.00, worth $6.50
Better ones in Black Chevrot, 7, well worth $10.
We have your size in these suits.

Overcoats

Good warm storm coats for men
At $5.00 just worth that amt.
6.50 " " " "
7.00 " " " "

Our black beaver coat at $8 is a beauty. Others will offer one like it at 10.
Boy's Overcoats 1.75, 2, 2.50, 3, 4, 5, 6, $7. Here is an assortment that triples all the other stores in town.
