PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1896.

NEWSPAPER LAW DECISIONS.

1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to renew their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may send them to send them until all arrears are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have settled their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without informing the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the office of removing and having them unsealed for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, otherwise the publishers are authorized to send it and the subscribers will be responsible until an express notice, with payment of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

He Will After This.

"Oh, Henry," said one, bitterly.
"As he set him down to dine,
I have bought the sweetest cushion
For a dollar ninety-nine."
"It was bargain day in Skilton's,
And they advertised it so
That the store was fairly crowded,
For the prices were so low."
"H'm," he coughed and looked askew.
"As sure as I'm alive,
We are selling that same cushion
At a dollar twenty-five."
Not a word then broke the silence,
Till his wife, with many sighs,
Softly said, in accents fearful,
"And why don't you advertise?"
