A Portland merchant has recently had illustrated to him in the persons of two comparential travelers great viciasitndes of fortune. One who valled to solicit trade for a certain brand of catchup was at one time one of the leading merchants of Boston, and his residence, when ad-versity came, sold under the hammer for $73,000. The other, who had a line of cigars, had been twice elected gov with one and against the rear dasher of the car. The maker of this bet started his car forward at a good rate of speed and then applied the brake, bringing the car to a deed standatill only when it had to come so close to the car ahead as to hold the egg supported by both cars. Then he again reversed the correct and the shell was found to be nearly cracked, but the meat of the ogg unbroken. —Er change. Where They All Gargle.
