The Indian's view of the way in ich he has been treated by the white an in this country was well given in anecdote related by Professor Elliott Evans of Hamilton college. The ous Indian chief Red Jacket once et Mr. Evans' grandencle, Joseph Elott, at Tonawanda, Nisgara county. Mr. Ellicott at that time was agent of the Holland Land company, which ownod most of the land in what was later mown as the Eighth Judicial district

The two men shook hands and sat down on a convenient log, both being near the middle of it. After a short time spent in amicable conversation, Red Jacket said pleasantly, "Move along, Joe."

Mr. Ellicott did as be had been reguested, and the chief moved up close to him. In a few minutes came a second request, "Move along, Joe."

Again Mr. Ellicott complied, though with considerable surprise, and again the chief followed him closely. Scarcely had this been done when Red Jacket again said, "Move along, Joe."

Mr. Ellicott was greatly annoyed, but willing to incore the chief he "moved along" once more, this time reaching the end of the Lar This was not a flicient to satisfy the the fourth request, "Move along, Joe." "Why, man," errol the agent irritably, "I can't move as y farther without getting off the log into the mud! "Ugh!" exclaimed ited Jacket con temptuously. "Just so white man.

Plumbers tell some languable stories about people who don't know how to run furnaces and steam heating plants. "We put in a furnace for a minister ance," says an Auburn plumber, "and the next day he came down and kicked "Weak woman" repeated time sadly. about it. He said that it wouldn't burn, and he either wanted it taken out or put in working order right away. I went up, and after examining the chimney carefully I looked into the furnace. Well, sir, the minister had been trying to heat the house by building a fire in the ash box "-Lewiston Journal
