PATTON PUBLISHING CO., Proprietors.
THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 27, 1896.

NEWSPAPER LAW DECISIONS.
1. Subscribers who do not give express notice to the contrary are considered as wishing to receive their subscriptions.
2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their periodicals, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.
3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the postoffice to which they are directed, they are responsible until they have notified their bills and ordered them discontinued.
4. If subscribers move to other places without notifying the publishers, and the papers are sent to the former address, they are held responsible.
5. The courts have decided that refusing to take periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncollected for a period, is evidence of intentional fraud.
6. If subscribers pay in advance they are bound to give notice at the end of the time if they do not wish to continue taking it, or they will be liable for the same if they do not give notice.
7. If the publisher is satisfied by mail, it is held that the subscriber will be responsible until an express notice, with account of all arrears, is sent to the publisher.

Next Thing to Be.
I met a friend upon the street,
His hand I knew before he spoke,
His lips were very often moist,
He was a man that always "broke."
I stopped his applications short,
I could not let him have a seal,
For though I was not quite "dead broke,"
I was pretty badly bent.
— J. RAYMOND KITCHIN.

Try Truman's coat.—6711.
Try a "Prince Charles" at Palmer house.—915

Notice the advertisement of the Waverley bicycle in another column.
Just received some very nice patterns in Spring dress plaids which we are selling at very low prices. P. S. Co.—1111

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. C. W. Hodgkins

Anton Kujawa, of Clearfield, accompanied by his brother Joseph, of Curwensville, had business in Patton on Tuesday.

When you want a good smoke get the "Prince Charles" at the Palmer house, a genuine medicated full Havana cigar.—915

It is not so necessary to have your advertisement at the "top of the column" as it is to have it at the top in excellence.—Printers Ink.

Miss Sadie Hattwick, of Jersey Shore, who has been visiting at the home of J. D. Blair on West Beach avenue, returned home Monday.

Smoke "Prince Charles" cigar, sold at the Palmer house.—915
Geo. S. Good and wife, of Lock Haven, visited in town this week.

Order your coal from Truman. It gives the best satisfaction of any.—6711.
Boynton McPherson, of Clearfield, visited his parents on Fifth avenue over Sunday.

A grand masquerade ball will be held in Patton soon. Further particulars will appear later.

Ladies when you want a good Black dress buy Black Sicilian, the newest thing in black dress goods at P. S. Co.

Geo. H. Carman and Frank Pennington were elected delegates to the Republican convention held at Ebensburg on Monday.

In publishing the list of business privities etc., last week, a harness shop, which is owned by E. J. Severin, was unintentionally omitted.

On Sunday night at about 10:30 a box car on the Pennsylvania railroad was broken into by thieves and several suits of clothes were stolen.

When you take a trip to Ebensburg stop at the Blair house and you will be used all right. Accommodations excellent and rates moderate.—69-11

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct the liver with Dr. Witt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. C. W. Hodgkins.

Dr. E. M. Thompson was recently appointed postmaster at Curwensville. He is a good man and the appointment will hold him there. He will hold the appointment until he meets with the general approval of the majority of the citizens of Curwensville.

On Monday, March 2d, Wm. F. Gable & Co., of Altoona, will hold their annual anniversary, it being the twelfth year of this store's existence. It will interest you to read their big announcement in another column.

W. A. Mellon has a large force of carpenters, tinners, plumbers, plasterers, painters and paper hangers busily engaged in getting his new hotel on Fifth avenue ready for occupancy. It is expected that it will be completed in about two weeks.

We acknowledge one dollar on subscription from our former townsman "Billy" Stratiff, now of Patton, which pays his paper ahead to Oct. 24, 1896. Thanks, Billy. May many of our subscribers follow the example you have set them.—Coalport Standard.

An interesting literary society is being held at Beech Grove school house in Chest township every other Friday night. The teacher of the school, Francis Craver, has been taking an active part in the meetings which consist of debates, select reading, speaking, singing, etc., and they are well attended.

On Friday, February 21st, a young contractor came to the home of W. C. Hubbard and expressed a desire to be clothed and fed. The weather being severe and the little one's plea was so earnest that William then and there decided to have him remain and assist his oldest son to consume the paragon and to take active part in all midnight entertainments.

L. S. Bell, the Magee avenue clothier, gent's furnisher, tailor and shoe dealer, has a large "ad" on the first page. Mr. Bell has just received the largest stock of shoes for ladies and gentlemen, boys and girls, that has ever been brought to Patton. If you have an umbrella that needs re-covering leave it with Mr. Bell and it will be done on short notice. He is making a specialty of that kind of work.

The matrons of the St. Augustine Catholic church held a very successful festival in the hall there on Monday night for the benefit of the church checker.

Mrs. L. A. Craver, of the Blair house, in this place, received word on Tuesday morning of the death of her sister, Mr. George Seymour, of Allegheny township. She died on Monday evening about 5 o'clock. The funeral took place at Loretto on Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, after which interment was made in the cemetery at that place.—Cambria Freeman.

The new short cut of the Pennsylvania railroad from Portage to Lilly, runs in a bee line to the hill west of Bens-creek, where the hill will be cut, then crosses the old route and follows the old Portage road all the way to Lilly. This will throw the bed of the Pennsylvania railroad tracks 30 feet higher than the old tracks were. It is a striking vindication of the survey of the engineers who laid out the old Portage road that the Pennsylvania railroad is going back to the old route they laid out.—Ebensburg Mountaineer.

We have several special shades in all-wool Henrietta, 44 inches wide, that we are selling very cheap.

Charles White and Miss Emma Davi- son of this place, were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Dr. and Mrs. T. J. Davison, at 8 o'clock on Thursday evening. After the ceremony refreshments were served and the young couple then went to their home which had been previously furnished for their reception. We offer congrat- ulations.

Contracts Let.
The Pennsylvania Railroad company has awarded contracts for 31,000 tons of steel rails at $26 per ton; 23,000 tons for the lines east of Pittsburgh and 8,000 tons for the western lines. The contracts have been divided among the following companies: Carnegie, 9,000 tons; Cambria, 6,000 tons; Pennsylvan- ia Steel, 6,000 tons; Lackawanna, 2,000 tons, and Illinois Steel, 8,000 tons.

Administrator's Notice.
Estate of A. M. Burgott, late of Ash- ville Borough, deceased.
Letters of administration on the above estate having been granted to the undersigned, all persons indebted to said estate are requested to make payment, and those having claims to present them without delay to Dr. H. Somerville, Administrator, Chest Springs, Pa., or to his attorney, Reuel Somerville, Patton, Pa.
Jan. 29, 1896.

Return Thanks.
The Ladies Aid society take this method of expressing their thanks and appreciation of the generous patron- age accorded them by the public and in an especial manner to express their thanks to those who, by their contri- butions and help, contributed so much to the success of the supper.

Next Week's Great Event.
GABLE & CO'S

Twelfth Anniversary Sale Monday,
March 2nd, 1896.

We always invite all Central Pennsylvania to our Anniversary Celebration—and we always make it well worth their while to come a hundred miles to be here on that day. The three floors of our great house will be packed with new Spring Goods—every Department will be crowded with astonishing bargains. You will save enough money by buying at this time to pay for your trip several times over.

Make Your Preparations
To Come—See Central Pennsylvania's Greatest Store on This, It's Greatest Day.

That you may understand just how great the Bargains will be, we quote these few prices selected at random from the arrangements made for this great Anniversary Sale:
Full yard wide unbleached muslin for this day only 2 1/2c a yard.
Pretty new calicoes, for this day only 2c a yard.
Good apron gingham for this day only 5 1/2c a yard.
46-inch new spring novelty dress goods for this day only 19c a yard.
46-inch Henriettes, 50c quality, for this day only 34c a yard.
25c ladies black hose for this day only 12c a pair.
2 yard Nottingham lace curtains at 34c a pair.
Good window shades, with spring rollers 12c each.
Splendid 35c brooms, with four rows of sewing, to remember this sale by, 19c.
Rabbit's soap—7 cakes for 25c.
No matter what part of the "Big Store" you visit, whether you look at underwear or linens, dress goods or house furnishing goods, dress trimmings or curtain pole trimmings, you will find splendid assort- ments and wonderfully low prices everywhere.
As a special inducement to people from distant towns we announce that we will prepay all freights and express on goods bought on Anniv- ersary Day to all points within 100 miles of Altoona.

We regret at this early writing it is impossible to quote a comprehen- sive list of prices. Preparations will not be completed until the end of this week. But we will assure you that Central Pennsylvania has never before seen such a

Great Bargain Day
as will occur in this great store on Anniversary Day, Monday,

MARCH 2, 1896.
We invite all Central Pennsylvania to the Grandest Showing and Big- gest Bargains ever known in the central part of the State.
