

SWEET JASMINE.
How This Fragrant Flower Became the Symbol of Marriage.
 Long before orange blossoms became associated with weddings the fragrant jasmine was commonly used for the decoration of a bride. A very pretty legend of ancient Tuscany tells how this little blossom became the symbol of love. A traveler, returning from the warm countries of Asia, brought him with him a rare tropical plant—the jasmine—which was unknown in Tuscany. He gave a small slip to a certain duke, who set it among his most treasured plants, where it rooted and thrived under the care of the gardener and soon grew to be a good sized plant. The duke was so proud of his rare possession that he gave strict orders to his gardener to guard the plant carefully and on no account to give even a slip—not a flower—to any person. The gardener was a good young man, and he would have been faithful to his charge had he not happened to fall in love with the sweetest peasant maid in all Tuscany. The maid was poor and her lover was not much richer, so they were unable to marry. On the birthday of the peasant gardener, having nothing else to give the maid of his choice, presented her with a bouquet of flowers, and among the others from the duke's cherished jasmine bush. Nothing could be too good for the gardener's maiden, so in this case instance he relaxed his care of the shrub. The girl, admiring the fresh buds of the sprig, wished to preserve it, and so placed it in the ground, where it rooted and grew. The next year it bore green all winter, thus symbolizing her love for the gardener, and in the following spring it grew and was covered with blossoms. The little bush flourished and the flowers multiplied so under the maiden's care that she was able to sell many of the sprigs for a considerable sum, thus providing for the unknown lover ahead, and in a short time, with a spray of the precious love token on her breast she was wedded to the happy gardener. To this day the Tuscan girls preserve the remembrance of the gardener's gift to his sweetheart by wearing a bouquet of sweet jasmine on their wedding day. A proverb which says, a young girl wearing such a sprig is rich enough to make the fortune of a poor husband.—Philadelphia Press.

Cardinal Mezzofanti's Memory.
 Cardinal Mezzofanti had a memory little short of miraculous. Dr. Russell, his biographer, says that the cardinal spoke with the greatest ease 30 languages; that he spoke fairly well 9; that he used occasionally, but not with any fluency, 11 more; that he spoke imperfectly 8, and that he could read 11 more. Taking in addition the number of dialects he used, some 300 diverse from the mother tongue as to constitute a different language, Dr. Russell says that the cardinal was master of no less than 111 different languages and dialects. His German was so excellent that he was taken for a native of Germany, while his French and English were equally pure. Dr. Thielen, heard him converse in German, Arabic, Spanish, Flemish, English, Latin, Greek, Swedish and Portuguese, at one of the pope's receptions, and afterward Mezzofanti gave him a poem in Persian and left him to take a lesson in Cornish. He knew several of the American Indian languages and nearly all the dialects of India. In spite of all these attainments, however, he was a very dull man, and himself said that he had 20 words for one idea. He was remarkable only for the number of languages he knew, but was not distinguished as a grammarian, a lexicographer, a philosopher, a philologist or ethnologist, and added nothing to any department of the study of language.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

An Imperfect Gold Coin.
 Superintendent Beach of the street cleaning department some time since found a $5 gold coin on a curbstone, and it proved to be a curiosity, worth as much as two ordinary $5 pieces, on account of its having been "miss struck"—that is, it had not been placed squarely in the die, and the milling on one side was some distance from the edge, while on the other side there was none. On mentioning the fact to an employee in the San Francisco mint he was told that the coin was a counterfeit, and that it was practically impossible that a coin so disfigured could have been issued from any government mint. When the coin was produced, the mint employees, by putting it to all sorts of tests, had to admit that it was a genuine coin, struck at the Philadelphia mint, where every coin passes through the hands of four persons who examine it for defects, and he said he would not have believed it possible for such a coin to escape them had he not seen it.—Portland Oregonian.

Declining Our Pronouns.
 In a collection of the possessions of the late Robert Louis Stevenson there is a letter showing the difficulties which even such a master of English as he experienced in writing our language. "When I invent a language," he writes, "there shall be a direct and indirect pronoun differently declined, and then writing will be some fun." This idea he illustrates as follows: Direct—He, him, his. Indirect—Tu, tum, tus. He adds in exemplification, "He seized tum by tus throat, but tu at the same moment caught him by his hair." A fellow would write hurricanes with an inflection like that.—Boston Herald.

A Big Strained Major.
 An amusing incident occurred while a company of a certain battalion stationed in one of our garrison towns were going through their musketry training. Owing to a strong wind blowing from the right, the bullets fell falling to the left of the target. An old major, who was in charge of the ranges, came over to the color sergeant and inquired the cause of the bad shooting. On being told that there was too much wind blowing from the right, causing the shots to fall wide, he astonished the sergeant by asking, "Wouldn't it be a good idea if the targets were moved more to the left?" The color sergeant barely restrained a smile.—London Tit-Bits.

Summer Fashions.
 Toilettes for August have many cool and dainty gowns, showing agreeable changes from established models, some of the best known firms of Parisian designers are represented in this issue. The sleeves show a marked tendency toward getting smaller, and more graceful; trimming is seen again on the skirts, especially towards the hem. But even novelties of design is the finished style of the illustrations, which excel anything in this line to be found in the country. This applies not only to the clever pen and ink sketches by Beryl, and a host of other noted French artists, but even more so to the exquisite color plates, which interleave with the book. One bridal costume, for instance, shows the richest coloring imaginable in its background of cathedral windows, rivaling the effects of stained glass, which brings out the white robed figure of the bride in strong yet graceful contrast. Another plate shows both back and front views of a delightful new creation by Paquin, which will be admired everywhere as a model of distinction. Indeed the book throughout is a marvel of elegance and good taste. This number gives the last of the summer styles; the next issue, September, will illustrate early autumn dresses and wraps. Twenty-five cents at all newsdealers. Published at 126 West 23d street, New York.

Excursions to the Seashore.

No other summer outing appeals so strongly to the people of Western Pennsylvania as the Pennsylvania Railroad company's popular excursions to the seacoast of New Jersey. For years they have been looked forward to as the holiday event of each summer, and every season has seen them grow more popular. The reason of their great favor in which they are held is easy to see. The rate of $10 for the round trip is phenomenally low, considering the distance and the high character of the service; the limit of twelve days just fits the time set apart for the average vacation, and the dates of the excursions are most conveniently adjusted. There is also the widest field for choice in the selection of the resort. Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City are the choicest of the Atlantic coast resorts, and any one of them may be visited under these arrangements.

The dates of the excursion are July 9 and 23, August 6 and 20, and the rates will be as follows: Pittsburg, $10; Johnstown, $9.25; Crossin, $8.50; Altoona, $8; Tyrone, $7.50; Clearfield, $8.00; proportionate low rates from other points. A special train of parlor cars and day coaches will leave Pittsburg on each of the above-mentioned dates at 8:54 a. m., and connect at Philadelphia with special train via the new Delaware River Bridge route, landing passengers at Atlantic City in twelve hours from Pittsburg; or passengers may spend the night in Philadelphia and proceed to the shore on regular trains from Market Street Wharf that day. Tickets will also be good on regular trains leaving Pittsburg at 4:30 and 8:10 p. m., arriving in Philadelphia next morning, whence passengers may proceed to the shore on any regular train from Market Street Wharf that day.
