His Services.
The citizen who makes the race wants the most commendable. He simply takes the offered place to do his country good. All private parties he'll promptly meet. No selfish scheme he'll launch. But still he'll never flinch about the salary attached.
—Chicago Record.
Christmas is being talked about. Only 11 more days till election day. First snow on Sunday, October 18th. Watch the COURIER for election returns.

When you take a trip to Ebensburg stop at the Blair house and you will be used all right. Accommodations excellent and rates moderate. 49-4f.

Wm. F. Gable & Co., and Jennel, both of Altoona, have new ads in the COURIER this week. See what they have to say.
As the COURIER goes to press information is received of the arrival of a brand new boy at the home of Postmaster Ed. A. Mellon.
More than two hundred school children and students in Johnstown have been fitted with glasses by Piper, graduate in Optics.
Mr. Beckwith, who has been lying seriously ill at his home on Kerr avenue with typhoid fever, is reported to be improving slowly.
M. G. Lewis is moving his household effects into one of G. S. Good's brick houses on Fifth avenue, recently vacated by F. E. McElfresh.
Ruel Somerville, Esq., is booked to make a political speech to the Republicans of Susquehanna township at Plottville, on Saturday afternoon.
Did you ever stop to think that that man was never born who was quite "smart" or two-faced enough, as you may term it, to please everybody.
R. J. Luther, Esq., and wife, of White township, this county, who have been visiting friends at Pittsburg the past week returned home on Wednesday.

The stock at the drug store of M. G. Coffey at Hastings was sold at sheriff's sale Wednesday. Most of the goods were purchased by Mr. Coffey's father-in-law.
What do you publish a paper for? I'd like to know? inquired a kicker of a country editor. For one dollar a year in advance, and you owe me for four years, was the reply.
Good buildings, wide streets, large industries and enterprising citizens is the kind of material for a good town and the COURIER is proud to state that Patton possesses all of these.
Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Patton entertained the members of the school board and their wives and the corps of school teachers Thursday evening from 8 to 11 o'clock.—Curwensville Review.
Frank Kinkead, who received a broken leg in Patton some time ago, and who is at the Philipsburg hospital, is steadily improving. His many friends will be glad to see him back in Patton soon.
As we go to press we learn that Alfred Anderson, an esteemed citizen of Barnesboro, died at 11:30 last night from typhoid fever. The arrangements have not yet been made for the funeral.—Spangler Sentinel.

Patton is steadily growing. Quite a number of new buildings have been and are being erected here since spring, and a large number will be built the coming spring. This is truly the banner town of North Cambria.
Street Commissioner Samuel E. Jones has completed the work of making the approaches to the new overhead bridge on McIntyre avenue. Mr. Jones did good work in completing the job and as a street commissioner he certainly is the right man in the right place.
Miss Emma Nicholson, while on her way to Carrolltown last Sunday, was thrown from her bicycle and received several ugly cuts about the head. She lay unconscious some time after the accident. She has about fully recovered, however.—Hastings Cor. to Spangler Sentinel.

A. C. Fisher, the painter and contractor, has been awarded the contract of painting the new Catholic church and parsonage at St. Boniface, and has already commenced the work. Mr. Fisher expects to have the church painted, ready for dedication, by November 1.
The Supreme Court at Pittsburg, on Tuesday, affirmed the lower Court in awarding Mrs. Jennie Wilson, of West Clearfield, damages in the sum of $3,800 against the Beech Creek and Pennsylvania Railroad companies for the killing of her husband, near Westover, in June, 1904.

Isn't it peculiar what queer things come from the habit of smoking cigarettes? A young man in Williamsport recently was arrested for theft by the Government and the cause given for his stealing was blamed on the excessiveness of cigarette smoking. It seems "far fetched."
The Gallatin Times says that the hypnotic show which held forth at the Opera House on Wednesday evening was a complete failure, and we think also a fake. It was to be continued Thursday and Friday but the conspicuous absence of an audience Thursday night put an end to it.
If you don't like the COURIER and its management why don't you, like a man, come to the office, pay up what you owe, discontinue your subscription and try something else, liver pills, baking powder, Paris green or some other disinfectant. This is a free country and all privileges are granted, "don't yer know?"
An odd wager has been made by two Pittsburg horsemen. George Saxby, the owner of Lakewood Prince, has wagered George Wilson $1,000 that he can drive Lakewood Prince in a wagon from Pittsburg to New York in five days, the start to be made at 6 a. m., Monday, November 23, and the finish to be made at the World office Saturday, November 28, at 6 o'clock p. m.

The Patton Cornet band was in town and gave us some very nice music Saturday night. Come again boys.—Chest Springs Correspondent to Gallatin Times.
Parnell & Cowher, insurance agents of Patton, have secured the district agency for the State Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia. The President of this company is Gen. Frank Reeder, secretary of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, and the Secretary is Henry K. Boyer, ex-state Treasurer of Pennsylvania. The company is first-class and Messrs. Parnell & Cowher expect to do a flourishing business through it.
Attorney Harry Roland, of Hastings, may have some trouble in proving to the Cambria County Bar Association that he has been living up to the rules and regulations of that Association. A grievance committee composed of Attorneys R. S. Murphy, John H. Brown, F. J. O'Connor, William Davis and F. A. Shoemaker, heard testimony to the effect that Roland had agreed to handle a case in the Ebensburg court for $15 and afterwards charged and collected $80. J. H. Thompson of Indiana, is the man alleged to have been imposed upon. The committee met in Johnstown recently when both Roland and Thompson were present. The committee will submit the testimony to the bar association at its next meeting.—South Fork Record.
