THE PRESIDENT'S SOCIAL LIFE.

Ex-President Harrison, whose articles in The Ladies' Home Journal are creating such widespread interest, will write about "The Social Life of the President" in the April issue of that magazine.

After having been confined to the house for eleven days and paying out $25 in doctor bills without benefit, Mr. Frank Dolson of Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., was cured by one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm costing 25 cents and has not since been troubled with that complaint.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and scalds are soothed at once and promptly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best known cure for piles.

Cultivate, hoe or rake around plants immediately after setting, and every few days thereafter throughout the season.

When hogs die from cholera the safest plan is to burn rather than bury the carcass and all that has been in contact with it. Fire is a certain purifier.

If there are farmers who have never grown cauliflower they should do so and discover what a luxury they have been neglecting, and which will do little compared with its value.

It is not necessary to plant onion sets by pressing them into the ground one at a time roots down. Mark off the rows, drop the sets and pull a little dirt over them, the furrow for the sets to be not deeper than two inches.

The farmer who plants his crops this season should not be governed by the price or abundance of last year. When an article is below the demand one year the supply may be above the demand the next year.

They are so small that the most sensitive persons take them, they are so effective that the most obstinate cases of constipation, headache and torpid liver yield to them.

That I want to talk about this time. Shirts and Wall Paper—they are the only two Spring lines that I have received in stock, so far but, they are so very extensive that I haven't even space to tell all about them. I have an enormous stock of Shirts of all styles and they will be sold more reasonably than ever before.
