From L. A. W. Hiltz. A road of clay is a weary way. The mud in the road is the worst of the road.

When mud is thick the horse should kick. This wide tire question is a broad one.

A tired man may have the "blues" and yet maintain a happy look, but not so with a woman who has been disappointed in her cook.

Yes, money wins the crowd, and still some men we have known who have a blue ten dollar bill and had to go to loan.

O hush! hush, summer straw. For you had made a shade. We strain the one through which we draw the cooling breeze.

Soda water at Hodgkins. Have you set out your onion sets yet?

Soda water, milk shakes and root beer at Hodgkins. The Patton clay works are running at full capacity.

When you take a trip to Ebensburg stop at the Blair house and you will be well all right. Accommodations excellent and rates moderate.—95-42. Alex. Monteith and John Hunter were elected delegates to represent the Republicans of Patton at the convention held at Ebensburg on Monday.

Lost—On Wednesday evening, April 21, a bay mare three years old. A reward of $25 will be given to the finder. Address Capt. Notley, Barnesboro, Pa.—2212. The United States department of labor estimates the value of goods produced in the various penitentiaries of the states and territories in 1895 at about $20,000,000.

Don't fail to stop and see the beautiful show window of fine dress goods in Geo. S. Good's store. The window is artistically arranged with the finest line of dress goods ever brought to Patton. In compliance with the request of the executive committee of the Nashville, Tenn. Centennial, the President opened the Exposition by wire from the White House at 1:13 o'clock on Saturday.

"Oh, no! There ain't any favorites in this family!" eloquently Johnny; "oh, no! If I bite my finger nails I catch it over the knuckles; but the baby can eat his whole foot and they think it's clever." Jersey Shore is quite a freak town. It has a one legged bicycle rider; one armed bicycle rider; one armed billiard player and a one legged skater.—Vidette. Wonder whether it has a one legged politician?

Pete Sperlein, Johnstown's best base ball pitcher, left on Monday morning for Shamokin, Pa., where he will play ball with the nine of that place. Pete was quite well-known in Patton among the base ball enthusiasts. General Grant said "I look forward to an epoch when a court recognized by all nations will settle international differences instead of keeping large standing armies, as they do in Europe." Will the Senate head the appeal of the arbitration treaty between the United States and England?

Get a good cool refreshing drink of soda water or root beer at Hodgkins, Patton Pharmacy. The weather forecast will be received from Pittsburgh at the Patton telephone exchange office every morning at 8 o'clock and will be posted in a conspicuous place where all can see it.

Mr. Ed. H. Craver, son of L. A. Craver, of the Blair house, departed on Monday evening for Sandusky, O., where he will enter a business college. Ed. is a fine penman and a first-class boy who will make his mark in the world.—Ebensburg Mountaineer.

Another shooting affray occurred in our town Saturday evening, says the Gallatin Times. At a Hungarian brawl in Mayville guns played a prominent part and a Hun succeeded in plugging one of his companions below the left eye. He is getting along all right and will likely recover.

The COURIER is under obligations to County Superintendent T. L. Gibson for a copy of a neatly bound volume of the report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania for the year ending June 1, 1896, and also for a copy of the Pennsylvania School Laws and Decisions.

Those who have had the pleasure of using Chamberlain's Pain Balm are enthusiastic in their praise of it. Mr. J. C. Myers, of Myers & Woodward, Davis, Pa., in speaking of Pain Balm said: "It is a medicine the world could ill afford to lose. I know of nothing I could use that gives such prompt relief, and especially for sore throat. It also heals cuts and bruises quickly. For sale by Patton Pharmacy, C. W. Hodgkins.

Dysart Items. On last Friday a fishing party visited our town consisting of Dr. H. Somerville and Sam'l Kelly, of Chest Springs, E. Will Greene, Ed. A. Mellon, L. S. Bell and R. Somerville, of Patton, and as far as we learned got a beautiful share of the speckled specimen. Before leaving for home they changed their bait and hauled 'em out rapidly. The "silver hook" beats the fly or worm all hollow. There are some days in trout fishing that require different bait to catch 'em, which one must become acquainted with.

F. V. Perry, of Coalport, was in town on Friday with the old familiar smile. Call again Frank. Mary, Samuel and Francis Byers visited at the parental home of the mother, Mrs. S. J. Byers. E. Hill thought he would take a little fishing expedition one evening; started out and in a short time caught a fish six and a half inches long, weighing two and a half pounds. That satisfied him and he quit. Good haul E.

A. L. Hill visited at Coalport over Sunday. Saturday's and Sunday's rains caused Clearfield creek to overflow its banks, but did no damage except to carry a small bridge away at J. & A. Condon's mill. The general manager of the Cresson Record was in town on Monday. Call again. Send in your name to the PATTON COURIER, the largest and best paper in Cambria county for $1 a year. Dysart is getting to be quite a place for pleasure seekers. Subscribe for the COURIER. Ripans Tablets cure flatulences. Ripans Tablets cure headaches.
